PROCEEDING UNDER THE CLASS PROCEEDINGS ACT, 1992

NOTICE OF MOTION (FEE APPROVAL)

The Plaintiff will make a motion to the Honourable Mr. Justice MacLeod on Wednesday, July 30, 2025 at 10:00 a.m.

PROPOSED METHOD OF HEARING: The Motion is to be heard

☐ In writing under subrule 37.12.1(1) because it is [insert on consent, unopposed or made without notice];

☐ In writing as an opposed motion under subrule 37.12.1(4);

☐ In person;

☐ By telephone conference;

☒ By video conference.

THE MOTION IS FOR

- (a) An Order approving payment of the fees, disbursements, and costs to administer the settlement of Nelligan O'Brien Payne LLP ("Class Counsel") in the amount of $1,900,000.00 (including taxes);
- (b) An Order that the approved Class Counsel fees and disbursements shall be paid out of the Settlement Amount;
- (c) An Order awarding an honorarium of $25,000.00 to the Representative Plaintiff, David Parker, and an honorarium of $15,000.00 to each of John Veniot, Karminдар Brar, and Michael Dawson (the "Instructing Class Members");
- (d) Such further and other relief that counsel may request and this Honourable Court may deem just and appropriate.

THE GROUNDS FOR THE MOTION ARE

- (e) This action arises from allegations that, in arranging to transfer the Class Members' employment to Ford in 2017, BlackBerry failed to provide them with certain entitlements and breached its duty of good faith;
- (f) The Ontario Superior Court of Justice certified the Class Action on May 27, 2019;
- (g) The Representative Plaintiff and the Instructing Class Members entered into retainer agreements with Class Counsel that provide for payment of fees based on a base fee determined by reference to the time spent on the matter, plus a multiplier, as determined and approved by the Superior Court of Justice, plus disbursements;

- (h) The parties reached a Settlement Agreement to resolve the litigation in its entirety on February 13, 2025;
- (i) The Settlement Agreement provides for an all-inclusive settlement of CDN $4,000,000.00, which includes payment for Class Counsel fees and disbursements, interest, general damages, administrative expenses, and honorarium payments, subject to court approval;
- (j) Class Counsel seeks payment of $1,900,000.00 (including taxes) for fees and disbursements and for the administration of the settlement;
- (k) The requested fees and disbursements are fair and reasonable given the retainer agreements entered into, the commitment, work, and risk undertaken by Class Counsel, the additional work to be performed, and the results achieved;
- (l) The Representative Plaintiff approves of the fee requested;
- (m) Class Counsel has diligently litigated this matter, over eight years of hard-fought litigation, through to settlement;
- (n) The honoraria sought would provide appropriate recognition of the exceptional efforts and risk undertaken by the Representative Plaintiff and the Instructing Class Members in this proceeding;
- (o) The fees, disbursements, and honoraria sought were disclosed to Class Members, and Class Counsel has received no objections;
- (p) The Class Proceedings Act, 1992, S.O. 1992, c.6., s. 32; and

- (q) Such further and other grounds as counsel may advise and this Honourable Court may permit.

THE FOLLOWING DOCUMENTARY EVIDENCE will be used at the hearing of the Motion:

- (r) The Affidavit of David Parker affirmed July 15, 2025;
- (s) The Affidavits of Karine Dion affirmed July 17, 2025; and,
- (t) Such further and other evidence as counsel may advise and this Honourable Court may permit.

SUPERIOR COURT OF JUSTICE

BETWEEN:

DAVID PARKER

Plaintiff

and

BLACKBERRY LIMITED

Defendant

AFFIDAVIT OF DAVID PARKER

I, David Parker, of the Town of Perth, in the County of Lanark, AFFIRM:

1. I am the Representative Plaintiff in this action. I have direct knowledge of the matters contained in this Affidavit. Where I rely on information from others, I have clearly stated this and provide the basis for the information, knowledge, or belief, and I verily believe the information to be true.

2. I affirm this Affidavit in support of court approval of: (a) the Settlement Agreement between the parties dated February 13, 2025 (the “Settlement Agreement”); and (b) the fee request of Nelligan O’Brien Payne LLP (“Nelligan Law” or “Class Counsel”).

My Role in the Litigation

3. In my role as Representative Plaintiff, I have been very involved in the litigation, including:

(a) Retaining Class Counsel. A copy of the Retainer Agreement I entered into with Class Counsel is attached as Exhibit “A”;

- (b) Speaking to, corresponding with, and meeting with Class Counsel over the past eight years to inform myself about the litigation and to instruct Class Counsel, including with respect to the negotiation of the Settlement Agreement;
- (c) Speaking to, corresponding with, and meeting with John Veniot, Michael Dawson, and Karmindar Brar, the three other instructing Class Members (the “Instructing Class Members”), to discuss the litigation and provide instructions to Class Counsel;
- (d) Providing necessary information to Class Counsel to assist with the drafting of documents including the Statement of Claim, certification documents, various affidavits in my name, the mediation brief, motion materials, and the pre-trial conference brief. Copies of my Affidavits for the certification motion sworn on June 9, 2017 and November 17, 2017 are attached as Exhibits “B” and “C”, respectively, and a copy of my Affidavit for the 2023 refusals motion affirmed on April 12, 2023 is attached as Exhibit “D”.
- (e) Reviewing documents exchanged including the pleadings, mediation briefs, motion materials, pre-trial conference briefs, and Court decisions;
- (f) Producing the Affidavit of Documents;
- (g) Being cross-examined on my Affidavit for the certification motion and attending examinations for discovery and being orally examined for two days as well as providing further answers to undertakings, questions taken under advisement and/or refused;

-3-

- (h) Attending the mediation in person in Toronto and attending both virtual pre-trial conferences; and,
- (i) Assisting Class Counsel with trial preparation.

4. I have spent a significant amount of my personal time performing the above-noted steps. I reviewed the materials that were sent to me by Class Counsel, and I discussed the litigation with Class Counsel and with the three other Instructing Class Members regularly throughout this litigation. I have had to take time off work, and I have incurred costs, to carry out my obligations as the Representative Plaintiff, including for my two-day examination for discovery, for the in-person mediation in Toronto, and for the two pre-trial conferences. Throughout the eight years of litigation, I remained updated and informed so that I could properly instruct Class Counsel and act in the best interests of the Class.

5. I took on financial risk to act as the Representative Plaintiff. Class Counsel did not agree to indemnify me, nor did I enter into a third-party funding agreement. Had this matter not been successfully resolved, I could have faced an enormous financial loss.

6. I also took on personal risk by acting as the Representative Plaintiff. My name was used on the court documents, and I believe that my new employer (at the time), Ford Motor Company of Canada (“Ford”), knew that I was advancing this class action on behalf of myself and the other Class Members. At the time that this lawsuit was started, in February 2017, my employment circumstances with Ford were uncertain, and I took a significant risk, by putting my name forward as Representative Plaintiff, that I would face negative repercussions from Ford for doing so. Attached as Exhibit “E” is a copy of a letter that Class Counsel wrote to BlackBerry on February 15, 2017 related to the concern that we had at the time regarding potential reprisal.

7. While the other Instructing Class Members, John Veniot, Michael Dawson, and Karmindar Brar, were not involved in each step of the litigation to the same extent as I was (and as listed in paragraph 3 above), they were heavily involved in most aspects of the litigation. They entered into Retainer Agreements with Class Counsel; they spoke with, met with, and corresponded with, Class Counsel on numerous occasions to keep informed of the litigation and to provide instructions; we met as a group of instructing Class Members to discuss the litigation; they provided evidence to Class Counsel to assist with the drafting of various documents; Mr. Veniot and Mr. Dawson provided Affidavits for the certification motion on which they were cross-examined; Mr. Veniot, Mr. Dawson, and Mr. Brar provided detailed written statements in response to an undertaking request from BlackBerry; they reviewed various documents; they provided documents for the Affidavit of Documents; they attended the mediation virtually; they attended both virtual pre-trial conferences; they assisted Class Counsel with trial preparation; and, along with myself, they instructed Class Counsel in the negotiation of the Settlement Agreement. I know, and the three other Instructing Class Members have advised me, that they have spent a considerable amount of their personal time carrying out these steps to advance the litigation on behalf of the Class.

8. The three other instructing Class Members undertook much of the same risk as I did to advance this litigation. They entered into the same Retainer Agreement as I did, through which we agreed to share equally in the payment of any costs award made against me in favour of BlackBerry. They undertook the enormous financial risk of advancing the litigation with no indemnification agreement in place. They also undertook similar personal risk as I did by acting as representatives of the Class given our uncertain employment circumstances, though I feel that I took on an additional risk by putting my name forward as the Representative Plaintiff.

9. I, along with the three other instructing Class Members, became involved in this Class Action because we believe in holding BlackBerry accountable for the manner in which we felt they treated us and our colleagues, and we believe in bringing access to justice to the Class Members who were impacted by BlackBerry's conduct. We did not expect to receive money for the work that we did to advance this matter.

The Settlement Agreement

10. I have discussed the proposed settlement with Class Counsel, and I have reviewed the Settlement Agreement and instructed Class Counsel to accept it.

11. I have also reviewed the notice and distribution documents outlining the terms of the Settlement Agreement and the proposed distribution plan.

12. I understand that the key features of the Settlement Agreement include:

- (a) A total payment of CDN $4 million. After the proposed allocation to legal fees, disbursements, and administrative costs ($1.9 million) and after the proposed allocation to the honoraria ($70,000.00 total for the four instructing Class Members), there will be $2,030,000.00 to distribute to the 281 eligible Class Members;
- (b) The amount paid to Class Members will be in respect of general damages;
- (c) The amount paid to Class Members will be paid taking into account their years of service with BlackBerry, as follows:

- (i) Class Members with less than 3 months of service will not receive any settlement funds;
- (ii) The remaining Class Members will be divided into two tiers:
 - (1) Tier 1: Class Members with less than 5 years of service; and
 - (2) Tier 2: Class Members with 5 or more years of service.
- (iii) The payment will be made in two installments. The first installment will be paid as follows:
 - (1) Tier 1: $400 per complete or partial year of service; and
 - (2) Tier 2: $800 per complete or partial year of service.
- (d) The balance following the first installment payments will be held back in case Class Members successfully dispute their start date. Further, if any Class Member does not make a claim to the settlement funds, and/or if the total settlement amount increases as a result of earning interest, any amount earned will be distributed to the Class Members in the second instalment payment.

13. I believe that the Settlement Agreement is fair, reasonable, and in the best interests of the Class. I have considered the potential award for Class Members if this matter were to proceed to a common issues trial, and I have also considered the expenses, risks, and delay of going to a trial as well as potential appeals. In my opinion, the settlement provides a good result for Class Members that outweighs the costs, risks, and delay of pursuing the litigation.

14. I understand that, under the terms of the proposed settlement, Class Members will receive compensation in a timely fashion, with all payments expected to be made by March 2026. I understand that Class Counsel has the information they need regarding Class Members' start dates with BlackBerry in order to determine the settlement funds that each Class Member shall receive, but that Class Counsel will implement a simple process for Class Members to dispute their years of service, if necessary. I understand that for a Class Member to receive their share of the settlement funds, they only need to complete a Claim Administration Form confirming their years of service with BlackBerry and their contact information. In my opinion, this straightforward distribution process is a benefit to the Class and should lead to most, if not all, of the Class Members making a claim.

15. I have discussed the risks, costs, and benefits of this litigation with Class Counsel over the past eight years. I have been kept apprised of and have instructed Class Counsel throughout the negotiations that led to the proposed settlement. In my opinion, the settlement is fair, reasonable, and in the best interests of the Class.

Class Counsel's Fees

16. I understand from speaking with Class Counsel that they are seeking approval of $1,900,000.00 (including HST) for fees, disbursements, taxes, and for the costs required to bring the motions for settlement and fee approval and to administer the settlement, with $1,800,000.00 credited to amounts incurred up to the point that the proposed settlement was reached on January 24, 2025, and $100,000.00 to cover costs after that date and to administer the settlement.

17. Under the Retainer Agreement I signed, Class Counsel is entitled to their fees based on time spent on this matter plus a multiplier, as approved by the Court. I understand that the fee sought by Class Counsel is based on their actual time spent plus a multiplier of 1.13. I understood and accepted this arrangement when I entered into the Retainer Agreement.

18. I understand that Class Counsel has spent an enormous amount of time over the past eight years advancing this action and that Class Counsel has incurred costs to do so, without any guarantee of payment.

19. Class Counsel's diligent efforts on behalf of myself and the other Class Members will ensure that Class Members will receive compensation for certain alleged harm suffered.

20. Given the results achieved, the risks undertaken, and the commitment of time, money, and resources by Class Counsel, I support Class Counsel's fees and disbursements request.

21. I make this Affidavit in support of the motion for settlement approval and the motion for fee approval and for no other or improper purpose.

RETAINER AGREEMENT

I HEREBY RETAIN and instruct Nelligan O'Brien Payne to advise me and to act on my behalf with respect to the possible termination of my employment from Blackberry/Research in Motion ("the Employer") and to commence legal action in the Superior Court of Justice, by way of Class Proceeding, against the Employer.

I ACKNOWLEDGE that Nelligan O'Brien Payne's fees will be calculated based on a base fee determined by reference to the time spent on this matter on my behalf, plus a multiplier, as determined and approved by the Superior Court of Justice. I understand, when determining a reasonable multiplier the Superior Court of Justice by way of past practice has considered such things as risk, complexity of the issues, the results obtained, urgency and other factors used in setting a reasonable fee. You have agreed to make your time records available to me for my review at any mutually convenient time if I have any question or concern about them. Disbursements will include such items as transcripts, court fees, actual travel costs, computerized legal research, word processing, facsimile charges and fees for counsel, agents and experts, photocopy charges and delivery charges.

I AGREE to provide a non-refundable, cash deposit of $500.00 immediately upon signing this Retainer Agreement. Legal fees and disbursements over and above any recovery of costs from the Employer will be shared pro rata by the class members based on the recovery of each. My deposit will be applied towards my share of the fees.

I UNDERSTAND that legal fees, including disbursements, beyond the initial cash retainer, shall only be payable in the event of recovery by way of the Class Proceeding. For the purposes of this agreement recovery is defined as the receipt of monies or benefits in any manner whatsoever including, but not limited to, settlement or Court Order, as a result of efforts made on my behalf by Nelligan O'Brien Payne. I understand recovery is limited to any monies or benefits received in excess of any written offer of settlement made by the Employer at the time of execution of this agreement.

I UNDERSTAND that the current hourly rate for Janice Payne is $600.00/hour, for Andrew Reinholdt is $235.00/hour, and for Karine Dion is $250.00/hour.

I AUTHORIZE you to use other lawyers, clerks and students as you deem appropriate at the established rates by your firm for their services. Rates may be varied annually, without notice. You will advise me of such hourly rates at my request.

I AUTHORIZE AND DIRECT you to receive any funds to which I may become entitled in connection with this matter and deposit them in your trust account. I authorize you to apply such funds to any of your outstanding unpaid accounts to me for fees and disbursements.

I MAY TERMINATE this retainer at any time and you may withdraw your services in appropriate circumstances upon notice to me, subject to any required court approval.

I HEREBY AGREE to share equally in the payment of any award of costs made against _____ in favour of the Employer in the class proceeding.

AFFIDAVIT OF DAVID PARKER

I, David Parker, of the City of Ottawa, in the Province of Ontario, MAKE OATH AND SAY:

1. I am the proposed Representative Plaintiff in this action and, as such, have knowledge of the matters stated in this Affidavit.
2. A Notice of Action was issued on or about February 15, 2017. A Statement of Claim was issued on or about March 17, 2017 and served on BlackBerry on or about March 21, 2017. A copy of the Notice of Action and Statement of Claim are attached hereto as Exhibits "A" and "B", respectively.

The Cause of Action

Overview of Claim

3. The Statement of Claim (the “claim”) asserts a claim for damages arising out of a failure to provide notice of termination or statutory, contractual or common law damages in lieu of notice.
4. The claim also asserts general and punitive damages for BlackBerry having acted in bad faith, or having been unduly insensitive or misleading in the manner of dismissal, including attempting to avoid providing employees with their statutory entitlements.

Events Giving Rise to the Claim

5. BlackBerry has had a history of laying off a significant number of employees since 2010.
6. On or about September 28, 2016, as part of its Second Quarter Earnings Statement, BlackBerry announced that it would end all internal smartphone hardware development, and outsource those functions to business partners.
7. John Chen (“Chen”), BlackBerry’s Chief Executive Officer (“CEO”), announced to the media on or about September 28, 2016, that BlackBerry would cut expenses by eliminating its inventory and reducing its staff and equipment costs. The media coverage about Chen’s announcement is attached hereto as Exhibit “C”.
8. On or about October 31, 2016, BlackBerry and Ford announced a partnership to develop automobile software. The media coverage about the partnership is attached hereto as Exhibit “D”.
9. Starting in October 2016, BlackBerry began transitioning employees who had worked on hardware technologies and software in the handheld business unit to the newly established “Silver Team.” The employees who were transitioned were referred to as “Silver Team Employees.” I was told by BlackBerry that the Silver Team Employees would be working on a contract engineering project for the Ford Motor Company of Canada ("Ford").

10. Throughout the later part of 2016 and early 2017, BlackBerry arranged for Ford to offer employment to some of its employees. In fact, Ford offered employment to most, but not all, Silver Team Employees. Some Silver Team Employees were offered employment with another of BlackBerry's business partners.
11. It is my understanding that BlackBerry negotiated an agreement with Ford that provided Ford the right to offer employment to Silver Team Employees.
12. BlackBerry allowed Ford representatives to attend BlackBerry offices throughout the Fall of 2016 to speak with the Silver Team Employees about employment with Ford.
13. BlackBerry arranged for Ford to announce to all Silver Team Employees, on BlackBerry premises, that they would receive offers of employment from Ford.
14. On or about January 6, 2017, Chen sent an e-mail to all Silver Team Employees explaining that BlackBerry was reducing its headcount by losing employees. He encouraged Silver Team Employees to accept employment with Ford and the other business partner. A copy of this e-mail is attached hereto as Exhibit "E".
15. BlackBerry representatives e-mailed all Silver Team Employees to notify them that they would be receiving offers of employment from Ford. BlackBerry also scheduled and arranged for Silver Team Employees to meet with Ford representatives on BlackBerry premises so that Ford could provide employment offers to those employees. A copy of this e-mail is attached hereto as Exhibit "F".
16. After receiving offers of employment, BlackBerry again encouraged me and other Silver Team Employees to accept Ford's offer of employment. When I and the other Silver Team Employees asked about staying with BlackBerry rather than transferring to Ford, BlackBerry could not guarantee that we would have a position with BlackBerry if we turned down employment with Ford. BlackBerry would only make vague statements that they would look for a position or provide an offer of severance if none was available – it would not confirm that there were in fact positions available with BlackBerry if we declined the Ford offer. Correspondence regarding the possibility of remaining with BlackBerry is attached hereto as Exhibits “G” (December 14, 2016), “H” (December 23, 2016), and “I” (February 25, 2017).

17. BlackBerry representatives e-mailed Silver Team Employees instructing them on how and when to accept Ford offers of employment. Ford returned to BlackBerry’s premises to accept the employees’ signed employment contracts. A copy of an e-mail confirming this is attached hereto as Exhibit “J”.
18. Many Silver Team Employees, including myself, believe that, given that the salaries they were offered by Ford were all slightly higher than what they were earning with BlackBerry, that BlackBerry provided Silver Team Employees’ personal information, including information about salary and benefits, to Ford.
19. BlackBerry created an environment in which I and other Silver Team Employees felt as though we had no alternative but to accept employment with Ford. We understood that if the Ford offers were not accepted, our careers with BlackBerry would likely not continue.
20. To my knowledge, after Silver Team Employees accepted employment with Ford, BlackBerry sent them the same or a similar communication asking them to sign resignation letters. Attached to this communication was a template resignation letter BlackBerry had drafted, which it asked all transferring Silver Team Employees to complete and sign. A copy of this correspondence, with attachments, is attached hereto as Exhibit “K”.

21. When I and other Silver Team Employees responded to BlackBerry, stating that we had not resigned our employment but were in fact terminated, BlackBerry consistently took the position that we had resigned our employment and had not been terminated.
22. After I commenced litigation, BlackBerry sent the same “Frequently Asked Questions” (“FAQ”) e-mail to me and the other transferred Silver Team Employees. A copy of the FAQ e-mail is attached hereto as Exhibit “L”.
23. All Silver Team Employees were in the same tenuous position of having to either go to Ford or face uncertainty as to whether they may have a position with BlackBerry or become unemployed.
24. BlackBerry and Ford have both stated that, with respect to the transfer of Silver Team Employees to Ford, neither would be treating the transaction as a sale of business. Specifically, Ford has stated that it will not recognize our past service with BlackBerry in determining our various employment benefits, including severance.
25. I received my offer of employment from Ford on or about January 18, 2017. Attached as Exhibit “M” to this Affidavit is a copy of my offer letter with attachments.
26. I started employment with Ford on or about March 1, 2017.

Nature of the Claim

27. This claim alleges that the Silver Team Employees who transferred over to Ford did not resign their employment with BlackBerry, but rather were dismissed from their employment. The claim alleges that the members of the proposed class are therefore entitled to damages flowing from that termination of employment based on the Employment Standards Act, 2000 and other provincial minimum employment statutes for employees outside of Ontario, contractual provisions governing payments due on termination, and/or damages based on the implied term of reasonable notice at common law.

28. The claim also alleges general and punitive damages for BlackBerry having acted in bad faith, or having been unduly insensitive or misleading in the manner of dismissal, including attempting to avoid providing employees with their statutory entitlements.

Identifiable Class of Two or More Persons

29. As set out above, starting in October 2016, BlackBerry moved a group of employees working in its Canadian facilities to a project it called the Silver Team. The proposed class is comprised of Silver Team Employees to whom Ford offered employment, and who accepted employment with Ford between September 1, 2016 and April 30, 2017 ("Class Employees").

30. I understand that there were approximately 250 Silver Team Employees, the vast majority of whom transferred to Ford.

31. The proposed class of this class proceeding is:

All persons in Canada who were employees and/or dependent contractors of BlackBerry Limited ("BlackBerry"), who worked for BlackBerry in Canada, and who were offered and accepted employment with Ford Motor Company of Canada ("Ford") between September 1, 2016 and April 30, 2017.

32. Prior to commencing this class proceeding, I, together with three other Class Employees, retained Nelligan O'Brien Payne LLP to act as our counsel in the matter.

33. I have been informed, and do verily believe, that Nelligan O'Brien Payne LLP has been contacted by at least thirty Class Employees. Nelligan O'Brien Payne LLP has held meetings and consultations, either by telephone or in person, with many of these individuals.

34. There is, therefore, an identifiable class of two or more persons who would be represented by me as the Representative Plaintiff if this proceeding were certified as a class action.

Common Issues

1) Termination of employment

35. The actions forming the basis of this claim are set out above.

36. In light of the events detailed above, this claim discloses two fundamental issues that are common to all Class Employees :

- a. Does BlackBerry's conduct amount to a termination of the Class Employees' employment?
- b. If Blackberry's conduct amounts to a termination of employment, is the date of termination for the purposes of calculating notice requirements:
 - i. the date on which the Class Employee was offered an employment contract with Ford;
 - ii. the date on which the Class Employee signed an employment contract with Ford;
 - iii. the date on which the Class Employee started employment with Ford;
 - iv. February 2, 2017, being the date on which Blackberry insisted upon being provided with a letter of resignation;
 - v. February 10, 2017, being the deadline for returning a letter of resignation to Ford;
 - vi. February 22, 2017, being the date on which Blackberry sent an "FAQ" to Class Employees; or
 - vii. another date to be determined by this Honourable Court.

2) Notice period

37. On termination, Class Employees will be entitled to one of three types of damages, depending on their individual employment contract:

- a. Some Class Employees, including myself, have a fixed formula setting out their entitlements on termination in their employment contracts. In these cases, the Class Employees will be entitled to the amount set out in their respective employment contracts. Class Employees with contractual notice periods allege that these contractual amounts are not subject to an employee's duty to mitigate his or her damages and, as such, are due despite the fact that they (including myself) have new employment with Ford;
 - b. Other Class Employees have contracts that limit them to provincial statutory minimums, or are silent on their termination entitlements, whereas some have no employment contract at all. In all of these cases, the Class Employees will be entitled to, at a minimum, provincial statutory amounts, which are payable on termination and not subject to a duty to mitigate; and
 - c. Class Employees that are potentially entitled to a common law notice period are still theoretically entitled to compensation for lost remuneration during that common law notice period. However, the value of their claim will be reduced by their mitigation earnings with Ford. As such, unless they stop earning income from Ford within their common law notice period, these Class Employees will also only be entitled to their provincial statutory minimums.
38. Although the salaries and length of service of individual Class Employees will vary, the situation leading to the loss of salary and the principles upon which damages for loss of salary should be calculated are common for all Class Employees.
39. As such, fundamental issues common to all Class Employees are:
- a. What is the notice period for those Class Employees whose employment contracts include a formula setting out their entitlements on termination?
 - b. Are the payments required by those contracts reduced in any way by earnings from Ford?

- c. What is the notice period for Class Employees who are only entitled to statutory notice and severance amounts, including those found under the mass termination provisions (such as 57(2) of the Employment Standards Act, 2000 and section 4 of the Termination of Employment Regulation of the Ontario Employment Standards Act, 2000)?
- d. What, if any, is the notice period for Class Employees who are entitled to reasonable notice at common law?
- e. For those Class Employees entitled to reasonable notice at common law, are their damages relating to reasonable notice reduced by earnings from Ford?

3) Lost insurance benefits

40. I received supplementary insurance benefits when working for BlackBerry, including medical healthcare, dental care, and group life and disability insurance benefits as part of my compensation, and I understand that all Class Employees received these benefits.
41. BlackBerry did not continue paying benefits after the Class Employees transferred to Ford. The Class Employees allege an entitlement to damages for the value of their lost benefits during their notice period.
42. All of the Class Employees replaced their lost benefits to some extent through their employment with Ford and, as such, a fundamental issue common to all Class Employees is:
- a. Are the Class Employees entitled to any damages for the loss of insurance benefits during their contractual and/or statutory and/or reasonable notice periods?

4) Variable Incentive Pay ("VIP")

43. As part of our contract of employment with BlackBerry, we were provided with a VIP bonus compensation plan.

44. BlackBerry ceased paying this incentive compensation when the Class Employees started employment with Ford. As such, a fundamental issue common to all Class Employees is:

- a. Are the Class Employees entitled to damages for the loss of the BlackBerry VIP plan during their contractual and/or statutory and/or reasonable notice periods?

5) Are the Class Employees entitled to RRSP matching during their notice period?

45. As part of our contract of employment with BlackBerry, we were provided with RRSP matching.

46. BlackBerry ceased paying RRSP matching when the Class Employees started employment with Ford. As such, a fundamental issue common to all Class Employees is:

- a. Are the Class Employees entitled to damages for the loss of the RRSP matching during their contractual and/or statutory and/or reasonable notice periods?

6) Other benefits or compensation

47. I do not know whether other Class Employees have any additional benefits or additional compensation; however, BlackBerry will have this information and it is possible that some Class Employees have other types of compensation of which I am unaware.

48. If they do, which is information BlackBerry should have readily available, a fundamental issue common to a portion of the Class Employees is:

- a. Are the Class Employees entitled to damages for the loss of any other employment benefits or compensation?

7) Punitive and/or aggravated damages

49. BlackBerry's actions were designed to avoid paying out a large group of its long-service employees any statutory and/or other notice and severance entitlements.

50. Moreover, BlackBerry put Class Employees in an untenable position, where we felt we had to either accept employment with Ford or face unemployment.

51. I understand that the failure to pay statutory minimums on termination may be an independent actionable wrong, entitling employees to seek punitive damages.

52. BlackBerry's conduct was directed towards all Class Employees and raises the following common issues:

- a. Are the Class Employees entitled to aggravated and/or punitive damages?
- b. If so, what is the quantum of these damages?

Class Proceedings is the Preferred Procedure

53. A class proceeding is the preferred procedure for resolving the common issues in this matter for a number of reasons.

54. A class proceeding would promote the interests of judicial economy by saving the Court both time and money in hearing the common issues once instead of numerous times.

55. A class proceeding will permit individuals to pursue claims they might otherwise be unable to afford to pursue. I have been informed, and do verily believe, that some Class Employees do not have lengthy service records, making it so it may not be economically efficient for them to pursue their claims against BlackBerry through regular court proceedings.
56. As set out above, the claim is largely based on BlackBerry's actions towards all of the Class Employees and, as such, any other type of legal procedure would waste judicial resources on essentially the same fact situation.
57. Many Class Employees told me that they feared repercussions from Ford for pursuing a legal claim. I share this same concern, but I am nonetheless willing to risk those repercussions. Other Class Employees have informed me that they are not willing to risk those repercussions
58. Nelligan O'Brien Payne LLP sent a letter to BlackBerry stating that, because this claim involves a claim pursuant to the Employment Standards Act, 2000 and other statutory rights, neither Ford nor BlackBerry can take actions to impact any Class Employees' employment as a result of joining this claim. A copy of this letter is attached hereto as Exhibit "N".
59. As such, this class action is therefore not only the preferred procedure for some Class Employees to assert their rights – it may be the only practical opportunity for many of them to do so.

The Representative Plaintiff

60. I had been working at BlackBerry since on or about June 28, 2004, until I started employment with Ford on March 1, 2017.

61. When BlackBerry began taking steps to transfer our employment to Ford, I had several discussions with other Class Employees about what course of action we should take. I decided to contact Nelligan O'Brien Payne LLP for legal advice.
62. During a meeting held on February 10, 2017 with three other Class Employees, including approximately 15 Class Employees who participated by way of teleconference, I volunteered to act as the Representative Plaintiff in this Class Action. The Class Employees who were present at the meeting and participated in the teleconference agreed.
63. I have agreed to share in any award of costs in favour of BlackBerry with a group of three other Class Employees should this action not be successful.
64. I do not have any interest that conflicts with the interests of other Class Employees.
65. I am making the statements in this Affidavit without waiving the solicitor-client privilege that attaches to any discussions held with my counsel or to my retainer agreement with Nelligan O'Brien Payne LLP.

Litigation Plan

66. If the Plaintiff class is certified, I will request that the Court order BlackBerry to immediately provide my solicitors with the names, addresses, and e-mail addresses of all Class Employees.
67. I propose that, immediately following certification, all Class Employees be sent a notice by mail and e-mail incorporating the matters set out in section 17(6) of the Class Proceedings Act.
68. I propose that Class Employees be given thirty (30) days within which to opt out of the class proceeding (the "opt out period"). I further propose that the Class

Employees be able to opt out by delivering their notice either by mail, fax or e-mail to Leigh Norton at Nelligan O'Brien Payne LLP; the relevant information for same shall be included in the notice sent to all Class Employees, as set out above.

69. I ask that the Court order mandatory mediation on the common issues to take place within ninety (90) days of the expiry of the opt out period. I propose using Rick Weiler as the mediator in this proceeding.

70. If the mediation is unsuccessful, I propose that the parties agree to a discovery plan within thirty (30) days from the date of mediation. We ask that Justice Michel Charbonneau remain seized to deal with this, and any other issues, on which the parties cannot agree.

71. Following discovery, we would schedule a trial on the common issues based on the Court's availability.

72. Should the Court determine that the Class Employees were in fact terminated, each Class Employees' damages will be calculated without difficulty. The calculation will be based on three factors:

- i. Whether the Class Employee is entitled to either (1) contractual entitlements, (2) statutory entitlements, and/or (3) common law reasonable notice;
- ii. The individual's length of service; and
- iii. The individual's remuneration.

As such, we propose that the parties attempt to determine the quantum of damages for each individual Class Employee on their own, within sixty (60) days of a decision. If the parties cannot resolve these issues, they would return to the Trial Judge to seek guidance.

73. Alternatively, following the resolution of the common issues at trial, assessment for individuals would take place. There would be three issues in the individual assessments:

- i. Whether the Class Employee is entitled to either (1) contractual entitlements, (2) statutory entitlements, and/or (3) common law reasonable notice;
- ii. The individual's length of service; and
- iii. The individual's remuneration.

We propose that there be mediations to resolve these individual claims following which any individual claims unresolved by mediation would be heard by way of private arbitration.

74. The Trial Judge is in a position to assess whether to award punitive and/or aggravated damages. If the Trial Judge feels he or she is in a position to assess the quantum of punitive and/or aggravated damages for each Class Employee, then he or she will do so. If not, we propose that there be mediations to resolve these individual claims following which any individual claims unresolved by mediation would be heard by way of private arbitration.

NOTICE OF ACTION

TO THE DEFENDANT

A LEGAL PROCEEDING HAS BEEN COMMENCED AGAINST YOU by the plaintiff. The claim made against you is set out in the statement of claim served with this notice of action.

IF YOU WISH TO DEFEND THIS PROCEEDING, you or an Ontario lawyer acting for you must prepare a statement of defence in Form 18A prescribed by the Rules of Civil Procedure, serve it on the plaintiff's lawyer or, where the plaintiff does not have a lawyer, serve it on the plaintiff, and file it, with proof of service, in this court office, WITHIN TWENTY DAYS after this notice of action is served on you, if you are served in Ontario.

If you are served in another province or territory of Canada or in the United States of America, the period for serving and filing your statement of defence is forty days. If you are served outside Canada and the United States of America, the period is sixty days.

Instead of serving and filing a statement of defence, you may serve and file a notice of intent to defend in Form 18B prescribed by the Rules of Civil Procedure. This will entitle you to ten more days within which to serve and file your statement of defence.

IF YOU FAIL TO DEFEND THIS PROCEEDING, JUDGMENT MAY BE GIVEN AGAINST YOU IN YOUR ABSENCE AND WITHOUT FURTHER NOTICE TO YOU. IF YOU WISH TO DEFEND THIS PROCEEDING BUT ARE UNABLE TO PAY LEGAL FEES, LEGAL AID MAY BE AVAILABLE TO YOU BY CONTACTING A LOCAL LEGAL AID OFFICE.

TAKE NOTICE: THIS ACTION WILL AUTOMATICALLY BE DISMISSED if it has not been set down for trial or terminated by any means within five years after the action was commenced unless otherwise ordered by the court.

Claim

1. The Plaintiff claims:

- a. an order certifying this action as a class proceeding pursuant to the Class Proceedings Act, 1992, and appointing the Plaintiff as the representative plaintiff for:
 - i. all persons in Canada who are or were employees and/or dependent contractors of BlackBerry Limited ("BlackBerry") who work or worked for BlackBerry in Canada, and who were offered and accepted employment with Ford Motor Company of Canada ("Ford") after January, 1 2016 (the "BlackBerry Employees"); and
 - ii. such other group of persons as may be approved by the Court.
- b. damages for the greater of the Plaintiffs':
 - i. minimum provincial statutory entitlements on termination;
 - ii. contractual entitlements on termination; or
 - iii. common law entitlements on termination, where applicable, less a reduction for mitigation earnings;
- c. bad faith and punitive damages in the amount of $20,000,000.00 or such other sum as this Court finds appropriate at the trial of the common issues or at a reference or references;

- d. pre and post-judgment interest in accordance with the Courts of Justice Act, RSO 1990, c C 43, as amended;
 - e. costs of this action on a substantial indemnity basis, including H.S.T.; and
 - f. such further and other relief that this Honourable Court deems just.
2. The Plaintiff, David Parker, is an individual ordinarily resident in the City of Ottawa, Ontario. He has worked for BlackBerry for over fourteen (14) years.
3. The Defendant, BlackBerry, is a duly incorporated company, operating a number of facilities across Canada.
4. In or about the Fall of 2016, BlackBerry and Ford arranged to transfer the BlackBerry Employees' employment to Ford (the "Transaction"). The BlackBerry Employees agreed to accept and/or were offered employment with Ford. Both BlackBerry and Ford have stated that the Transaction is not a sale of business. Both BlackBerry and Ford have stated that the BlackBerry Employees' years of service and/or contractual severance entitlements will not transfer to Ford.
5. BlackBerry's actions, taken as a whole, amount to a termination of the BlackBerry Employees' employment, entitling them to their statutory, common law and/or contractual entitlements on termination.

6. BlackBerry has stated that it will not pay the BlackBerry Employees any of their entitlements on termination.
7. BlackBerry has breached its duties of good faith, honesty and to not knowingly mislead the BlackBerry Employees. It has structured the Transaction to circumvent paying the Blackberry Employees' statutory entitlements.

Background

The Parties

2. The Plaintiff, David Parker ("Parker"), is an individual ordinarily resident in the City of Ottawa, Ontario. He worked for BlackBerry for over thirteen (13) years since his hire on or about June 28, 2004.

3. The Defendant, BlackBerry Limited, is a duly incorporated company, operating a number of facilities across Canada.

BlackBerry

4. BlackBerry built and sold smartphone hardware and software. In 2007, it rose to be the most valuable company on the TSX; however, since that time, its financial performance has been declining.
5. In or around 2011, BlackBerry released its first tablet device; however, due to worse than expected financial performance, the company began to struggle and started to reduce its workforce. BlackBerry initially cut approximately 2,000 jobs in 2011. In or about 2012, BlackBerry laid off approximately 5,000 employees and in 2013, BlackBerry laid off approximately 4,500 employees.
6. In or about February, 2016, BlackBerry announced it would lay off additional employees.
7. The long history of layoffs left Parker, and other employees, concerned about the security of their employment with BlackBerry.

BlackBerry's Change in Strategy

8. On or about September 28, 2016, as part of its Second Quarter Earnings Statement, BlackBerry announced that it would end all internal smartphone hardware development and outsource those functions to business partners.
9. John Chen ("Chen"), the Chief Executive Officer ("CEO") of BlackBerry, announced to the media that BlackBerry would cut expenses by eliminating its inventory and reducing its staff and equipment costs.

10. At this time, Parker became increasingly worried that his employment with BlackBerry was in jeopardy.

The BlackBerry/Ford Partnership

11. On or about October 31, 2016, BlackBerry and Ford announced a partnership to develop automobile software (the "Ford Contract").
12. Starting in October 2016, BlackBerry began transitioning employees, who had worked on hardware technologies and software in the handheld business unit, to the "Silver Team" (the "Silver Team Employees"). BlackBerry did not provide the Silver Team Employees with information about what the Silver Team would do. All that the Silver Team Employees were told was that their work would involve engineering services exclusively for Ford. BlackBerry moved Parker to the Silver Team on or about January 4, 2017.

BlackBerry and Ford Negotiated the Transfer of the Silver Team Employees

13. BlackBerry and Ford negotiated the right for Ford to offer employment to the Silver Team Employees.
14. BlackBerry provided the Silver Team Employees' human resources ("HR") and other personal information to Ford. It did not ask Parker or other Silver Team Employees for permission to do so. BlackBerry management discussed the employees' employment information with Ford, without first consulting with the affected employees.
15. Throughout the fall of 2016, BlackBerry allowed Ford to attend BlackBerry's offices and make presentations to the Silver Team Employees about the benefits of joining Ford.

Ford Announced that Silver Team Employees would Transfer to Ford

16. On or about December 9, 2016, Ford conducted a video-linked presentation to BlackBerry offices in Canada and the United States, to which it invited the Silver Team Employees. BlackBerry encouraged the Silver Team Employees to attend. During the presentation, Ford announced that it would be offering employment to the Silver Team Employees. HR personnel from both BlackBerry and Ford were in attendance.
17. BlackBerry later clarified that the majority of Silver Team Employees would receive offers from Ford, while others would transfer to another BlackBerry business partner.

Parker Requested Information about the Transfer

18. Following Ford's announcement of the Silver Team Employees' transfer, Parker reached out to Amber Jessup, a BlackBerry HR Representative ("Jessup"), and confirmed he wanted to stay with BlackBerry. She responded that there would be no guarantee of a position with BlackBerry for individuals who declined the offer from Ford.
19. On or about December 14, 2016, Parker emailed Ralph Pini ("Pini"), a BlackBerry HR Representative and Head of the Mobile Solutions unit, asking him what his employment status would be if he refused employment with Ford.
20. Pini responded via email that BlackBerry would not be continuing the current activities in Parker's group in the future, but that BlackBerry would try and find a matching position. He did not identify any positions that would be available to Parker. He then wrote that Parker ought to "give a chance to the Ford opportunity before making a decision since there is some really great innovation going on".

21. Parker responded to Pini that HR had told him that there would be no guarantee of future employment with BlackBerry should he refuse employment with Ford. Pini wrote back stating that BlackBerry would “try (its) best to match the skillset” for a position with the software licensing team.
22. Parker also asked Jessup about available positions within BlackBerry’s QNX team if he turned down the Ford offer. She responded on or about December 23, 2016 that there were no open roles within that team, nor any available roles anticipated in the near future.

The Chen Email

23. On or about January 6, 2017, Chen sent an email to all Silver Team Employees noting the changes to the Mobility Solutions Business Unit (the group in which the Silver Team Employees worked). In his email, Chen explained that BlackBerry’s strategy “requires a reduced headcount in the Mobility Solutions BU”.
24. Chen also explained that management had negotiated agreements with Ford for those employees, although he stated that he had “mixed emotions” about the deal. While he was pleased that BlackBerry was “able to secure alternative employment” for most of the team, Chen was sorry “to have to lose great talent and loyal colleagues from BlackBerry”.
25. Even though Chen acknowledged that many employees had inquired about staying with BlackBerry, including moving to another group within the company, he discouraged the employees from doing so:

I know that some in-scope employees have asked about staying with BlackBerry and moving to another group, such as BTS to support the Autonomous Vehicle Innovation Center (AVIC). Whilst the AVIC has been announced, the project is still developing and its timeline is undetermined. The Ford and TCL deals are in-hand and my priority has been to ensure that as many impacted employees as possible have a good home at a company that will make the best use of your talents. It is important to remember that both Ford and TCL will work closely with BlackBerry in the future therefore, transferred employees will continue to contribute to BlackBerry's future.

26. Chen then stated that if an employee declined an offer with Ford, BlackBerry would evaluate internal opportunities with BlackBerry "as much as possible".
27. In light of his earlier correspondence with BlackBerry HR, Parker understood Chen's message to mean that it was unlikely he would have a role with BlackBerry if he turned down employment with Ford.

Ford made Offers of Employment

28. On or about January 16, 2017, Zolton Racz, a BlackBerry HR Representative ("Racz"), emailed the entire Silver Team notifying them that all Silver Team Employees would receive offers of employment from Ford, which he said was "excellent news". He asked that all employees be available on specific dates to receive their individual offers of employment in person. He noted that both Ford and BlackBerry HR representatives would be onsite to address any employee questions.
29. BlackBerry set up meetings for Parker and the other Silver Team Employees to meet with Ford representatives so that they could provide the employees with offers of employment. These offers included an employment contract setting out the terms and conditions of their new employment with Ford.
30. On or about January 18, 2017, Ford offered Parker employment.
31. On or about January 24, and again on January 27, 2017, Racz sent emails to the entire Ottawa Silver Team, notifying them that they should hand deliver their acceptance of employment to the Ford HR representatives who would be on-site at BlackBerry's offices.

32. Based on the uncertain statements from BlackBerry about any other options, the pressure it was putting on the employees to accept employment with Ford, and the history of BlackBerry layoffs in recent years, Parker understood that he would have no position at BlackBerry if he did not accept the Ford offer. As such, Parker accepted employment with Ford on or about January 23, 2017. He believed he had no other practical choice; his decision was not voluntary.

BlackBerry Requested Resignations

33. On or about February 2, 2017, Jessup emailed Parker stating that BlackBerry required him to resign his employment with BlackBerry:

As you have accepted new employment, you are required to submit formal notice of your resignation. Attached is a template resignation letter that you are required to complete, sign and submit. Please complete the letter and return (in person or by email) by February 10th.

Before your last day you will receive a Resignation Acceptance Letter from HR. This document confirms your last day with BlackBerry as well as some final details concerning your benefits, vacation pay and other pertinent information.

34. Jessup attached documents to her email. She stated Parker had to sign those documents which included a template resignation letter for Parker, as well as a document setting out his "post-employment obligations".

35. Jessup's email also contained timelines that Parker was required to follow with respect to his BlackBerry smartphone, returning documents, and filing expense forms, prior to his move to Ford.
36. Jessup's email was the first time anyone from BlackBerry told Parker he was required to resign his employment.
37. The other employees who accepted employment with Ford received the same, or a substantially similar, email communication from BlackBerry stating that BlackBerry required that they resign their employment with BlackBerry.

Parker took the Position that BlackBerry Terminated Him

38. Parker responded to Jessup's email on or about February 2, 2017. He stated that BlackBerry terminated his employment based on its communications with him and other employees, including Chen and Pini's emails, as well as BlackBerry's lack of clarity as to whether there would be a position for him within the company should he refuse Ford's offer of employment. He stated that he believed he was entitled to his contractual entitlements on termination. He did not sign the resignation letter.
39. Jessup responded that BlackBerry was not terminating his employment; rather, Parker had accepted new employment and therefore had resigned his position.

BlackBerry and Ford take the Position that this is Not a Sale of Business

40. On or about February 7, 2017, Parker asked for clarification from Jessup as to whether the transfer of Silver Team Employees to Ford (the "Transaction") constituted a sale of business.
41. Jessup did not respond to Parker in writing.

42. She did however meet with Parker and another employee the next day, and confirmed that neither BlackBerry nor Ford were treating the Transaction as a sale of business and, as such, the employees' years of service with BlackBerry would not transfer to Ford.
43. Parker also reached out to a Ford HR representative on or about February 8, 2017. This representative also confirmed that Ford was not treating the Transaction as a sale of business.
44. On or about February 9, 2017, Parker sent an email to Jessup summarizing his conversation with her. He asked her to confirm that neither Ford nor BlackBerry were treating the Transaction as a sale of business.
45. Jessup did not reply to this message.
46. Instead, on or about February 10, 2017, Vann Vogel, a BlackBerry lawyer and Senior Director of Compliance and Employment Law ("Vogel"), responded. Vogel confirmed that Parker's employment was not being transferred to Ford, that his relationship with Ford was a new relationship, and that the decision to accept employment with Ford was his own (Parker's).
47. Other employees had the same, or a similar, experience when they asked questions about whether the Transaction constituted a sale of business, and whether BlackBerry would pay out their entitlements on termination.
48. Other employees were not provided with a written response from BlackBerry; instead, BlackBerry insisted on engaging in telephone conversations, wherein they communicated the same information: this was not a termination of employment or a sale of business.

Parker could not Remain with or Return to BlackBerry

49. At no point after Parker was offered employment with Ford did anyone at BlackBerry tell Parker there was a specific position available for him if he wished to stay.
50. On or about February 23, 2017, after Parker filed a Notice of Action with respect to this matter, BlackBerry sent all employees an email responding to what it called "Frequently Asked Questions" ("FAQs").
51. The FAQs did not guarantee that BlackBerry had positions available for employees who wanted to stay with BlackBerry instead of accepting employment with Ford, nor did they suggest that employees who had already accepted employment with Ford could return to BlackBerry:

Q. If I don't receive a job offer, or decline a job offer, is my employment with BlackBerry terminated?

A. No. If you don't receive, or if you decline an offer from Ford, your employment will continue with BlackBerry. It will continue in the same position as before and we will consider you for comparable roles on another team at BlackBerry if your position subsequently becomes redundant.

Q. Are comparable roles available?

A. We have already placed several employees in comparable roles (in the same job position) who have chosen to remain at BlackBerry. We will work with you to find a suitable and comparable role if you choose to stay and continue your employment at BlackBerry. In the event we cannot find a comparable role on another team and determine that we must subsequently terminate your employment, you would then be eligible for separation pay per the terms of your employment agreement.

52. In the FAQs, BlackBerry also stated that it no longer required employees to provide a letter of resignation, although it would nonetheless treat all acceptances of Ford employment as resignations from BlackBerry:

Q. If I accept a job offer from Ford, am I required to submit a letter of resignation?

A. We have requested a letter to confirm your acceptance of Ford's job offer and thus resignation from BlackBerry, to complete your file. If you choose not to submit a letter, we will nonetheless recognize your acceptance of employment by Ford and accept it as a resignation from BlackBerry.

53. On or about February 25, 2017, Vogel sent a separate email to Parker. He indicated that if Parker wished to remain with BlackBerry, there were positions available, and HR would work with him to find suitable work. Vogel did not provide any information about what specific positions might be available to Parker or any other terms of employment.

Parker and the other Plaintiffs' Damages

Damages for Wrongful Dismissal

54. BlackBerry's actions, taken as a whole, amount to a wrongful termination of the Plaintiffs' employment, entitling them to their statutory, common law and/or contractual entitlements on termination.

55. When BlackBerry arranged for Ford to provide the Plaintiffs with offers of employment, its actions, taken as a whole, amounted to a clear intention to terminate them.

Specifically:

- a. BlackBerry had a long history of layoffs, and made uncertain statements about whether the Plaintiffs would have positions with BlackBerry if they refused employment with Ford. This created an environment whereby the Plaintiffs did not know if they would have a position with BlackBerry if they refused employment with Ford;

- b. In or around the Fall of 2016, Chen announced that BlackBerry would be reducing its staff and moving its services to business partners, which the Plaintiffs understood to mean they would no longer have positions with BlackBerry;
- c. BlackBerry actively negotiated with Ford to have Ford take on the Plaintiffs because BlackBerry did not have positions for them;
- d. BlackBerry actively worked to facilitate the transfer of the Plaintiffs to Ford, and shared the Plaintiffs' personal and HR information, without asking for their permission;
- e. BlackBerry set a clear and unequivocal date of termination. Specifically, BlackBerry negotiated with Ford for the Plaintiffs' employment with BlackBerry to terminate on March 1, 2017, when the Plaintiffs would start with Ford;
- f. BlackBerry failed to provide any clear indication as to whether employees who refused employment from Ford would continue to hold positions with BlackBerry. Instead, it vaguely responded that there may be positions, but encouraged the Plaintiffs to accept employment with Ford;
- g. When Racz announced that Ford would be providing the entire Silver Team with offers of employment, he described it as "excellent news", implying that had Ford not provided these offers, the Plaintiffs would have been laid off;
- h. Only after the Plaintiffs accepted employment with Ford, BlackBerry notified the Plaintiffs that they were required to resign their employment with BlackBerry, that BlackBerry would not pay them any statutory or contractual entitlements, and that their service with BlackBerry would not transfer to Ford;

- i. BlackBerry told the Plaintiffs that they were required to sign documents confirming "post-employment" obligations;
- j. While some employees did sign the resignation letters that they were given, they did not do so voluntarily;
- k. BlackBerry and Ford have both confirmed that the Transaction is not a Sale of Business and Ford will not honour the Plaintiffs' years of service; and
- l. Only after Parker started this action, BlackBerry reached out to him and other Plaintiffs with a suggestion that there might be opportunities with BlackBerry. These statements did not confirm that the Plaintiffs' employment would continue because they were made after BlackBerry had already terminated the Silver Team Employees' employment and were self-serving statements made in the face of litigation.

56. Parker and some of the other Plaintiffs have clauses in their employment contracts setting out a formula to determine their entitlements on termination ("Contractual Entitlements"). These Plaintiffs are entitled to these Contractual Entitlements as damages flowing from their wrongful termination.
57. Other Plaintiffs are entitled to common law reasonable notice periods. These Plaintiffs are entitled to damages determined at common law for their wrongful termination.
58. Further and in the alternative, all Plaintiffs are entitled to their minimum statutory entitlements on termination, including but not limited to termination, severance and vacation pay, in accordance with Ontario's Employment Standards Act, 2000, SO 2000, c

41 (“ESA”) and other provincial and territorial employment standards legislation (“Statutory Entitlements”). All the Plaintiffs are entitled to these Statutory Entitlements as damages flowing from their wrongful termination.

59. The Plaintiffs have no duty to mitigate their Contractual Entitlements and/or Statutory Entitlements on termination.

Bad Faith Damages

60. BlackBerry owed the Plaintiffs a duty of good faith and fair dealing in the manner of their dismissal. The duty of good faith is characterized by candour, reasonableness, honesty and forthrightness. The parties reasonably expected that BlackBerry would act in good faith and not mislead the Plaintiffs in the manner of dismissal.

61. BlackBerry refused and/or failed to act in good faith in the manner of the Plaintiffs’ dismissal and instead acted in bad faith by being untruthful, misleading and unduly insensitive.

62. The Plaintiffs state that BlackBerry’s actions as set out above constitute a breach of its obligation of good faith and fair dealing in the manner of their dismissal. Specifically, BlackBerry:

- a. Structured the Transaction to circumvent paying the Plaintiffs’ Statutory Entitlements;
- b. Was intentionally vague, misleading and incomplete in its communications with the Plaintiffs prior to their accepting employment with Ford;
- c. Shared the Plaintiffs’ personal and other HR information with Ford without obtaining their consent;

- d. Only after the Plaintiffs accepted employment with Ford did BlackBerry inform these employees that the Transaction was not a sale of business and that it would not pay out their entitlements on termination; and
- e. Is refusing to pay the Plaintiffs' Statutory Entitlements on termination.

Punitive Damages

63. BlackBerry's conduct was malicious, oppressive, heavy-handed, and extreme in nature. This conduct is deserving of full condemnation and punishment. Specifically, BlackBerry:

- a. Structured the Transaction to circumvent paying the Plaintiffs' Statutory Entitlements;
- b. Was intentionally vague, misleading and incomplete in its communications with the Plaintiffs prior to their accepting employment with Ford;
- c. Shared the Plaintiffs' personal and other HR information with Ford without obtaining their consent;
- d. Only after the Plaintiffs accepted employment with Ford did BlackBerry inform these employees that the Transaction was not a sale of business and that it would not pay out their entitlements on termination; and
- e. Is refusing to pay the Plaintiffs' Statutory Entitlements on termination.

64. BlackBerry committed independent actionable wrongs entitling the Plaintiffs to an award of punitive damages. Specifically, BlackBerry failed to pay out Statutory Entitlements on termination, it breached its duty of good faith and fair dealing, and it breached the Plaintiffs' privacy rights by sharing their HR information with Ford.

BlackBerry to stop making its smartphones in major strategic shift

All hardware development and manufacturing will be outsourced to partners, while the Canadian company concentrates on growing the software side of its business.

WATERLOO, ONT.—BlackBerry will stop making its signature smartphones, the company said Wednesday, after facing repeated calls to leave the hardware business that was once the basis of its reputation as a global technology leader.

All hardware development and manufacturing will be outsourced to partners, which will license the BlackBerry's technology and brand, while the Canadian company concentrates on growing the software side of its business.

"We have decided to discontinue all the handset hardware development, only hardware," said BlackBerry chairman and CEO John Chen in a conference call with analysts.

"We believe that this is the best way to drive profitability in the device business," he said.

This strategy already exists to some extent for the Waterloo, Ont.-based company.

Chen said one or two products are already made by partners but BlackBerry has also been developing its own smartphone.

The outsourcing of all remaining hardware development — to be complete by Feb. 28, when the company's financial year ends — will reduce BlackBerry's expenses by eliminating the need to carry inventory, as well as reducing staff and equipment costs, he said.

"It's a long list of savings," Chen said.

BlackBerry has struggled to sell its once popular smartphones — which originally featured a distinctive keypad and the company's own operating system.

It recently released handsets using versions of the Android operating system, the Priv and the lower-priced DTEK50 that began shipping in August.

During the company's second quarter ended Aug. 31, it sold about 400,000 smartphones, including the DTEK50, for an average price of $271, Chen said.

Under the new plan to outsource the work, BlackBerry will start to report its hardware revenue based on royalties it receives from licensing agreements with its partners, Chen said.

It announced Wednesday that it signed its first major device software licensing agreement with a telecom joint venture in Indonesia.

The BB Merah Putih joint venture will manufacture, distribute and promote BlackBerry-branded devices running the company's secure versions of Android software and applications for the Indonesian market. BlackBerry has the option to distribute these devices outside of Indonesia, but is not likely to do so, Chen said.

BlackBerry, which reports its results in U.S. dollars, says it had a $372 million net loss in the three months ended Aug. 31, equivalent to 71 cents per share, but broke even after excluding certain items.

Revenue was $334 million or $352 million after adjustments. That was below analyst estimates of $391.75 million.

Chen had said at the previous quarterly earnings release that he expected the company's mobility solutions segment, which includes hardware and a mobility software licensing service, to break even or record a slight profit in this financial year.

BlackBerry to stop making its signature smartphones, work to be outsourced

ALEKSANDRA SAGAN, THE CANADIAN PRESS

FIRST POSTED: WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 28, 2016 08:14 AM EDT | UPDATED: WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 28, 2016 03:58 PM EDT

(Postmedia Network files)

WATERLOO, Ont. — BlackBerry is heeding calls to leave the smartphone hardware business that once helped forge its reputation as a global technology leader before it got swept aside by the likes of Apple and Samsung.

The company said Wednesday it will stop designing its signature devices and outsource that work to external partners so that it can focus on its growing security software operations.

“We believe that the phone market is evolving more and more into the intelligence market,” chairman and CEO John Chen told a media roundtable in BlackBerry’s home base of Waterloo, Ont.

The announcement builds on BlackBerry’s gradual departure from the hardware market. It had previously outsourced the manufacturing of its phones to two companies, and the design of its most recent phone — the DTEK50, which began shipping last month — was done externally.

Chen said the new strategy will be complete by Feb. 28, when BlackBerry’s financial year ends, and will cut expenses by eliminating the need to carry inventory, as well as reducing staff and equipment costs.

Fewer than 100 employees will lose their jobs as a result, he said.

Once a symbol of corporate power, the BlackBerry device lost favour as rivals such as Apple’s iPhone pushed their way into the market.

In recent years, BlackBerry sales floundered. On Wednesday, Chen said BlackBerry sold about 400,000 smartphones, including the DTEK50, for an average price of US$271. Three months earlier, Chen said 500,000 of the devices were sold at an average cost of US$290.

It tried mounting comebacks in the handset market, most recently with the release of the Priv and the DTEK50, both of which used the Android operating system.

Chen said he still has one BlackBerry-designed smartphone with a keyboard under wraps, though he hasn’t yet decided whether it will be released. 67 that device, a next-generation DTEK phone, never makes it to store shelves, Chen said Canadians will be able to purchase new BlackBerry-branded phones made and designed by other companies through licensing agreements. Those phones will be required to use BlackBerry's operating system and either display its branding or a tag line informing users its powered by BlackBerry.

"You as a consumer, you will see no difference whatsoever," he said. "We will take some of these phones and distribute it in Canada."

BlackBerry will retain portfolio veto rights, meaning that if phones designed under those licensing agreements don't meet the BlackBerry brand standards, the company can stop their release, Chen added.

The company also announced Wednesday that it signed its first major device software licensing agreement with a telecom joint venture in Indonesia.

Under the deal, the BB Merah Putih joint venture would manufacture, distribute and promote BlackBerry-branded devices running the company's secure versions of Android software and applications for the Indonesian market. Other agreements are in the works for China and India, Chen said.

Earlier in the day, BlackBerry released results that showed continuing losses. The company, which reports its earnings in U.S. dollars, says it had a $372 million net loss in the second quarter ending Aug. 31, equivalent to 71 cents per share, but broke even after excluding certain items.

Revenue was $334 million or $352 million after adjustments. That was below analyst estimates of $391.75 million.

Here is a look at BlackBerry's 30-year roller-coaster ride:

1984: Research In Motion is founded by University of Waterloo engineering student Mike Lazaridis and University of Windsor engineering student Douglas Fregin.

1992: Jim Balsillie joins RIM. He would become co-CEO along with Lazaridis.

1996: RIM releases the Inter@ctive Pager, also known as the RIM 900, its first keyboard-based device and the first two-way messaging pager.

1997: RIM goes public on the Toronto Stock Exchange.

1998: The RIM 950, a dramatically slimmed down two-way pager, is released.

1999: The stock symbol RIMM is added to Nasdaq. RIM announces it has received approval from the Federal Communications Commission in the U.S. to begin selling its first BlackBerry device, the 850, with mobile email.

2002: RIM adds voice calling capabilities to the BlackBerry 5810.

2003: RIM is added to the Nasdaq 100, releases its first BlackBerry with a colour screen.

2004: RIM marks its 20th anniversary announcing it has passed the one-million subscriber mark. By year's end, it has more than two million subscribers using its devices.

2006: BlackBerry releases the first in a line of consumer-friendly Pearl devices, adding a digital camera and multimedia capabilities.

2007: RIM becomes the most valuable company on the TSX with a market capitalization surpassing $67 billion. The company has 10 million subscribers and introduces the first of its Curve BlackBerrys. But RIM is caught flat-footed by the overwhelming response to Apple's new iPhone.

2008: BlackBerry's shares close below $50 on the TSX in December. The company's stock was worth more than $240 just over a year earlier. Its first touchscreen BlackBerry, the Storm, is critically panned as hype around the iPhone grows with the new 3G model.

2009: BlackBerry launches its App World marketplace to compete with Apple's App Store.

SUN+

RIM surpasses 40 million users and announces it has shipped its 100 millionth smartphone. It buys Ottawa-based QNX Software Systems, which would help reshape its operating system software going forward. A few months after the first iPad hits the market, RIM unveils its PlayBook tablet to be released the following year.

2011: An unpolished PlayBook is released in the spring, later than expected, and reviews are not kind.

2012: Lazaridis and Balsillie step down as co-CEOs and are replaced by Thorsten Heins. Balsillie also resigns from the board of directors. Within months, Heins announces 5,000 layoffs and a delay to the critical BlackBerry 10 software update, which is seen as the company's last chance to stay alive. The stock settles at a low of $6.18 on the TSX in September.

2013: Heins unveils the BlackBerry 10 operating system. The first two smartphones to use the operating system are the Z10 and Q10. Lazaridis steps down as vice-chairman and leaves the board of directors.

November 2013: Heins is replaced by new CEO John Chen, who is also the chairman of the revamped BlackBerry board. Instead of making smartphones a priority, Chen pivots BlackBerry's strategy towards mobile software services that emphasize security and are aimed at businesses and governments.

September 2014: BlackBerry launches the Passport. The square-screened smartphone with a keyboard is targeted at health care professionals, government workers and the military.

December 2014: The company begins selling the BlackBerry Classic, a phone with a keyboard built to look like the much-loved Bold 9900.

March 2015: BlackBerry launches another smartphone, the BlackBerry Leap, a lower-priced device for consumers who want a touchscreen like the iPhone.

November 2015: BlackBerry launches BlackBerry Priv, the company's first Android smartphone. It's the first device by the company not using BlackBerry's own operating software.

April 2016: Chen admits the company is not selling enough smartphones but says he remains optimistic about its future in the hardware market. "Hopefully, I'm not naive," Chen says. He says BlackBerry hopes to break even with its smartphones by September, but adds if the losses continue, he will consider exiting the hardware business.

July 2016: BlackBerry stops making its BlackBerry Classic smartphone, two years after it launched. The company also launches its thinnest Android smartphone, the DTEK50, touted as a smartphone with beefed up security measures that could fend off cyberattacks and has built in malware protection.

September 2016: BlackBerry says it will stop making smartphones and outsource all hardware development and manufacturing to external partners.

BlackBerry seals software deal with Ford

In a first for BlackBerry Ltd., Ford Motor Co. will cut out the middle man and work directly with the Waterloo, Ont., company on modifying its QNX automotive software platform for the auto maker's vehicles.

John Wall, senior vice-president and head of QNX Software Systems, announced the deal Monday and told reporters on a conference call that until now QNX's contracts in the automotive industry have been with the so-called tier-1 suppliers, not directly with the big automakers.

"Software is becoming such an important piece... that the OEMs [original equipment manufacturers] don't want to rely on the tier-1s to provide these systems, but actually wants to develop systems themselves,” said Mr. Wall, who expects to sign more deals like this with other auto makers in the future.

“I talk about this being an inflection in the industry ... there’s several that feel software’s going to be a differentiator in the coming years, and as such they see it as important as a transmission and an engine. It’s something they very much feel is central to their brand.”

The deal with Ford is an expansion of a yearslong trend. In a 2014 report, Mark Boyadjis [<http://cdn.ihs.com/www/pdf/Automakers-and-tech-companies-meet-at-the-intersection-of-in-vehicle-electronics-Dec-2014.pdf>], a senior analyst at IHS Markit, wrote that auto makers were growing frustrated with the pace of development for in-car information and automation systems.

“Automakers are reinventing the automotive supply chain by breaking the stronghold that traditional tier-1 electronics suppliers have had on the market,” Mr. Boyadjis wrote at the time. “In years past, an automotive original equipment manufacturer (OEM) would source a navigation system from a supplier with little interest for what it did or how it was designed. Now OEMs work directly with ‘nontraditional’ suppliers like NVIDIA, Sharp, Flextronics, and Google to ensure their infotainment systems meet quality, usability, and performance guidelines.”

As part of the deal announced Monday, Ford will get a dedicated team of QNX engineers to help integrate such QNX products as QNX Neutrino Operating System, Certicom encryption technology, QNX hypervisor (a heads-up display system for windshields) and QNX audio processing software. Mr. Wall couldn’t say when new Ford cars featuring the partnership’s software will hit the market, but did confirm that QNX will not “fork” its software just for Ford; it will continue to offer standardized tech to all auto makers (QNX is already installed in approximately 60 million vehicles). The duration or value of the contract was also not disclosed.

“The future of the automobile is all about embedded intelligence,” wrote BlackBerry CEO John Chen in a statement. Mr. Wall also took the opportunity to tout QNX’s preparations to work with automated and self-driving vehicle systems.

Mr. Wall described Monday’s deal as a continuation of BlackBerry’s shift from hardware to software. In its most recent quarter, the company reported a 111-per-cent increase from the previous year in non-GAAP revenue for software and services: $156-million for the second quarter of fiscal 2017.

Over the weekend, BlackBerry posted a blog post [<http://blogs.blackberry.com/2016/10/bloomberg-corrected/>] refuting media reports that suggested its leadership in the embedded market was under assault in part thanks to Apple hiring away key talent for its Ottawa-based smartcar team, which is led by QNX co-founder and former BlackBerry executive Dan Dodge.

In 2014, Ford abandoned Microsoft as the main vendor for its Sync infotainment platform, and currently supports Apple or Android users who want to connect their phones to Ford vehicles. QNX will not compete with Apple or Android directly as those in-car software systems work on top of QNX.

BlackBerry signs agreement with Ford to install QNX in more vehicles

BY VITO PILIECI

FIRST POSTED: MONDAY, OCTOBER 31, 2016 04:43 PM EDT | UPDATED: MONDAY, OCTOBER 31, 2016 08:48 PM EDT

Ford SYNC. (QNX Software Systems/Flickr)

BlackBerry Inc. has signed a new deal with Ford Motor Co. to create software that will help drive future vehicles from the American automotive giant.

In an announcement after the markets closed Monday, BlackBerry revealed the deal from its QNX campus in Ottawa. However, John Wall, senior vice-president and head of QNX, said details, including the financial implications for BlackBerry, are confidential and refused to disclose any specifics.

"Ford is an industry leader and the opportunity to contribute our world-class technology to their products is a privilege," he said. "Ford's expanded application of our software and services illustrates the diverse and broad value we can bring to market."

QNX, the Ottawa software maker that is wholly owned by BlackBerry Ltd., has been working with Ford since 2014 after the automotive giant decided to part ways with Microsoft Corp. Microsoft had been providing Ford with software for its Sync in-car entertainment system.

QNX announced another collaboration with Ford in January, which would see its software in more of the computer networks of Ford cars.

While he wouldn't reveal the specifics of the deal, Wall said the agreement will see QNX sell its software directly to Ford, which Wall said is the first such agreement QNX has struck with an automaker.

QNX software is already installed in more than 60 million vehicles around the world. In a vast majority of those cases, the Ottawa-based subsidiary sells its software to a third-party parts maker, which installs the QNX software onto a part that is then shipped to the manufacturer.

Updated: BlackBerry Inks Agreement with Ford to Accelerate Cars of the Future

10.31.16 / Inside BlackBerry Blog
4 Comments

(Updated with media coverage) When the first Model T rolled off the assembly line in 1908, Henry Ford couldn't have envisioned the software- and electronics-powered vehicles Ford Motor Company makes today. While companies including Tesla and Mercedes already have launched semi-autonomous cars, Ford has a more ambitious goal. This summer, Ford announced that it intends to have fleets of fully autonomous (self-driving) cars on the road within five years.

(This blog is by John Wall, Senior Vice-President and Head of QNX Software Systems)

Already, the software in an average high-end sedan contains over 100 million lines of code, dwarfing the amount of software in the space shuttle, Boeing 787 Dreamliner, and Microsoft Office combined. The escalation of fully self-driving vehicles – projected by McKinsey to hit 15% of all cars sold within 15 years – promises to accelerate that trend, making software and connectivity – not engines or hardware specs – the central factors in auto making.

Ford is taking a leadership role in innovating connected vehicles and mobility. For instance, its latest Ford F-150 truck uses 150 million lines of code. BlackBerry's QNX software already powers Ford's SYNC 3 (below) Infotainment system (and is found in 60 million cars from other carmakers). In an agreement announced today, BlackBerry will dedicate a team of engineers to work with Ford on expanding the use of the QNX Neutrino operating system, Certicom security technology, the QNX hypervisor, and QNX audio-processing software in developing the next generation of connected cars.

"The future of the automobile is all about embedded intelligence. I believe our expertise in secure embedded software makes us the preferred technology provider to put the smart in the car," said John Chen, BlackBerry executive chairman and CEO.

BlackBerry is Powering the Cars of the Future

The combination of BlackBerry's expertise in security and QNX's mission-critical embedded software for automotive allows us to offer Ford the most secure, trusted, and reliable platform that can power – and secure – almost every aspect of the connected car.

BlackBerry's QNX may be best known as a platform for infotainment and 3D navigation. Our dominance (see below) is such that Time Magazine called QNX in March the "tech company that is to connected cars what Microsoft is to PCs." But underlying what you see on your car's dashboard are the fundamental building blocks for the modules in cars that can control an automobile. In fact, our ADAS platform is the only one available today that is ASIL-D certified, meaning it is the only one ready today for carmakers to create autonomous car driving systems on top of it.

In today's press release, Raj Nair, executive VP of product development and chief technical officer at Ford Motor Company said, "With the success of our SYNC 3 system globally, which is based on the BlackBerry QNX operating system, we understand the importance of the connected car experience to our customers. Growing our expertise, experience, and use of the BlackBerry QNX embedded software platforms will help ensure we deliver the high-quality, highly secure experience that our customers expect."

BlackBerry is Putting the Smart in the Car

Our new agreement with Ford signifies the acceleration in our company's pivot from hardware to software and extends our leading position in the automotive sector, where security and mobility are critical for the connected car.

We'll be providing Ford with an unmatched, holistic solution, protected by BlackBerry's legendary security pedigree, technology, and services and the highly reliable, safety-certified, and secure QNX software platform, to secure and power the connected car.

"Ford is an industry leader and the opportunity to contribute our world-class technology to their products is a privilege. Ford's expanded application of our software and services illustrates the diverse and broad value we can bring to market," said Chen.

The future of automotive is all about embedded intelligence, about delivering the reliable and highly secure experience that customers expect. As companies like Ford realize the promise of the connected car, BlackBerry will be standing alongside them, putting the smart in the car.

Media Praises Agreement

Major media outlets reported quickly and favorably on the Ford-BlackBerry agreement. Here are some of the news reports released within hours of the Oct. 31 announcement.

"[BlackBerry's software] will also provide more security at a time when worries abound about the possibility that in-car communications systems are susceptible to hacking. Automakers are working to shut out hackers, who they fear could take over systems tied to the car's computers like steering or braking, and possibly deliberately cause a crash." – USA Today, Ford Signs Connectivity Deal with BlackBerry

"In addition to helping Ford utilize existing software, the new deal means BlackBerry can put itself at the center of Ford's future plans for self-driving cars, helping the Canadian company in its stated aim of pivoting from a hardware company to a software one. ... BlackBerry's days of dominating the cellphone market are long gone but the company's QNX subsidiary is its most promising hope for future success." – The Verge, BlackBerry Signs Deal with Ford to Work on Cars of the Future

"Being recognized as a Tier One supplier, rather than having to go through other suppliers to sell to companies like Ford, is important for BlackBerry's future in the automotive industry. The Canadian company is developing software for several challenges facing car companies, including helping to coordinate functions for autonomous vehicles." – The Wall Street Journal, BlackBerry Earns Tier One Supplier Status With Ford

"Ford went to QNX to power its SYNC 3 in-car infotainment system, kicking Microsoft to the curb after it provided the basis for the original Sync and its successor, both of which were widely criticized for their flaws. ... While the press release makes no mention of autonomous driving specifically, QNX's software is cleared for use in self-driving systems, and Ford is pursuing autonomous tech aggressively, so it's likely BlackBerry's software will figure into those plans." – TechCrunch, BlackBerry Teaming Up With Ford for Broader Use of QNX in Connected Cars

"BlackBerry has held up QNX as a key driver of future growth as the company pivots away from phone hardware, and said the fact that it's used in more than 60 million cars worldwide gives it the expertise to continue playing a major role in automotive software." – Bloomberg, BlackBerry, Ford Extend Partnership to Develop Car Software

"We're starting to work with Ford now," [John Wall, BlackBerry senior vice president and head of the software subsidiary QNX] said. "The possibilities of where we can be used in the vehicle is basically in the entire vehicle." – The Detroit News, BlackBerry, Ford to Expand Use of Software Behind SYNC

"The deal will create a direct link between the two companies and shorten the turnaround time for new software developments." – ZDNet, BlackBerry Inks Deal with Ford to Expand Usage of QNX Platform

"As Ford is increasingly focusing on developing automated vehicles, it agreed to work directly with BlackBerry to deploy the secure QNX OS into cars. The deal marks a major milestone for BlackBerry, which so far has been selling its technology to auto industry suppliers, but not directly to automakers. ... Eliminating the middleman and becoming a Tier One supplier for Ford paves the way for BlackBerry to become a more important player on the auto scene." – Tech Times, BlackBerry Taps Ford as First Major Carmaker to Use QNX Without A Middleman: Apple, Your Move

"This announcement also pushes BlackBerry one step closer to securing the connected market, as the company recently announced the deployment of its IoT trucking software with the Caravan Transport Group in September." – Mobile Syrup, BlackBerry's QNX to Partner with Ford to Work Towards a Connected Car

Subject: Mobility Solutions BU Changes – Additional Context

This email is being sent to all Mobility Solutions employees. It is strictly confidential, internal only.

Dear Colleagues,

Last month you were notified of changes to the Mobility Solutions BU. I understand that change can be difficult and I would like to provide some additional context.

As you know, BlackBerry has been on a pivot to become a software company for the past three years. As part of the transformation and with everyone's support every effort was made to make the smartphone business unit profitable again, including launching different form factors (Z3, Passport, Classic, PRIV, DTEK50, DTEK60), implementing various go-to-market strategies and engaging an external marketing consultant. I held onto the smartphone hardware business as long as possible as I wanted to maintain the company's heritage however, in order to fulfil our duties to our shareholders, I had to make the difficult and emotional decision to outsource hardware design and development. The strategy enables us to continue to have BlackBerry smartphones in market however, it unfortunately requires a reduced headcount in the Mobility Solutions BU.

The management team have worked very hard in negotiating agreements with Ford and TCL. I have very mixed emotions about the employment deals with Ford and TCL. On the one hand I am pleased that we were able to secure an alternative employment option for most of the impacted team, on the other hand I am sorry to have to lose great talent and loyal colleagues from BlackBerry.

I have stayed close to your feedback since the announcements of our partnerships with these two solid companies. I know that some in-scope employees have asked about staying with BlackBerry and moving to another group, such as BTS to support the Autonomous Vehicle Innovation Center (AVIC). Whilst the AVIC has been announced, the project is still developing and its timeline is undetermined. The Ford and TCL deals are in-hand and my priority has been to ensure that as many impacted employees as possible have a good home at a company that will make the best use of your talents. It is also important to remember that both Ford and TCL will work closely with BlackBerry in the future therefore, transferred employees will continue to contribute to BlackBerry's future.

For those in-scope employees who are not extended employment offers or decline a role at Ford or TCL, your manager and HRBP will evaluate internal opportunities to redeploy you within BlackBerry as much as possible. For additional information and if you have further questions, please contact your manager and/or HRBP.

I am very grateful for all of the hard work, commitment and contributions that you have given to BlackBerry. I wish everyone the best for the future, whether that is at BlackBerry, Ford, TCL or elsewhere.

Sincerely,

John Chen

Subject: Ford offers - in progress, please ensure you are able to receive it in person

Sent as BCC to the entire Silver team.

As always please keep the Silver communications confidential. Even more so, considering the nature of the activities during this week, they are absolutely confidential, even among Silver team members.

Folks,

Ford's offers to the Silver employees started last week. This week they continue during this week and by Friday Jan 20th, from what I have been informed, everyone that is part of Silver will get an offer. This is excellent news.

At each site there are people coordinating the offers schedule. Look for a calendar invite and/or email that will ask you to join the meeting.

- Waterloo: Mon-Tue.
- Cary: Tue.
- Sunrise: Tue-Wed.
- Ottawa: Wed-Fri.

- San Diego: last Friday.
- Mississauga: last Thursday.

Please make sure you are available in person to receive the offer from the Ford HRBP. Any immediate questions, can be asked and hopefully answered in the meeting.

I would ask leaders who have people on leave to work with BlackBerry HR to reach out to the employees, and see if they can come on site for the offer. Of course, we need to show flexibility in accommodating these.

There will be, at each site a "Benefits 101" session to walk people through the benefits and hopefully that will answer many generic questions.

Any other questions, since most will likely be specific to you have please ask them appropriately:

- Offer package details: Ford HR
- Technical (role, responsibility), concerns, more information on projects: myself or any of the senior leaders on Silver (Khaled, Leonard, Vilok, Cristian, Daryl, etc).
- BlackBerry related questions (VIP, pay, vacation, etc.): BlackBerry HR. There will be HRBP reps from BlackBerry at each site to support you during this week.

And as always, if you want to raise with me anything confidential matter please do not hesitate to do so. My door is open and it will be my priority for the next while to work on these.

Best regards,
Zoltan

David

As you know the activities today within Mobility Solutions will be not all be present when we transition to a Software Licensing unit. So this means that the work you are doing today might not remain in the new model and we will need to find the next best possible match.

I also recommend you give a chance to the Ford opportunity before making a decision since there is some really great innovation going on.

BTW, just wanted to mention that I spoke with HR on this and indicated that I would like to stay with BlackBerry. HR's response was that there would be no guarantee that a position would be found with BlackBerry for those who decide to decline ford's offer.

Would it be acceptable for me to share what you have told me on this?

David, I am following up with you, with a copy to your counsel, in light of our recent correspondence relating to Ford, and your two e-mails with continuing questions about the transaction.

As we have previously indicated, BlackBerry has not terminated your employment, nor transferred it to Ford. The choice as to whether or not to accept the job offer from Ford is your choice (you are not required to accept it). If you would prefer to instead continue your employment with BlackBerry, you should do so. I am sure you know that BlackBerry has roles at the same level that match your skill set. If you are interested in staying, HR would work with you to find a suitable/comparable role. We wanted to reach out to you again at this stage, while you are still a BlackBerry employee, to make this clear to you in case there was still any doubt about this in your mind. Please let us know.

Subject: Ford job offers

Greetings,

We have received a number of questions relating to the acceptance or rejection of Ford offers. Below is a Q and A addressing several of the questions received.

Q. Am I being transferred to Ford?

A. No. Your employment is not being transferred to Ford. Ford negotiated for the right to offer employment to Mobility Solutions employees. It has made confidential job offers, the terms of which were determined by Ford. It is your choice whether to accept the offer from Ford or not.

Q. Am I required to accept a job offer from Ford?

A. No. Your decision to accept a job offer from Ford is yours, and yours alone. You may accept or reject any offer.

Q. If I don't receive a job offer, or decline a job offer, is my employment with BlackBerry terminated?

A. No. If you don't receive, or if you decline an offer from Ford, your employment will continue with BlackBerry. It will continue in the same position as before and we will consider you for comparable roles on another team at BlackBerry if your position subsequently becomes redundant.

Q. Are comparable roles available?

A. We have already placed several employees in comparable roles (in the same job position) who have chosen to remain at BlackBerry. We will work with you to find a suitable and comparable role if you choose to stay and continue your employment at BlackBerry. In the event we cannot find a comparable role on another team and determine that we must subsequently terminate your employment, you would then be eligible for separation pay per the terms of your employment agreement.

Q. If I accept a job offer from Ford, am I required to submit a letter of resignation?

A. We have requested a letter to confirm your acceptance of Ford's job offer and thus resignation from BlackBerry, to complete your file. If you choose not to submit a letter, we will nonetheless recognize your acceptance of employment by Ford and accept it as a resignation from BlackBerry.

Q. I was told that Ford job offers in Canada are conditional, and contingent upon post-employment verification of education. What is the status of my employment with BlackBerry if I do not pass the Ford background check?

A. Ford has informed us that it will waive educational background checks in Canada. Resignations from BlackBerry are effective and final once you begin employment with Ford.

We will follow up later this week with a letter to all employees who have accepted Ford offers that addresses pay, benefits and continuing obligations to BlackBerry. For those of you who are leaving BlackBerry, we wish you great success in your new position.

Subject: ACTION REQUIRED: Transition to Ford

Good Morning

HR has been informed that you have accepted a position with Ford. As part of your transition from being a BlackBerry employee, there are several items that need to be taken care of prior to your last day. Please read carefully and reach out to me if you have any questions.

This email will cover the process for:

1. Written confirmation of resignation
2. Post-employment obligations
3. Your Equipment: IT and device collection process
4. Primary BlackBerry device and phone number
5. Expenses

Written confirmation of resignation

As you have accepted new employment, you are required to submit formal notice of your resignation. Attached is a template resignation letter that you are required to complete, sign and submit. Please complete the letter and return (in person or by email) by February 10th.

Before your last day you will receive a Resignation Acceptance Letter from HR. This document confirms your last day with BlackBerry as well as some final details concerning your benefits, vacation pay and other pertinent information.

Post-employment obligations

Please review the attached document titled Post-employment obligations. To confirm your understanding, please print the document, sign, and return with your resignation letter.

Your Equipment: IT and device collection process

You will be receiving further communications regarding the collection of IT equipment in the weeks leading up to your last day. You also may receive a communication from Software Operations and/or Beta regarding the collection of devices issued by these teams and steps for returning these items.

Primary BlackBerry device and phone number

BlackBerry is providing you with the opportunity to keep your current active primary phone number as well as your secure, released, production BlackBerry device where possible. In order for you to be able to keep your phone number and device, you are required to provide the following information by responding to this email by February 10th.

1. Confirm if you would like to keep your current active primary phone number*.
2. If yes, please confirm the phone number.
3. Please send me the model and IMEI of the device you would like to leave with.

NOTE: The device must be a secure, released, non-beta device. We will confirm if it is secure. If your current device is a pre-release device (i.e. Mercury), a beta device, or a competitor device issued by BlackBerry, you cannot take it with you and it must be returned prior to your last day. Please let me know if your device is in any of the above categories.

If we have determined your device is secure, on your last day, we will security wipe your device and then you can take it with you. Please ensure that you know your BlackBerry ID for the security wipe process. DO NOT wipe your device yourself, we will just have to wipe it again.

If your device is not secure, you are not permitted to keep it and it must be handed in on your last day.

*Important Note About Assuming Financial Responsibility of Corporate Phone Numbers - If you would like to keep your current corporate mobile phone number, you will be able to assume ownership of your number with the same carrier it is currently active with. IT Carrier Solutions will be providing you with the required steps to be able to complete this process following your confirmation that you wish to keep your mobile number. If you do not complete the process by the date specified, then the number will be forfeited with no exceptions. It is up to you to ensure the process is completed in a timely manner. You will be required to contact the current carrier to confirm you are accepting financial responsibility for the phone number going forward.

BlackBerry is providing you the option of keeping your current mobile number to aid you in your transition. By releasing the number to you, BlackBerry will no longer be responsible for this number or the account associated with this number. It is your choice if you'd like to keep your number. If you choose to keep your mobile number, you will assume financial responsibility. Further, some employees may be given the option to port their number into Ford's mobile plan. If you want to explore that option, please reach out to your Ford leader or Ford HR. BlackBerry will not be porting mobile numbers directly to Ford.

Expenses

Employees are expected to complete an expense reports for any charges on their corporate AMEX prior to their last day to ensure prompt payment.

Further communications on the logistics of your last day will follow approximately one week prior to your last day. If you have any questions about anything in this email, please let me know.

A. No. Your decision to accept a job offer from Ford is yours, and yours alone. You may accept or reject any offer.

Q. If I don't receive a job offer, or decline a job offer, is my employment with BlackBerry terminated?

A. No. If you don't receive, or if you decline an offer from Ford, your employment will continue with BlackBerry. It will continue in the same position as before and we will consider you for comparable roles on another team at BlackBerry if your position subsequently becomes redundant.

Q. Are comparable roles available?

A. We have already placed several employees in comparable roles (in the same job position) who have chosen to remain at BlackBerry. We will work with you to find a suitable and comparable role if you choose to stay and continue your employment at BlackBerry. In the event we cannot find a comparable role on another team and determine that we must subsequently terminate your employment, you would then be eligible for separation pay per the terms of your employment agreement.

Q. If I accept a job offer from Ford, am I required to submit a letter of resignation?

A. We have requested a letter to confirm your acceptance of Ford's job offer and thus resignation from BlackBerry, to complete your file. If you choose not to submit a letter, we will nonetheless recognize your acceptance of employment by Ford and accept it as a resignation from BlackBerry.

Q. I was told that Ford job offers in Canada are conditional, and contingent upon post-employment verification of education. What is the status of my employment with BlackBerry if I do not pass the Ford background check?

A. Ford has informed us that it will waive educational background checks in Canada. Resignations from BlackBerry are effective and final once you begin employment with Ford.

We will follow up later this week with a letter to all employees who have accepted Ford offers that addresses pay, benefits and continuing obligations to BlackBerry. For those of you who are leaving BlackBerry, we wish you great success in your new position.

Dear David,

On behalf of Ford Motor Company of Canada, I am pleased to offer you the position of Supervisor Platform Test, Leadership Level 6 (LL6) position. We believe you have the personal and professional qualifications to make a significant contribution to Ford of Canada.

Base Salary: Upon hire your base salary will be $142,400.00 per year (CAD).

Signing Bonus¹: $33,000.00(CAD)

This amount will be paid within three weeks after your effective date of hire. The amount of $33,000.00 (CAD) is a hiring bonus. Please review and sign the attached Signing Bonus Agreement as part of your offer acceptance.

Annual Incentive Compensation Plan (bonus)²: You will be eligible to participate in the Company's Annual Incentive Compensation Plan (AICP) with a pro-rated bonus for service in 2017 provided you have commenced your employment with Ford of Canada before December 31, 2017. In April of each performance year, employees are notified of their AICP target; the present target for Canadian LL6 employees is $15,000.00 (CAD). Assuming the Company makes a bonus payment to employees for the calendar year 2017 the awards will be paid in March 2018. Payments are subject to the 2008 Annual Incentive Compensation Plan.

Vacation: You will be eligible for 4 weeks of paid vacation in 2017; your entitlements will increase in accordance with the Ford of Canada vacation policy. In addition, you are entitled to paid company holidays starting from your first day on the job.

Vehicle Program: You will be eligible for one lease vehicle under the Management Lease Vehicle Program and one incremental lease vehicle when the Incremental Program is offered.

Ford Benefits: You will be eligible for Ford benefits, as detailed in the included materials. Please refer to these materials for detailed information on coverage.

Your eligibility under our existing policies regarding paid vacation, holidays, medical benefits, pension, annual incentive compensation plan, savings and stock investment plan, vehicle purchase plan, etc., is based on the effective date of your employment with Ford of Canada as noted below (and your service with Ford

¹If you leave Ford of Canada within one year of your date of hire or if you are discharged 'for cause' within that period, the entire signing bonus must be repaid in full to Ford of Canada within two weeks of your departure.

²Please note that this payment will not be made if you terminate your employment with Ford of Canada, or if you are discharged "for cause" prior to the payment being made.

of Canada) and is outlined in the attached benefit information summary and included materials. Items described in this letter and in the materials are subject to the terms and condition of the individual plans, policies and programs. These plans, programs and policies will be reviewed with you in greater detail when you commence employment with us and are subject to change from time to time.

Our offer is conditional on the acceptability of any references we obtain and background checks conducted and your acceptance of our Conditions of Employment for Salaried Non-Bargaining Unit Employees. Please ensure that you read carefully these attached Conditions of Employment. We draw your attention to the ability of Ford of Canada to terminate your employment at any time by providing you with the entitlements specifically required under employment standards legislation, the minimum amount of notice of termination (or payment in lieu thereof) with benefit continuation through the statutory notice period and any applicable severance pay required by such legislation.

This offer remains in effect until January 27, 2017. Human Resources will be onsite to collect your acceptance of this offer, signed Conditions of Employment and Signing Bonus Agreements on this date. We will also require a photocopy of your photo identification, social insurance card, a void cheque, and attached tax forms. This information is used for payroll purposes. Your effective date of hire will be March 1, 2017. If you have any questions prior to January 27, 2017, please contact Alyssa Andree at aandree@ford.com.

Upon acceptance we will assign to you a Global Personal Identifier (GPID) which will uniquely identify you and distinguish you from other individuals within Ford in a globally consistent manner. This GPID is used openly to identify individuals at Ford and to help control access to Ford systems, facilities and services. To generate a GPID, we will require you to provide your day, month and day of the week of birth. Your name and partial birthdate information will be retained in the GPID system which is located in the United States. Attached please find the Global Personal Identifier Data Collection and Use Statement for your review. Your signature and return of this letter and provision to us of the information required to generate a GPID is your consent to this GPID Statement.

Our policies for accommodating employees with disabilities include: Diversity and Inclusion Policy, Policy Letter No. 6 – Employment Equity, Directive B-110- Anti- Harassment, Policy and Procedure Pertaining to Harassment and Discrimination Internal Complaint Resolution Process, Directive B-111 Workplace Violence and Harassment, and Ontario Processes for Accessibility for CHQ Salaried Employees with Disabilities, including Documented Individual Accommodation Plans and Return to Work.

David, we are pleased to offer you this opportunity to join the Ford team and look forward to your favourable response.

Yours very truly,

FORD MOTOR COMPANY OF CANADA, LIMITED CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT FOR SALARIED NON-BARGAINING UNIT EMPLOYEES IN ONTARIO WHO WERE PREVIOUSLY EMPLOYED BY BLACKBERRY

In consideration of my employment by Ford Motor Company of Canada, Limited, or any subsidiary, affiliate or parent company thereof, hereinafter called the "Company", and of the continuation of my employment, I hereby agree as follows:

1. My employment shall be subject to my ability to legally work in Canada and subject to verification of the information provided in my application form and the receipt of references satisfactory to the Company.
2. The Company may terminate my employment at any time for any reason, including but not limited to during any probationary period, by giving me the minimum amount of notice of termination and/or payment in lieu of notice (with benefit continuation throughout the statutory notice period) and any applicable severance pay required by the Ontario Employment Standards Act, 2000 or regulations thereto as amended, replaced or superseded or the successor statute, if any (Employment Standards Legislation) in effect at the time of termination. For greater certainty, this represents my maximum entitlement upon termination and includes all payments to which I may be entitled, statutory, at common law or otherwise, except where I have entitlements specifically required under Employment Standards Legislation.
3. My salary will be calculated up to and including the 15th and last day of each month or such other days or day of the month as the Company may designate from time to time, and the amount found to be due me will be deposited to the credit of my bank account as designated by me, and will be available to me on the said day(s) or, if any such day falls on a holiday, on the next preceding banking day(s); provided however, that if the Company makes any payment for overtime work, any amount due to me for overtime shall not be deposited to my bank account nor be available to me until at least the regular payday next following that for the period in which the overtime was worked.
4. I will at any and all times during the period of my employment and afterward co-operate with the Company in the prosecution or defense of any litigation, issue, or controversy that may arise relating to the business of the Company.
5. My employment by the Company and the compensation received as such employee shall constitute the sole consideration for the performance of the agreements herein contained. Any subsequent change or changes in the duties, compensation or any term of my employment shall not in any way affect the validity of this Agreement.
6. I agree to abide by the rules, regulations, personnel practices, procedures, directives and policies of the Company (the "Policies") as issued and in effect from time to time and the provincial and federal laws of Canada.
7. I acknowledge that the Company reserves the right to change, amend or terminate, in whole or in part, without advance notice, the Policies and any Company programs, including but not limited to any employee benefits, benefit programs and/or retirement plans, including for employees, retirees and/or eligible dependents/beneficiaries at any time, subject to applicable laws. I further acknowledge that, as an employee hired on or after January 1, 2005, I will not be eligible for any post-employment non-pension benefits except as specifically provided for in Section 3 above, including in retirement.

Ford Motor Company of Canada, Limited

8. These conditions of employment are subject to such modification as may be necessary to comply with government employment legislation applicable to the Company and that may be in effect from time to time. I acknowledge that the terms contained herein and in the attached Confidential Information and Inventions Assignment Agreement Addendum are the entire terms of my employment and any purported arrangements, agreements or understandings shall not be valid unless signed by me and the Human Resources Representative of the Company.
9. I agree to pay the Company upon demand the value of any overpayments, travel advances, non-payment of expenses incurred on Company credit cards, or the cost of any equipment received by me in its employ which is lost or damaged or which I fail to return in good condition (except for ordinary wear and tear in the course of business). I waive any responsibility on the part of the Company for loss or damage to personal equipment.

Global Personal Identifier Data Collection and Use Statement

Ford respects your privacy and is committed to protecting it. We provide this statement to inform you of the Global Personal Identifier (GPID) so that you are aware of its purpose and how your personal information will be used. The purpose of the GPID is to uniquely identify you and to distinguish you from other individuals within Ford in a globally consistent and sustainable manner without relying on government-issued identifiers and other similar personal data. To do this we require you to supply your name, day of birth, month of birth, and day of the week of birth (a multiyear lookup calendar is provided). Authorized Ford system administrators will be able to use the GPID database to identify individuals to help manage and control access to Ford systems, facilities, and services. The data you submit is visible only to those authorized administrative staffs for the management of identity. Your day of birth, month of birth, and day of the week of birth will not be passed to any other internal or external system.

GPIDs are used openly to identify people in Ford globally, and they are for identification purposes only. Knowledge of a GPID does not provide any authorization, authority, or access. For authorization, authority, or access to Ford systems, facilities, and services other items or information is required, such as a password or entry card. A GPID identifier and associated name may be transmitted by Ford to a service provider when necessary for proper identification and only if the service provider could not meet its obligations to Ford or you without the information (e.g. travel administration, vouchers, and other similar processes that today identify you as a person).

The GPID application will assign you a unique life-long identifier that will be retained for the duration of all your engagements with Ford and will be retained beyond the end of your last engagement as needed for Ford to identify you. An engagement includes employment, providing contract services or receiving something from the company, and includes the period during which the company has unfulfilled obligations to you (e.g. pension obligations to you or your spouse where applicable). This process is to enable even employees, contractors, and others who return to Ford after a period away to receive the same GPID. After the retention period, your GPID and your personal data which has been used to generate the GPID will be securely destroyed.

Since Ford operates globally, the information you submit may be transferred outside the country of origin to other Ford locations or Ford operations and initially will be retained by Ford in the United States in a GPID database. This and all other transmissions will remain secure and under our sole control.

Should you have any questions regarding the accuracy of your data, other questions about GPID, or require further information, please send your request by e-mail to gpidthelp@ford.com

I have read and understand this statement.

Dear Mr. Chen:

Re: Class Action against BlackBerry Limited
Ontario Superior Court of Justice File No. 17-71659
Our File No.: 38829-1

We have been retained by a group of BlackBerry Limited employees to commence a Class Action against BlackBerry with respect to the termination of their employment from BlackBerry. Please see attached Notice of Action we issued today.

We will issue a comprehensive Statement of Claim shortly. Please advise who will represent you in this matter.

This Action is fundamentally a claim exercising the employees' Employment Standards Act, 2000 ("ESA") rights, among others. As such, BlackBerry must not take any step to impact the employees' pending employment with Ford. If it did so, both companies will be liable pursuant to section 74 of the ESA, and we will seek further appropriate punitive and bad faith damages.

Please direct any communication in this matter to our offices.

Yours Truly,

B E T W E E N:

DAVID PARKER

and

AFFIDAVIT OF DAVID PARKER

I, David Parker, of the City of Ottawa, in the Province of Ontario, MAKE OATH AND SAY:

1. On June 9, 2017, I swore an Affidavit as the proposed Representative Plaintiff in this action. As such, I have knowledge of the matters stated in this Affidavit.
2. On October 19, 2017, I was provided with a copy of the Responding Motion Record of the Defendant, BlackBerry Limited ("Responding Motion Record").
3. I swear this Affidavit in response to certain information contained in the Responding Motion Record and further to the Evidence I provided in my Affidavit sworn June 9, 2017.

Other Job Opportunities

4. At paragraphs 95 and 96 of Rebecca Graham's Affidavit, sworn October 2, 2017 ("Graham Affidavit"), she states that it appeared that, for a period of time prior to the events at issue, I was considering leaving BlackBerry Limited's ("BlackBerry") employ.
5. Prior to starting employment with BlackBerry, I signed up for automated email messages of employment opportunities for which I was qualified. Once I was hired by BlackBerry, I chose to continue receiving these messages, in case something happened to my employment. I was not actively seeking another employment opportunity.
6. Throughout my employment with BlackBerry, BlackBerry has laid off a significant number of employees; I personally laid off approximately twelve (12) employees since 2013. My fear for my own job security at BlackBerry led me to continue receiving these automated messages.
7. Edwin Llanos, with whom I exchanged the emails found in Exhibit "QQ" of the Graham Affidavit, was my Manager and is a mentor and a friend to me. I have kept in touch with him since he left BlackBerry. I worked for him for approximately twelve (12) years.
8. Other emails found in Exhibit "QQ" of the Graham Affidavit include exchanges with Darrell Wellington. He is a former BlackBerry colleague, and has hired other BlackBerry employees who also used to report to me.
9. At paragraph 97 of her Affidavit, Ms. Graham asserts that the above-mentioned email exchanges affected my decision-making and my belief or understanding on various points addressed in my Affidavit sworn June 9, 2017. This is not true. Rather, it was BlackBerry's communications to me and others about the Ford Motor Company of Canada's ("Ford") offer and our continued employment at BlackBerry that had a direct impact on my decision-making at the time leading up to the receipt of offers from Ford, and prior to my deciding whether or not to accept the offer made to me.

10. For example, John Chen had been talking about closing BlackBerry's Handheld Business Unit since early 2015, should they not be able to make a profit. It was not a secret that BlackBerry's workload and the need for its employees were on the decline.

Disagreement with Action

11. At paragraphs 4(e) and 90-92 of the Graham Affidavit, paragraph 31 of Amber Jessup's Affidavit, sworn October 3, 2017 ("Jessup Affidavit"), and paragraph 17 of Lisa Carswell's Affidavit, sworn October 2, 2017 ("Carswell Affidavit"), all three of these BlackBerry Human Resources ("HR") employees state that employees voiced their disagreement with this action or wanted to distance themselves from this action.
12. No current or former BlackBerry employee has approached me to tell me they disagree with this action. Prior to reading the Responding Motion Record, I was not aware that any employee(s) wanted to distance themselves from this action.
13. I have, however, been approached by some individuals who were seeking more information about this action.

Continuing Need for Employees at BlackBerry

14. At paragraphs 4(d) and 88 of the Graham Affidavit, Ms. Graham states that BlackBerry has a continuing need for additional employees within its Mobility Solutions unit.
15. However, on February 23, 2017, which is the day on which BlackBerry sent the "Frequently Asked Questions" ("FAQ") email to me and the other transferred Silver Team Employees (Exhibit "L" to my Affidavit sworn June 9, 2017), I looked at BlackBerry's internal job site for available postings. A copy of this job search is attached hereto as Exhibit "A". According to my understanding of this document, over 40% of the available jobs were for students on a four-month contract, at various BlackBerry locations (not all in Ottawa). The remaining jobs were in areas that many of the proposed Class Members, including myself, did not work while at BlackBerry.

16. Even though Ms. Graham confirms at paragraph 83 of the Graham Affidavit that all seven (7) individuals who declined Ford's offer of employment are still employed with BlackBerry, my understanding was that there were certainly not enough available jobs for the approximately 299 individuals that accepted employment with Ford, should they all have declined such an offer, and this was certainly not the message provided to BlackBerry employees who asked about options should they decline their Ford offer.
17. Ms. Graham asserts at paragraphs 19, 55 and 99, and found in Exhibits B, L, RR, SS, and TT, of her Affidavit, that if an employee asked BlackBerry HR what would occur if they declined the Ford offer, they were continually told by BlackBerry HR employees and various senior Managers and Directors that they would remain a BlackBerry employee, and that BlackBerry would take steps to try and find them an internal position.
18. However, in my experience, BlackBerry would not guarantee a position or provide any indication of how many roles, or what roles, needed to be filled. It is my understanding, based on my own discussion with other Silver Team employees and my review of the Responding Motion Record, that this was the same message BlackBerry provided to all Silver Team employees who enquired about options should they decline the Ford offer: see paragraphs 10 and 19 of the Jessup Affidavit, paragraphs 5 and 10 of the Carswell Affidavit, paragraphs 11 and 13 of Jennifer Mascarin's Affidavit, sworn October 2, 2017 ("Mascarin Affidavit"), and paragraph 11 of Zoltan Racz's Affidavit, sworn September 28, 2017 ("Racz Affidavit"). Michael Mullin and Nick Landry, in their Affidavits sworn September 29, 2017, both

- confirmed that their Manager and Director, respectively, told them that there was no guarantee of a position should they decline the Ford offer (see paragraphs 6 and 8 of their respective Affidavits).
19. At paragraph 55 of her Affidavit, Ms. Graham asserts that I was informed that there were “many roles” on other projects or teams to be filled going forward. This is not true. I enquired about roles with the QNX team and Amber Jessup told me there were no new roles: see Exhibit H of my Affidavit sworn June 9, 2017. Only after we started this action, BlackBerry communicated that HR would “work to find me a suitable/comparable role” without providing me any certainty of what was available: see Exhibit I of my Affidavit sworn June 9, 2017,
20. BlackBerry pressured employees to accept the Ford offers. They did this by providing no guarantee of a position within BlackBerry, or of the number of available jobs that would remain, coupled with the encouragement to strongly consider the Ford offer: see Exhibits B, N, and RR of the Graham Affidavit and paragraph 12 of the Racz Affidavit, in addition to paragraph 9 of Nick Landry’s Affidavit, in which he confirms that his Manager encouraged him to consider the offer. I was told the same message.

Discussions with Amber Jessup

21. At paragraph 27 of the Jessup Affidavit, Ms. Jessup claims to have told me that certain roles had already been approved and posted on BlackBerry’s internal site. Ms. Jessup never told me this. Ms. Jessup also never told me that “a further set of jobs” existed. I do, however, recall Ms. Jessup specifically telling me that BlackBerry could not guarantee me a position should I decline the Ford offer, and that there were no positions available within BlackBerry’s autonomous driving research center.

22. At paragraph 29 of the Jessup Affidavit, Ms. Jessup asserts that I interrupted her, demanded that she send me various information, and tried to insert myself into some discussions she was having. In fact, during the period in question I understood that Ms. Jessup always had an “open door” policy. There were always people coming in and out of her office, wanting to speak with her about various topics, particularly about Ford, and listening in when she was discussing relevant topics with others.
23. I wholly deny that I in any way interrupted her or acted in a manner that was not professional. One day while walking by her office, I overheard a discussion taking place about the Ford transition; I decided to stay and listen, and eventually also joined in the conversation. This only occurred once, not “several” times as specified by Ms. Jessup. Ms. Jessup never suggested that I was interrupting her, or that the way I was communicating with her was inappropriate in any way, nor did any other employee, at least not to my knowledge.
24. With respect to the conversation I reference in my February 9, 2017 email located at Exhibit “G” to the Jessup Affidavit, Hongchang Tian had invited me into the room where he and Ms. Jessup were discussing whether the “transaction” between BlackBerry and Ford was considered by Blackberry to be a sale of business.

Discussion with Ralph Pini

25. In Exhibit “RR” to the Graham Affidavit, Ralph Pini sets out a summary of what he recalls of our conversation following one of the town hall meetings in early December 2016. He specifically wrote that “Ford as a large company understands the need to provide competitive offers to attract talent”; Mr. Pini did not make such a comment to me.

Frequently Asked Questions

26. According to Exhibit “A” of the Mascarin Affidavit, Nathan Webster mentions how there was talk of building an FAQ as far back as December 2016, yet no FAQ was sent until February 23, 2017, almost one month after the deadline by which employees had to accept or decline the Ford offer, and more than one week after the Notice of Action for this action was issued. I was never made aware that BlackBerry was considering such an approach, nor had I heard about this prior to reviewing the Responding Motion Record.

Changing Class Definition

27. In response to some of the concerns raised in the Responding Motion Record pertaining to the proposed Plaintiff class, I seek to modify the scope of the proposed class to the following:

All persons in Canada who were employees and/or dependent contractors of BlackBerry Limited (“BlackBerry”), who worked for BlackBerry in Canada, and who were offered and accepted employment with Ford Motor Company of Canada (“Ford”) between January 1, 2017 and April 30, 2017, while excluding those BlackBerry employees who specifically sought out the possibility of working with Ford.

AFFIDAVIT OF DAVID PARKER

I, David Parker, of the Town of Perth, in the County of Lanark, AFFIRM:

1. I am the Plaintiff in this proceeding, and, as such, have knowledge of the matters contained in this Affidavit.
2. My understanding is that TCL offered employment to employees in the Mobility Solutions Business Unit (“Mobility Solutions”) at BlackBerry Limited (“BlackBerry”) in or around the time that the Class Members received their offers of employment from Ford Motor Company of Canada (“Ford”). This further supports the fact that the Plaintiff intends to advance at trial that BlackBerry had a need to reduce headcount and did not have the roles available to Class Members it was suggesting it did at the time. See attached as Exhibit “A” an email from John Chen dated January 6, 2017 and sent to all Mobility Solutions employees regarding BlackBerry’s need to reduce headcount and regarding the Ford and TCL agreements.
3. Also, my understanding is that Ford entered into deals with the Government of Canada and the Government of Ontario in or around the time of the BlackBerry-Ford agreements. My understanding is that these deals secured funding for Ford to hire new employees, including in Ottawa. My understanding is that these deals required that Ford hire new employees rather than accept transferred employees which furthers my belief that BlackBerry and Ford structured their agreements - such that Ford would hire the Class Members - in a way that would not recognize the Class Members' years of service, so as to not compromise Ford's deals with the Government of Canada and the Government of Ontario. See attached as Exhibit "B" a CBC News Article dated March 30, 2017 about the Federal and Provincial governments' deals with Ford.

4. I have reviewed the Refusals Chart attached as Exhibit "E" to the Affidavit of Julia Brush sworn April 12, 2023.

5. I make this Affidavit in support of a Motion for an Order requiring answers to refusals and for no other or improper purpose.

AFFIRMED by David Parker of the Town of Perth, in the County of Lanark, before me at the City of Ottawa, in the Province of Ontario, on April 12, 2023 in accordance with O. Reg. 431/20, Administering Oath or Declaration Remotely.

Subject: Mobility Solutions BU Changes – Additional Context

This email is being sent to all Mobility Solutions employees. It is strictly confidential, internal only.

Dear Colleagues,

Last month you were notified of changes to the Mobility Solutions BU. I understand that change can be difficult and I would like to provide some additional context.

As you know, BlackBerry has been on a pivot to become a software company for the past three years. As part of the transformation and with everyone's support every effort was made to make the smartphone business unit profitable again, including launching different form factors (Z3, Passport, Classic, PRIV, DTEK50, DTEK60), implementing various go-to-market strategies and engaging an external marketing consultant. I held onto the smartphone hardware business as long as possible as I wanted to maintain the company's heritage however, in order to fulfil our duties to our shareholders, I had to make the difficult and emotional decision to outsource hardware design and development. The strategy enables us to continue to have BlackBerry smartphones in market however, it unfortunately requires a reduced headcount in the Mobility Solutions BU.

The management team have worked very hard in negotiating agreements with Ford and TCL. I have very mixed emotions about the employment deals with Ford and TCL. On the one hand I am pleased that we were able to secure an alternative employment option for most of the impacted team, on the other hand I am sorry to have to lose great talent and loyal colleagues from BlackBerry.

I have stayed close to your feedback since the announcements of our partnerships with these two solid companies. I know that some in-scope employees have asked about staying with BlackBerry and moving to another group, such as BTS to support the Autonomous Vehicle Innovation Center (AVIC). Whilst the AVIC has been announced, the project is still developing and its timeline is undetermined. The Ford and TCL deals are in-hand and my priority has been to ensure that as many impacted employees as possible have a good home at a company that will make the best use of your talents. It is also important to remember that both Ford and TCL will work closely with BlackBerry in the future therefore, transferred employees will continue to contribute to BlackBerry's future.

For those in-scope employees who are not extended employment offers or decline a role at Ford or TCL, your manager and HRBP will evaluate internal opportunities to redeploy you within BlackBerry as much as possible. For additional information and if you have further questions, please contact your manager and/or HRBP.

I am very grateful for all of the hard work, commitment and contributions that you have given to BlackBerry. I wish everyone the best for the future, whether that is at BlackBerry, Ford, TCL or elsewhere.

Sincerely,

John Chen

Ford, federal and provincial governments pledge $600M for Windsor plant

CBC News · Posted: Mar 30, 2017 10:01 AM EDT | Last Updated: March 30, 2017

The federal and and provincial governments are investing more than $200 million in a new engine program at Ford's Essex Engine Plant in Windsor, Ont., as part of a $1-billion partnership with the company to "create and maintain" almost 800 jobs.

Ford workers formed a perimeter around Prime Minister Justin Trudeau as he announced the multi-million-dollar cash injection during a visit to the site Thursday.

"Today's investments will help create and maintain almost 800 jobs for Canadians in Windsor and across Ontario," he said. "This is about positioning Canada as a global centre for automotive innovation."

$337M to set up Ottawa research site

The federal and provincial governments each committed a $102.4-million conditional grant to the company, bringing the total investment in Windsor to about $600 million.

The money will be used to create a "world class" engine facility and a Powertrain Engineering Research and Development Centre.

“Because of that famous Windsor resilience this city is prospering again,”

- Prime Minister Justin Trudeau

About $337.9-million will also be used to set up a research and engineering centre in Ottawa that will create 295 jobs and will focus on infotainment, driver-assist features and autonomous vehicles.

CEO Mark Buzzell and the company's president of the Americas Joe Hinrichs were also at the media event.

Buzzell said the government's investment will help Canada "compete and win" in the global auto industry.

"There is tremendous competition for investment like this," he added.

Hinrichs said it was too early to talk job numbers for Windsor or to provide much detail about the new product the plant will build.

"For competitive reasons, it's too early to talk about it this far in advance ... but it's a very important program for us," he said.

"It's awesome, it's unbelievable," he said, adding everyone on the production floor was ecstatic. "Windsor has gone through a lot. We've lost a lot of jobs ... but this is great."

Emotional day for Trudeau

Premier Kathleen Wynne, Federal Economic Development Minister Navdeep Bains and provincial Economic Development Minister Brad Duguid were also on hand for the announcement.

Wynne said Ontario is "100 per cent committed" to the success of the auto industry and added the investment was about ensuring the province's auto sector will succeed in the future.

During his speech, Trudeau said it was an emotional day for him as he was able to hold the shovel his father, former prime minister Pierre Elliott Trudeau, used to break ground before the plant was built back in 1978.

The prime minister said he was humbled to visit the site, praising Windsor and its people for fighting through years of poor economic times.

"You guys are tough, there's no doubt about that," he said. "Because of that famous Windsor resilience this city is prospering again."

Mr. John Chen, CEO
San Ramon, Bishop Ranch, 4018
California, U.S.A.

Dear Mr. Chen:

Re: Class Action against BlackBerry Limited
Our File No.: 38829-1

We have been retained by a group of BlackBerry Limited employees to commence a Class Action against BlackBerry with respect to the termination of their employment from BlackBerry. Please see attached Notice of Action we issued today.

We will issue a comprehensive Statement of Claim shortly. Please advise who will represent you in this matter.

This Action is fundamentally a claim exercising the employees' Employment Standards Act, 2000 ("ESA") rights, among others. As such, BlackBerry must not take any step to impact the employees' pending employment with Ford. If it did so, both companies will be liable pursuant to section 74 of the ESA, and we will seek further appropriate punitive and bad faith damages.

Please direct any communication in this matter to our offices.

Yours Truly,

Janice B. Payne

AFFIDAVIT OF KARINE DION (FEE APPROVAL)

I, Karine Dion, of the City of Ottawa, in the Province of Ontario, AFFIRM:

1. I am a lawyer with the law firm of Nelligan O'Brien Payne LLP ("Nelligan Law"), Class Counsel in this action. I have been actively involved in this action since it was initiated in February 2017. As such, I have direct knowledge of the matters contained in this Affidavit. Where I rely on information from others, I have clearly stated this and provide the basis for the information, knowledge, or belief, and I verily believe the information to be true.
2. Nothing in this Affidavit is intended to waive solicitor-client privilege or litigation privilege. Any information provided herein is for the limited purpose of addressing the factors relevant to the fees to be approved for Class Counsel in connection with the proposed settlement agreement in this proceeding (the "Settlement Agreement") and the honorarium for the Representative Plaintiff, Mr. Parker, and each of John Veniot, Michael Dawson, and Karmindar Brar (the "Instructing Class Members"). Attached as Exhibit "A" is a copy of the Settlement Agreement.

3. I have also affirmed an Affidavit in support of the settlement approval (“Settlement Approval Affidavit”). This Affidavit and the Settlement Approval Affidavit should be read together.

Litigation History and Class Counsel’s Time and Effort Advancing the Action

4. Many of the relevant procedural documents in this action have been uploaded to Class Counsel’s website: <https://nelliganlaw.ca/class-actions/blackberry/>.

5. Mr. Parker and BlackBerry (together, the “Parties”) vigorously advanced their claims and defended their positions throughout the eight years of litigation. In the following paragraphs, I have outlined the key steps that have occurred in the litigation. In addition to the steps outlined below, the Parties attended several case conferences held before Regional Senior Justice Calum MacLeod (“RSJ MacLeod”) and Justice Michel Z Charbonneau (“Justice Charbonneau”) with respect to the production of documents, discoveries, and timetables relating to the litigation.

Pleadings and Claim Investigation

6. Class Counsel spent a significant amount of time meeting with Class Members and investigating, researching, and drafting the Statement of Claim and considering the Statement of Defence.

7. Mr. Parker brought this class proceeding on behalf of himself and his colleagues, who were Canadian BlackBerry employees who were offered and accepted employment with the Ford Motor Company of Canada (“Ford”) between January 1, 2017 and April 30, 2017 (the “Class Members”). Mr. Parker alleged that, in arranging to transfer the Class Members’ employment to Ford in 2017, BlackBerry failed to provide them with certain entitlements and breached its duty of good faith.

This action was commenced on February 15, 2017. Attached as Exhibit “B” is a copy of the Amended Notice of Action.

8. The Statement of Claim was filed on March 17, 2017, and the Amended Statement of Claim was filed on June 7, 2018. Attached as Exhibit “C” is a copy of the Amended Statement of Claim. Mr. Parker alleged that, rather than providing Class Members with certain entitlements upon transfer for Ford, BlackBerry entered into an agreement with Ford that allowed Ford to offer the Class Members employment without recognizing their years of service with BlackBerry, in breach of the sale of business protections in the Ontario Employment Standards Act, 2000 (the “ESA”).

9. Mr. Parker sought damages relating to the transfer as well as for BlackBerry’s alleged bad faith in the manner of transfer and for BlackBerry allegedly avoiding certain statutory protections and sharing the Class Members’ personal information with Ford without the Class Members’ consent. Through the litigation, BlackBerry produced documents including the Class Members’ employment contracts and information regarding the Class Members’ years of service, which allowed Class Counsel to determine the approximate value of the Class Members’ claims with respect to the termination of employment. Had the Plaintiff been successful in the claim with respect to the termination of employment, the Plaintiff claimed that the Class Members’ ESA damages would have amounted to approximately $6.7 million, and their contractual entitlements would have amounted to approximately $11.6 million.

10. BlackBerry expressly denied, and continues to deny, the allegations and claims in the Statement of Claim. Attached as Exhibit “D” is a copy of BlackBerry’s Statement of Defence dated December 19, 2019.

Certification

11. The Certification Motion was argued by Janice Payne and Andrew Montague-Reinholdt who have informed me about the Certification Motion. The Certification Motion was hard-fought. Class Counsel spent a significant amount of time preparing for and arguing the motion.

12. The Certification Motion took place on April 29 and 30 and May 1, 2019. The Certification Motion involved extensive affidavit evidence, cross-examinations, and a productions and refusals motion arising from the cross-examinations. BlackBerry filed 13 Affidavits and Mr. Parker filed five Affidavits. Class Counsel cross-examined seven of BlackBerry's affiants, and BlackBerry cross-examined four of Mr. Parker's affiants.

13. Justice Charbonneau certified the claim as a class proceeding in his Order dated May 27, 2019. Attached as Exhibit "E" is a copy of Justice Charbonneau's May 27, 2019 Order and Reasons for Decision ("Certification Decision").

14. The Court awarded costs to the Plaintiff of $220,000.00 for the Certification Motion. Attached as Exhibit "F" is a copy of Justice Charbonneau's Order dated July 18, 2019 with respect to costs.

15. BlackBerry then unsuccessfully sought leave to appeal the Certification Decision to the Ontario Divisional Court. Class Counsel spent additional time and resources responding to BlackBerry's motion for leave to appeal. The Court awarded costs to the Plaintiff of $5,000.00 for the motion for leave to appeal. Attached as Exhibit "G" is a copy of the Divisional Court's decision dated September 17, 2019, regarding BlackBerry's motion for leave to appeal the Certification Decision.

16. On May 22, 2020, the Parties sought clarification by way of a case conference regarding the certified common issues. Justice Charbonneau clarified the common issues by way of an Order dated June 1, 2020. Attached as Exhibit “H” is a copy of Justice Charbonneau’s June 1, 2020 Order.

Discovery

i. Documentary Productions

17. The Parties exchanged affidavits of documents and documentary productions on April 6, 2021. Attached as Exhibit “I” is a copy of the Table of Contents of BlackBerry’s Affidavit of Documents. BlackBerry initially produced over 6,000 documents. Attached as Exhibit “J” is a copy of the Table of Contents of Mr. Parker’s Affidavit of Documents.

18. At subsequent stages of the litigation, the Parties produced further documents. In total, BlackBerry produced over 7,000 documents. Many of the documents that BlackBerry produced were lengthy and complex and thus required a significant amount of Class Counsel’s time to thoroughly review. For example, Class Counsel devoted significant resources to reviewing the agreements, and their drafts, related to the transaction that led to the transition of the Class Members to Ford. Class Counsel spent a full day examining a BlackBerry witness on this transaction. Other documents produced by BlackBerry that required significant time to review included documents with metadata that Class Counsel needed to review and large Excel tables containing data spread across multiple tabs/sheets.

ii. Examinations for Discovery

19. In total, Class Counsel examined two BlackBerry witnesses over four days of oral examinations as well as sought answers to written undertaking questions from a third BlackBerry witness. BlackBerry examined a total of six Class Members, namely Mr. Parker over two days of oral examinations, as well as five additional Class Members.

20. On May 2, 3, and 4, 2022, Rebecca Graham attended examinations for discovery on behalf of BlackBerry.

21. On May 12 and 13, 2022, Mr. Parker attended examinations for discovery.

22. On May 17, 2022, Mr. Parker sent BlackBerry further written discovery questions.

23. On April 12, 2023, the Parties exchanged motion records for discovery refusals motions and for motions seeking to examine additional witnesses. The motions were resolved on June 29, 2023, leading to further answers and productions previously refused and leading to additional examinations, including:

- (a) On September 6, 2023, the Plaintiff examined a second BlackBerry representative, Ralph Pini;
- (b) The Plaintiff asked written undertaking questions of BlackBerry's then Chief Executive Officer ("CEO"), John Chen, for which BlackBerry provided answers on December 15, 2023; and,
- (c) BlackBerry examined five additional Class Members for up to 75 minutes each, as follows:
 - (i) BlackBerry examined Graham Eaves on July 19, 2023;

- (ii) BlackBerry examined Monica Soliguin on July 21, 2023;
- (iii) BlackBerry examined Oscar Viana on August 21, 2023;
- (iv) BlackBerry examined Alan Geue on August 21, 2023; and
- (v) BlackBerry examined Kevin Gao on November 30, 2023.

24. Throughout the litigation, the Parties have provided additional answers to undertakings and questions taken under advisement at the various examinations for discovery and following the exchange of written questions.

Motions

25. On April 20, 2021, the Parties brought a motion on consent seeking an order approving a confidentiality protocol regarding the treatment of confidential information. Attached as Exhibit “K” is a copy of the Order of Justice Charbonneau dated April 20, 2021 approving the confidentiality protocol. Class Counsel was required to devote additional time and resources throughout the litigation to ensure compliance with the confidentiality protocol. For example, Class Counsel spent additional time preparing court documents and communicating with Class Members as a result of the restrictions imposed by the confidentiality protocol.

26. On April 12, 2023, the Parties exchanged motion records seeking answers to certain questions that had been refused on examinations for discovery and seeking to examine additional witnesses. The Parties resolved these motions. Attached as Exhibit “L” is a copy of the Order of RSJ MacLeod dated June 29, 2023 that sets out the terms of the agreement between the Parties.

27. On May 1, 2024, the Parties attended a contested discovery refusals motion brought by Mr. Parker. Attached as Exhibit “M” is a copy of the Order of RSJ MacLeod dated June 3, 2024. The motion led to BlackBerry producing additional unredacted documents.

Settlement

28. BlackBerry was represented by experienced counsel who strongly defended the action.

29. The Parties first engaged in formal settlement discussions on November 9, 2022, when they voluntarily attended an in-person mediation in Toronto with William Kaplan, a well-known, experienced mediator. Class Counsel and Mr. Parker travelled to Toronto from Ottawa to attend the mediation. In advance of the mediation, the Parties exchanged extensive mediation briefs. The mediation did not result in a settlement, and the Parties continued with the litigation.

30. The Parties attended two pre-trial conferences with RSJ MacLeod ahead of the common issues trial, which was scheduled to begin on June 2, 2025 for four weeks. As a result of the upcoming trial, the Parties engaged in settlement negotiations in parallel with trial preparation.

31. In advance of the pre-trial conferences, the Parties exchanged pre-trial conference briefs, including proposed witness lists, setting out the Parties’ positions in detail.

32. During the pre-trial conferences, the Parties engaged in arm’s-length negotiations. The first pre-trial conference took place on December 4, 2024, during which time the Parties exchanged offers to settle. The Parties attended a second pre-trial conference on January 24, 2025, during which time the Parties exchanged multiple offers to settle, which ultimately led to the proposed settlement (“Proposed Settlement”).

33. Following the second pre-trial conference, the Parties engaged in further conversations and negotiations about the details of the Settlement Agreement and the notice and distribution process which led to the Settlement Agreement dated February 13, 2025.

34. Since reaching the Proposed Settlement, Class Counsel has spent considerable time preparing the notice materials, communicating with BlackBerry and the Court regarding these materials, disseminating the notice materials, communicating with Class Members about the Proposed Settlement and the settlement and fee approval hearing, preparing the materials for the settlement and fee approval hearing, and preparing for the settlement and fee approval hearing. Since reaching the Proposed Settlement, Class Counsel has incurred approximately $77,000.00 (before tax) in fees and approximately $1,707.15 (including tax) in disbursements. Class Counsel expects to incur an additional approximately $10,000.00 in fees to prepare for, and attend, the motion.

35. If the settlement is approved, Class Counsel will still be required to perform a significant amount of work, including:

- (a) Carrying out the Notice Plan;
- (b) Communicating with and advising Class Members with questions regarding their eligibility for compensation and the distribution process;
- (c) Providing Class Members with information and documents;
- (d) Coordinating and reviewing the Claim Administration Forms;

- (e) Assessing any objections raised by Class Members with respect to their years of service with BlackBerry;
- (f) Coordinating the settlement distribution; and,
- (g) Communicating with the Court regarding the settlement distribution.

Communications with Class Members

36. Class Counsel has communicated with numerous Class Members throughout this litigation. Class Members have contacted Class Counsel seeking updates on the litigation and sent Class Counsel documents and other relevant information, and Class Counsel has responded to these inquiries. Class Counsel has maintained a website for this action, on which Class Counsel posted regular updates and documents for Class Members.

37. In addition, Class Counsel has contacted various Class Members, for example, in response to BlackBerry's request to examine additional Class Members, to interview Class Members to seek information for the litigation, and to prepare the proposed witness list for the common issues trial. Class Counsel also provided BlackBerry with detailed written statements from numerous Class Members in response to an undertaking to do so.

Terms of the Retainer Agreement

38. Class Counsel entered into retainer agreements with Mr. Parker and each of the Instructing Class Members on February 14 or 15, 2017 ("Retainer Agreements"). Copies of the Retainer Agreements that Class Counsel entered into with Mr. Parker, Mr. Brar, Mr. Veniot, and Mr. Dawson are attached as Exhibit "N".

39. Class Counsel agreed to pursue the action on a contingency fee basis. The Retainer Agreements state that Class Counsel's fees will be calculated based on a base fee determined by reference to the time spent on the matter plus a reasonable multiplier.

Legal Fees and Disbursements Requested

40. Class counsel is seeking approval of $1,900,000.00 (including HST) for fees, disbursements, taxes, and for the costs required to bring the motions for settlement and fee approval and to administer the settlement, with $1,800,000.00 credited to amounts incurred up to the point of reaching the Proposed Settlement at the pre-trial conference on January 24, 2025, and $100,000.00 to cover costs after that date and to administer the settlement (based on our estimated cost for completing these steps).

41. Class Counsel have been representing the Class Members since this proceeding began in February 2017. Over the past eight years, Class Counsel's lawyers, clerks, and students have devoted significant time to advance the litigation. As of the second pre-trial conference, Class Counsel had devoted approximately 5,236 hours of lawyer, clerk, and student time, totaling approximately $1,539,681.72 in fees, and Class Counsel had incurred approximately $49,089.80 in disbursements (both amounts pre-HST). The total cost including dockets, disbursements, and HST was approximately $1,794,980.93. That said, BlackBerry paid $227,000.00 following the Certification Motion and BlackBerry's application for leave to appeal the Certification Decision. As such, there is an outstanding balance of $1,567,980.93 up to the date of the Proposed Settlement.

42. Class Counsel therefore seeks a multiplier of 1.13 on amounts up to the Proposed Settlement.

43. Class Counsel has allocated $100,000.00 to complete the remaining steps after the Proposed Settlement, including finalizing the settlement, bringing the settlement and fee approval motions, and administering the settlement. Class Counsel is not expecting an uplift on this amount.

44. These amounts are broken down in the following chart:

FEES UP TO PROPOSED SETTLEMENT
Total Fees Incurred Up to Pre-Trial Conference	$ 1,539,681.72
HST on Fees	$ 200,158.62
Total Disbursements Up to Pre-Trial Conference	$ 49,089.80
HST on Disbursements	$ 6,050.79
Total Actual Cost	$ 1,794,980.93
Amount Paid from Certification Motion	$ 227,000.00
Amount Paid from Settlement	$ 1,800,000.00
Total Combined Legals Paid	$ 2,027,000.00
Formula to Calculate Uplift	$\text{uplift} = \frac{\text{Total Combined Legals Paid}}{\text{Total Actual Cost}}$
Total Uplift on Past Fees	1.13
FEES AFTER PROPOSED SETTLEMENT
Estimated Future Cost	$ 100,000.00
Amount Paid from Settlement	$ 100,000.00
Uplift on Remaining Fees	1.00

45. The following chart sets out the main disbursements incurred by Class Counsel:

CATEGORY	DISBURSEMENTS INCURRED (INCLUDING TAX)
Mediation	$10,346.57
Printing	$5,669.10
Travel	$3,958.48
Process server	$2,645.05
Courier and postage charges	$2,076.75
Examination for discovery	$15,426.03
Court fees	$2,651.41
Document Management System	$11,948.48
Other	$418.74
Total	$55,140.61

46. Attached as Exhibit “O” is a Costs Outline of the Plaintiff capturing time and costs up to and including the second pre-trial conference, held on January 24, 2025.

Results Achieved

47. The Proposed Settlement includes an all-inclusive settlement amount of CDN $4,000,000.00, consisting entirely of legal costs, interest, general damages, and any expenses incurred to administer the settlement. While the Proposed Settlement provides for a lesser amount than that claimed, given the risks of the litigation, the Proposed Settlement is a good outcome.

48. Attached as Exhibit “P” is the proposed Distribution Protocol, which is as follows:

- (a) $2,030,000.00 plus any accrued interest as compensation to the 281 eligible Class Members, which shall be paid as general damages;
- (b) $1,900,000.00 for Class Counsel’s fees, disbursements, administration costs for distributing the settlement, and applicable taxes; and
- (c) $70,000.00 for honorarium payments: $25,000.00 for the Representative Plaintiff, and $15,000.00 for each of the three Instructing Class Members.

49. Class Members who did not opt out of the class proceeding and who completed at least three months of service with BlackBerry will be eligible for settlement funds. Of the 289 class members, four opted out and four completed less than three months of service with BlackBerry, leaving 281 Class Members who are eligible for compensation (“eligible Class Members”).

50. The Class Members who are eligible to receive settlement funds have been divided into two tiers: those with less than five years of service with BlackBerry as of February 28, 2017, and those with five or more years of service. Class Members with five or more years of service will receive twice as much compensation for every year of service.

51. The payments are expected to range from $789.15 for a Class Member with 1.81 years of service to $15,141.19 for a Class Member with 17.32 years of service. The average payment is expected to be $7,224.20.¹

52. Class Counsel will administer the distribution of the settlement, which will be paid in two installments. Class Counsel consulted with settlement administrators and determined that it would be more cost-efficient to administer the funds rather than hiring a third party to do so.

53. Class Counsel will notify eligible Class Members of the Court's approval of the settlement by providing notice in accordance with the court approved Notice Plan.

54. Eligible Class Members must then complete a Claim Administration Form by December 31, 2025 to confirm their length of service with BlackBerry and their contact details. Class Members will not need to produce any evidence unless they are disputing their years of service with BlackBerry, in which case, they will need to provide documentation to confirm their start date with BlackBerry. Through the litigation, BlackBerry provided Class Counsel with Class Members' start dates. Upon reaching the Proposed Settlement, Class Counsel sought updated information from BlackBerry to confirm the Class Members' start dates. BlackBerry provided the updated information on February 6, 2025. As a result, Class Counsel anticipates that very few, if any, Class Members will dispute their years of service with BlackBerry.

¹ Class Members will likely receive slightly higher payments as a result of the settlement funds being held in an interest-bearing account.

55. After December 31, 2025, Class Counsel will distribute the first installment of payments by sending a cheque to each eligible Class Member who completed a Claim Administration Form.

56. By paying out the settlement funds in two installments, Class Counsel will be able to hold back a portion of the settlement funds in case a Class Member successfully disputes their start date with BlackBerry and is owed more than originally anticipated. In addition, in the event that some Class Members do not make a claim for their portion of the settlement funds, their portion of the settlement will be split in the second round of payments amongst Class Members who did make claims. Further, Class Counsel are holding the settlement funds in an interest-bearing account, so any interest that accrues on the settlement funds will be paid to Class Members in the second round of payments.

57. By no later than March 2, 2026, Class Counsel will send the second installment payment to Class Members via cheque. Class Counsel do not anticipate that there will be any remaining funds following the second installment payment to Class Members.

The Notice Plan

58. The notice program in this action is greatly superior to that in most class actions. The Class Members are a group of 285² individuals whose names are known to Class Counsel. Class Counsel has the contact information for all but one Class Member. Of the 284 Class Members for whom Class Counsel has contact information, Class Counsel has the address of approximately 281 Class Members and the email address of approximately 244 Class Members. As a result, Class Counsel can provide direct notice of the hearing and settlement approval to almost all Class Members. Class

² 289 less four opt-outs.

Counsel therefore expects that all, or close to all, Class Members will submit a claim for settlement funds.

59. On April 11, 2025, RSJ MacLeod approved the Notice Plan and the notice forms to be provided to Class Members regarding notice of the settlement approval and fee approval hearing. Attached as Exhibit “Q” is a copy of RSJ MacLeod’s Order dated April 11, 2025. Attached as Exhibit “R” is a copy of the Notice Plan. Attached as Exhibit “S” is a copy of the short form notice of hearing. Attached as Exhibit “T” is a copy of the long form notice of hearing.

60. In April 2025, Class Counsel provided notice of the settlement and fee approval hearing to the Class Members in accordance with the Notice Plan, which included:

- (a) Sending the short form and long form documents via email and mail to all Class Members for whom the appropriate contact information had been provided;
- (b) Posting the short form and long form documents on Class Counsel’s website;
- (c) Posting the short form document on Class Counsel’s social media (Facebook, LinkedIn, Bluesky, and Instagram); and,
- (d) Issuing a press release regarding the settlement.

61. Of the 281 Class Members to whom Class Counsel mailed the notice documents, 21 have been returned. However, of the 21, Class Counsel has the email address for 20 to which they emailed the notice documents.

62. Following the Court’s approval of the Proposed Settlement, Class Counsel will notify eligible Class Members of the approval by providing notice in accordance with the Court-approved Notice Plan. Class Counsel will provide direct notice to eligible Class Members and will post notice of the approval on Class Counsel's website and social media platforms.

Risks Assumed by Class Counsel

63. Payment of Class Counsel's fees was contingent on the success of the action, which was never guaranteed. Class Counsel did not enter into a litigation funding agreement which significantly increased the risk assumed by Class Counsel for this matter.

64. The facts in this case are novel, which made it difficult to predict the outcome had the case proceeded to trial. To succeed at trial, Mr. Parker would have needed to demonstrate that BlackBerry's actions amounted to a termination of the Class Members' employment and that there had been bad faith conduct relating to the manner of transfer. The novelty of this case also made it difficult to predict the outcome of the Certification Motion, where BlackBerry argued that the matter was not appropriate for a class proceeding.

65. Two former BlackBerry employees brought complaints to the Ministry of Labour following the transition to Ford, alleging that BlackBerry had terminated their employment. The Ministry of Labour dismissed both complaints finding that BlackBerry had not terminated their employment. Attached as Exhibit "U" are copies of the Ministry of Labour decisions.

66. Depending on the findings made by the Court in respect of the Plaintiff's allegations (including in respect of termination of employment), the Class Members may have received no damages, and Class Counsel may have received no compensation.

67. BlackBerry vigorously defended the action at every stage. As a result of the prolonged and strongly contested nature of this action, Class Counsel incurred significant amounts of unpaid time and disbursements. Besides a small retainer of $500.00 from each of Mr. Parker, Mr. Veniot, Mr. Dawson, and Mr. Brar, and besides the award of costs resulting from the Certification Motion, Class Counsel received no compensation – and had no guarantee of compensation – for their years of effort. There was a real possibility that, after eight years of hard-fought litigation and after docketing hundreds of thousands of dollars of time, Class Counsel would not recoup anything on their investment.

Class Counsel's Experience and Recommendation

68. Class Counsel are experienced employment lawyers. Nelligan Law is a leading employment law firm in Ottawa. Janice Payne, lead counsel for the Class Members, is an experienced employment lawyer who has worked on numerous employee-side class actions.

69. Class Counsel consulted with a partner in the class actions group at Koskie Minsky LLP for the purpose of this litigation. Koskie Minsky LLP is a leading firm in class actions litigation in Canada.

The Opportunity Cost to Class Counsel

70. Class Counsel normally work on a fee-for-service basis, as opposed to a contingency basis. Had Class Counsel not been pursuing this class action, they could have been completing fee-for-service work. Class Counsel lost the opportunity to take on paying clients and took on the costs of carrying this class action without any return for eight years, beyond the award of costs resulting from the Certification Motion.

71. Class Counsel has expended a substantial amount of resources, both in terms of time and costs for disbursements, over the past eight years to advance this litigation.

Expectation of the Class and ability of the Class to pay

72. The fees and disbursements sought by Class Counsel were detailed in the Notice of Settlement Approval Hearing distributed to the Class in accordance with the Court-approved Notice Plan. To date, Class Counsel has received no objections to its fee request.

73. The settlement is large enough that the Class can pay the fees sought.

Importance to the Class

74. Throughout the litigation, Class Counsel has engaged in extensive discussions with various Class Members. The majority of Class Members with whom Class Counsel spoke expressed that they felt that BlackBerry should be held accountable for certain harm they allege they suffered due to the way the transfer to Ford was structured.

Proposed Honoraria

75. Class Counsel seeks a $25,000.00 honorarium for Mr. Parker and a $15,000.00 honorarium for each of John Veniot, Karmindar Brar, and Michael Dawson, totaling $70,000.00.

76. Mr. Parker, Mr. Veniot, Mr. Brar, and Mr. Dawson have provided necessary instruction and assistance and have been responsive and engaged throughout this action.

77. Further, they have subjected themselves to the scrutiny of acting as representatives of the Class. Prior to initiating the class action, Class Counsel met with approximately 20 other Class Members who expressed interest in participating in the action but were unwilling to act as representatives of the Class because they were concerned about potential implications with respect to their new employment with Ford.

78. I believe that Mr. Parker, Mr. Veniot, Mr. Brar, and Mr. Dawson undertook personal risk by acting as representatives of the class given the uncertainty of their employment with Ford at the time the action commenced and given that they had little statutory or contractual protections in their employment with Ford since Ford was not recognizing their years of service with BlackBerry.

79. Mr. Parker, in particular, was the only Class Member willing to act as the named Representative Plaintiff. Had he not been willing to do so, the action likely would not have commenced.

80. Mr. Parker, Mr. Veniot, Mr. Brar, and Mr. Dawson undertook financial risk by acting as the representatives of the Class because Class Counsel did not agree to indemnify them nor was there a third-party funding agreement. If the action had been unsuccessful, they would have faced a significant potential loss in view of the scale of BlackBerry's likely significant fees to defend this action.

81. The proposed honoraria were detailed in the Notice of Settlement Approval Hearing distributed to the Class in accordance with the Court-approved Notice Plan. Class Counsel has received no objections to the proposed honoraria.

82. I make this Affidavit in support of the motion for settlement approval and the motion for fee approval and for no other or improper purpose.

MINUTES OF SETTLEMENT

In full satisfaction and settlement of all claims brought in this action, the parties have agreed to resolve the action on the following terms:

1. Settlement. The defendant (“BlackBerry”) will pay an all-inclusive total amount of CDN $4,000,000 (four million dollars) (the “Settlement Amount”), consisting entirely of legal costs, interest, general damages, and any expenses incurred to administer the settlement.
2. BlackBerry shall not have any obligation to pay any further amount to the plaintiff, the class members or plaintiff’s counsel with respect to these minutes or settlement of this action for any reason, including any additional amounts for damages, interest, legal fees, disbursements, taxes of any kind, costs and expenses relating in any way to the action, the settlement, and any settlement administration expenses.
3. BlackBerry will pay the Settlement Amount in full to plaintiff’s counsel, Nelligan O’Brien Payne LLP, on or before March 10, 2025, to be held in trust pending approval by the Court of the settlement and distribution protocol. Nelligan O’Brien Payne LLP will provide wire instruction information for their trust account on or before February 20, 2025.

4. No admission of liability. In entering into this settlement it is understood and acknowledged that there is no admission of liability on the part of BlackBerry, and all liability is in fact expressly denied by it.

5. Notice of settlement and settlement approval motion. Plaintiff's counsel will prepare the notice of settlement and motion material for approval of the settlement. In respect of these materials, and any related materials filed in Court, plaintiff's counsel will provide BlackBerry's counsel with draft copies of the materials, and provide an opportunity for its counsel to comment on them before they are finalized or provided to class members or the Court.

6. In the notice of settlement, the subsequent material that will be filed with the Court on the motion for approval of the settlement, and in any other public communications in relation to the settlement, there will be no suggestion of any acknowledgment by BlackBerry of any wrongdoing or any bad faith conduct on its part in respect of the matters at issue in the action and/or basis for settlement.

7. The plaintiff will bring the necessary motion for approval of the settlement, and the defendant will not oppose the motion.

8. The parties retain all of their previous objections, arguments, claims and defences if this settlement does not receive the Court's approval or if the Court's approval is reversed or vacated on appeal.

9. Effect of settlement. This settlement becomes effective, final and enforceable on the issuance by the Court of an order approving the settlement (the "Effective Date"). The approval or denial by the Court of the distribution protocol or quantum of plaintiff's counsel's fees are to be determined by the Court in addition to its determination of the fairness, reasonableness and adequacy of the settlement (and will not impact the overall approval of the settlement).

10. On the Effective Date, this action shall be dismissed with prejudice and without costs.

11. Releases: The class members make the following releases:

- (a) As of the Effective Date, and in consideration of payment of the Settlement Amount and for other valuable consideration set forth in these minutes of settlement, the class members for themselves, their heirs, executors, estates, successors and assigns (the “Releasors”) forever and absolutely release, waive and discharge BlackBerry and its predecessors, successors, assigns, parents, subsidiaries, and affiliates, and together with all of their current and former officers, directors, employees, servants, trustees, representatives, lawyers, agents, insurers, and re-insurers along with shareholders of BlackBerry and as applicable any of their respective heirs, executors, estates, successors and assigns (the “Releasees”) from all claims by any class member relating to or arising from their employment at BlackBerry or the cessation of their employment, including in respect of all matters raised, or which could reasonably have been raised, in this action, and specifically including all claims and causes of action pleaded in this action or related damages (and including any such claims that may be subsequently discovered) (together, the “Released Claims” or individually a “Released Claim”). It is understood and agreed, however, that the Releasors are not releasing any existing and future entitlements they have or may have with respect to any Group RRSP or other pension plan that they acquired while employed with BlackBerry.
- (b) The Releasors covenant, represent and warrant that as of the Effective Date they have no further claims against the Releasees for, or arising out of, the Released Claims. In the event the Releasors have made or should subsequently make any claims or demands or commence or threaten to commence any actions, claims or proceedings or make any complaints against the Releasees arising out of or relating to the Released Claims, these minutes of settlement may be raised as an estoppel and complete bar to any such claim, demand, action, proceeding or complaint.

- (c) The Releasors acknowledge and agree that the Settlement Amount to be paid by BlackBerry is inclusive of all amounts to be paid by the Releasees in connection with this settlement and the approval and administration of it.
- (d) Upon the Effective Date, the Releasors and plaintiff's counsel shall not now or subsequently institute, continue, maintain or assert, either directly or indirectly, on their own behalf or on behalf of any class or any other person, any action, suit, cause of action, claim or demand in respect of any Released Claim against any of the Releasees or any other person who may claim contribution or indemnity from any of the Releasees. In the event the Releasors or plaintiff's counsel do so, this Release may be raised as an estoppel and complete bar to any such claims, demand, action, suit, proceeding or complaint.

12. Implementation. The parties shall use their reasonable best efforts to implement these minutes of settlement in a timely way.

13. Confidentiality. Prior to the execution and filing with the Court of these minutes of settlement, the parties shall keep the fact of this settlement and the content of these minutes of settlement confidential and shall not disclose them to anyone, or make any other public statements, including to the media, regarding this settlement except as the parties agree, as required by law (including applicable securities laws), or as ordered by the Court.

14. Public statements. Following the execution and filing of these minutes of settlement with the Court, the parties agree that, except as otherwise required to obtain approval of this settlement, they shall not issue any press releases or make other public statements, including to the media, regarding this settlement, except those that are:

- (a) agreed by the parties;
- (b) required by law, regulation or Court order;
- (c) in the case of class counsel (and while the parties acknowledge that communications by plaintiff's counsel to their clients are privileged), statements or communications to the class informing them about the settlement and distribution process.

15. Any such public statements made by the plaintiff, class members, or plaintiff's counsel referred to in the paragraph immediately above (including those in sub-paragraph 14 (c)), shall be consistent with paragraphs 4 and 6 above, and shall be free from disparagement of BlackBerry and its conduct, or any disparagement of its current or former management and employees.

16. Indemnity. Class members will indemnify and save BlackBerry harmless in respect of any taxes and insurance payments and any associated repayments (and all related interest, fines, penalties and other charges of any kind whatsoever), and all related costs and expenses, that may be claimed from or payable by BlackBerry in respect of the Settlement Amount or the payment thereof.

17. Termination. These minutes of settlement shall automatically terminate if: (i) the Court refuses to approve these minutes of settlement and the timeline to appeal such a decision has expired and the plaintiff does not appeal; (ii) the Court refuses to approve these minutes of settlement and such decision is upheld on appeal; or, (iii) if any settlement approval is overturned on appeal. In the event these minutes of settlement are terminated: (i) the parties will be restored to their respective positions prior to entering into these minutes of settlement; (ii) the settlement funds held in trust, pursuant to paragraph 1 above, shall be returned to BlackBerry within fifteen (15) days of termination; and, (iii) these minutes of settlement will not be introduced into evidence or otherwise referred to in any litigation involving the parties.

18. Governing law. These minutes of settlement shall be governed by the laws of the Province of Ontario.

19. There are no other terms of settlement other than as set out above.

DATED as of this 13th day of February, 2025.

AMENDED NOTICE OF ACTION

TO THE DEFENDANT

A LEGAL PROCEEDING HAS BEEN COMMENCED AGAINST YOU by the plaintiff. The claim made against you is set out in the statement of claim served with this notice of action.

IF YOU WISH TO DEFEND THIS PROCEEDING, you or an Ontario lawyer acting for you must prepare a statement of defence in Form 18A prescribed by the Rules of Civil Procedure, serve it on the plaintiff's lawyer or, where the plaintiff does not have a lawyer, serve it on the plaintiff, and file it, with proof of service, in this court office, WITHIN TWENTY DAYS after this notice of action is served on you, if you are served in Ontario.

If you are served in another province or territory of Canada or in the United States of America, the period for serving and filing your statement of defence is forty days. If you are served outside Canada and the United States of America, the period is sixty days.

Instead of serving and filing a statement of defence, you may serve and file a notice of intent to defend in Form 18B prescribed by the Rules of Civil Procedure. This will entitle you to ten more days within which to serve and file your statement of defence.

IF YOU FAIL TO DEFEND THIS PROCEEDING, JUDGMENT MAY BE GIVEN AGAINST YOU IN YOUR ABSENCE AND WITHOUT FURTHER NOTICE TO YOU. IF YOU WISH TO DEFEND THIS PROCEEDING BUT ARE UNABLE TO PAY LEGAL FEES, LEGAL AID MAY BE AVAILABLE TO YOU BY CONTACTING A LOCAL LEGAL AID OFFICE.

TAKE NOTICE: THIS ACTION WILL AUTOMATICALLY BE DISMISSED if it has not been set down for trial or terminated by any means within five years after the action was commenced unless otherwise ordered by the court.

Claim

1. The Plaintiff claims:

- a. an order certifying this action as a class proceeding pursuant to the Class Proceedings Act, 1992, and appointing the Plaintiff as the representative plaintiff for:
 - i. all persons in Canada who ~~are or~~ were employees and/or dependent contractors of BlackBerry Limited ("BlackBerry") who ~~work or~~ worked for BlackBerry in Canada, and who were offered and accepted employment with Ford Motor Company of Canada ("Ford") ~~after January, 1 2016 (the "BlackBerry Employees")~~ between January 1, 2017 and April 30, 2017, while excluding those BlackBerry employees who specifically sought out the possibility of working with Ford; and
 - ii. such other group of persons as may be approved by the Court.
- b. damages for the greater of the Plaintiffs':
 - i. minimum provincial statutory entitlements on termination;
 - ii. contractual entitlements on termination; or
 - iii. common law entitlements on termination, where applicable, less a reduction for mitigation earnings;
- c. bad faith and punitive damages in the amount of $20,000,000.00 or such other sum as this Court finds appropriate at the trial of the common issues or at a reference or references;

- d. pre and post-judgment interest in accordance with the Courts of Justice Act, RSO 1990, c C 43, as amended;
 - e. costs of this action on a substantial indemnity basis, including H.S.T.; and
 - f. such further and other relief that this Honourable Court deems just.
- 2. The Plaintiff, David Parker, is an individual ordinarily resident in the City of Ottawa, Ontario. He has worked for BlackBerry for over fourteen (14) years.
 - 3. The Defendant, BlackBerry, is a duly incorporated company, operating a number of facilities across Canada.
 - 4. In or about the Fall of 2016, BlackBerry and Ford arranged to transfer the BlackBerry Employees' employment to Ford (the "Transaction"). The BlackBerry Employees agreed to accept and/or were offered employment with Ford. Both BlackBerry and Ford have stated that the Transaction is not a sale of business. Both BlackBerry and Ford have stated that the BlackBerry Employees' years of service and/or contractual severance entitlements will not transfer to Ford.
 - 5. BlackBerry's actions, taken as a whole, amount to a termination of the BlackBerry Employees' employment, entitling them to their statutory, common law and/or contractual entitlements on termination.

6. BlackBerry has stated that it will not pay the BlackBerry Employees any of their entitlements on termination.
7. BlackBerry has breached its duties of good faith, honesty and to not knowingly mislead the BlackBerry Employees. It has structured the Transaction to circumvent paying the Blackberry Employees' statutory entitlements.

- d. Pre and Post-judgment interest in accordance with the Courts of Justice Act, RSO 1990, c C 43, as amended;
- e. Costs of this action on a substantial indemnity basis, including H.S.T.; and
- f. Such further and other relief that this Honourable Court deems just.

Background

The Parties

2. The Plaintiff, David Parker (“Parker”), is an individual ordinarily resident in the City of Ottawa, Ontario. He worked for BlackBerry for over thirteen (13) years since his hire on or about June 28, 2004.
3. The Defendant, BlackBerry Limited, is a duly incorporated company, operating a number of facilities across Canada.

BlackBerry

4. BlackBerry built and sold smartphone hardware and software. In 2007, it rose to be the most valuable company on the TSX; however, since that time, its financial performance has been declining.
5. In or around 2011, BlackBerry released its first tablet device; however, due to worse than expected financial performance, the company began to struggle and started to reduce its workforce. BlackBerry initially cut approximately 2,000 jobs in 2011. In or about 2012, BlackBerry laid off approximately 5,000 employees and in 2013, BlackBerry laid off approximately 4,500 employees.
6. In or about February, 2016, BlackBerry announced it would lay off additional employees.
7. The long history of layoffs left Parker, and other employees, concerned about the security of their employment with BlackBerry.

BlackBerry's Change in Strategy

8. On or about September 28, 2016, as part of its Second Quarter Earnings Statement, BlackBerry announced that it would end all internal smartphone hardware development and outsource those functions to business partners.
9. John Chen ("Chen"), the Chief Executive Officer ("CEO") of BlackBerry, announced to the media that BlackBerry would cut expenses by eliminating its inventory and reducing its staff and equipment costs.
10. At this time, Parker became increasingly worried that his employment with BlackBerry was in jeopardy.

The BlackBerry/Ford Partnership

11. On or about October 31, 2016, BlackBerry and Ford announced a partnership to develop automobile software (the "Ford Contract").
12. Starting in October 2016, BlackBerry began transitioning employees, who had worked on hardware technologies and software in the handheld business unit, to the "Silver Team" (the "Silver Team Employees"). BlackBerry did not provide the Silver Team Employees with information about what the Silver Team would do. All that the Silver Team Employees were told was that their work would involve engineering services exclusively for Ford. BlackBerry moved Parker to the Silver Team on or about January 4, 2017.

BlackBerry and Ford Negotiated the Transfer of the Silver Team Employees

13. BlackBerry and Ford negotiated the right for Ford to offer employment to the Silver Team Employees.

14. BlackBerry provided the Silver Team Employees' human resources ("HR") and other personal information to Ford. It did not ask Parker or other Silver Team Employees for permission to do so. BlackBerry management discussed the employees' employment information with Ford, without first consulting with the affected employees.
15. Throughout the fall of 2016, BlackBerry allowed Ford to attend BlackBerry's offices and make presentations to the Silver Team Employees about the benefits of joining Ford.

Ford Announced that Silver Team Employees would Transfer to Ford

16. On or about December 9, 2016, Ford conducted a video-linked presentation to BlackBerry offices in Canada and the United States, to which it invited the Silver Team Employees. BlackBerry encouraged the Silver Team Employees to attend. During the presentation, Ford announced that it would be offering employment to the Silver Team Employees. HR personnel from both BlackBerry and Ford were in attendance.
17. BlackBerry later clarified that the majority of Silver Team Employees would receive offers from Ford, while others would transfer to another BlackBerry business partner.

Parker Requested Information about the Transfer

18. Following Ford's announcement of the Silver Team Employees' transfer, Parker reached out to Amber Jessup, a BlackBerry HR Representative ("Jessup"), and confirmed he wanted to stay with BlackBerry. She responded that there would be no guarantee of a position with BlackBerry for individuals who declined the offer from Ford.

19. On or about December 14, 2016, Parker emailed Ralph Pini (“Pini”), a BlackBerry HR Representative and Head of the Mobile Solutions unit, asking him what his employment status would be if he refused employment with Ford.
20. Pini responded via email that BlackBerry would not be continuing the current activities in Parker’s group in the future, but that BlackBerry would try and find a matching position. He did not identify any positions that would be available to Parker. He then wrote that Parker ought to “give a chance to the Ford opportunity before making a decision since there is some really great innovation going on”.
21. Parker responded to Pini that HR had told him that there would be no guarantee of future employment with BlackBerry should he refuse employment with Ford. Pini wrote back stating that BlackBerry would “try (its) best to match the skillset” for a position with the software licensing team.
22. Parker also asked Jessup about available positions within BlackBerry’s QNX team if he turned down the Ford offer. She responded on or about December 23, 2016 that there were no open roles within that team, nor any available roles anticipated in the near future.

The Chen Email

23. On or about January 6, 2017, Chen sent an email to all Silver Team Employees noting the changes to the Mobility Solutions Business Unit (the group in which the Silver Team Employees worked). In his email, Chen explained that BlackBerry’s strategy “requires a reduced headcount in the Mobility Solutions BU”.
24. Chen also explained that management had negotiated agreements with Ford for those employees, although he stated that he had “mixed emotions” about the deal. While he was pleased that BlackBerry was “able to secure alternative employment” for most of the team, Chen was sorry “to have to lose great talent and loyal colleagues from BlackBerry”.

25. Even though Chen acknowledged that many employees had inquired about staying with BlackBerry, including moving to another group within the company, he discouraged the employees from doing so:

I know that some in-scope employees have asked about staying with BlackBerry and moving to another group, such as BTS to support the Autonomous Vehicle Innovation Center (AVIC). Whilst the AVIC has been announced, the project is still developing and its timeline is undetermined. The Ford and TCL deals are in-hand and my priority has been to ensure that as many impacted employees as possible have a good home at a company that will make the best use of your talents. It is important to remember that both Ford and TCL will work closely with BlackBerry in the future therefore, transferred employees will continue to contribute to BlackBerry’s future.

26. Chen then stated that if an employee declined an offer with Ford, BlackBerry would evaluate internal opportunities with BlackBerry “as much as possible”.
27. In light of his earlier correspondence with BlackBerry HR, Parker understood Chen’s message to mean that it was unlikely he would have a role with BlackBerry if he turned down employment with Ford.

Ford made Offers of Employment

28. On or about January 16, 2017, Zolton Racz, a BlackBerry HR Representative (“Racz”), emailed the entire Silver Team notifying them that all Silver Team Employees would receive offers of employment from Ford, which he said was “excellent news”. He asked that all employees be available on specific dates to receive their individual offers of employment in person. He noted that both Ford and BlackBerry HR representatives would be onsite to address any employee questions.

29. BlackBerry set up meetings for Parker and the other Silver Team Employees to meet with Ford representatives so that they could provide the employees with offers of employment. These offers included an employment contract setting out the terms and conditions of their new employment with Ford.
30. On or about January 18, 2017, Ford offered Parker employment.
31. On or about January 24, and again on January 27, 2017, Racz sent emails to the entire Ottawa Silver Team, notifying them that they should hand deliver their acceptance of employment to the Ford HR representatives who would be on-site at BlackBerry's offices.
32. Based on the uncertain statements from BlackBerry about any other options, the pressure it was putting on the employees to accept employment with Ford, and the history of BlackBerry layoffs in recent years, Parker understood that he would have no position at BlackBerry if he did not accept the Ford offer. As such, Parker accepted employment with Ford on or about January 23, 2017. He believed he had no other practical choice; his decision was not voluntary.

BlackBerry Requested Resignations

33. On or about February 2, 2017, Jessup emailed Parker stating that BlackBerry required him to resign his employment with BlackBerry:

As you have accepted new employment, you are required to submit formal notice of your resignation. Attached is a template resignation letter that you are required to complete, sign and submit. Please complete the letter and return (in person or by email) by February 10th.

Before your last day you will receive a Resignation Acceptance Letter from HR. This document confirms your last day with BlackBerry as well as some final details concerning your benefits, vacation pay and other pertinent information.

34. Jessup attached documents to her email. She stated Parker had to sign those documents which included a template resignation letter for Parker, as well as a document setting out his “post-employment obligations”.
35. Jessup’s email also contained timelines that Parker was required to follow with respect to his BlackBerry smartphone, returning documents, and filing expense forms, prior to his move to Ford.
36. Jessup’s email was the first time anyone from BlackBerry told Parker he was required to resign his employment.
37. The other employees who accepted employment with Ford received the same, or a substantially similar, email communication from BlackBerry stating that BlackBerry required that they resign their employment with BlackBerry.

Parker took the Position that BlackBerry Terminated Him

38. Parker responded to Jessup’s email on or about February 2, 2017. He stated that BlackBerry terminated his employment based on its communications with him and other employees, including Chen and Pini’s emails, as well as BlackBerry’s lack of clarity as to whether there would be a position for him within the company should he refuse Ford’s offer of employment. He stated that he believed he was entitled to his contractual entitlements on termination. He did not sign the resignation letter.
39. Jessup responded that BlackBerry was not terminating his employment; rather, Parker had accepted new employment and therefore had resigned his position.

BlackBerry and Ford take the Position that this is Not a Sale of Business

40. On or about February 7, 2017, Parker asked for clarification from Jessup as to whether the transfer of Silver Team Employees to Ford (the “Transaction”) constituted a sale of business.
41. Jessup did not respond to Parker in writing.
42. She did however meet with Parker and another employee the next day, and confirmed that neither BlackBerry nor Ford were treating the Transaction as a sale of business and, as such, the employees’ years of service with BlackBerry would not transfer to Ford.
43. Parker also reached out to a Ford HR representative on or about February 8, 2017. This representative also confirmed that Ford was not treating the Transaction as a sale of business.
44. On or about February 9, 2017, Parker sent an email to Jessup summarizing his conversation with her. He asked her to confirm that neither Ford nor BlackBerry were treating the Transaction as a sale of business.
45. Jessup did not reply to this message.
46. Instead, on or about February 10, 2017, Vann Vogel, a BlackBerry lawyer and Senior Director of Compliance and Employment Law (“Vogel”), responded. Vogel confirmed that Parker’s employment was not being transferred to Ford, that his relationship with Ford was a new relationship, and that the decision to accept employment with Ford was his own (Parker’s).
47. Other employees had the same, or a similar, experience when they asked questions about whether the Transaction constituted a sale of business, and whether BlackBerry would pay out their entitlements on termination.

48. Other employees were not provided with a written response from BlackBerry; instead, BlackBerry insisted on engaging in telephone conversations, wherein they communicated the same information: this was not a termination of employment or a sale of business.

Parker could not Remain with or Return to BlackBerry

49. At no point after Parker was offered employment with Ford did anyone at BlackBerry tell Parker there was a specific position available for him if he wished to stay.
50. On or about February 23, 2017, after Parker filed a Notice of Action with respect to this matter, BlackBerry sent all employees an email responding to what it called “Frequently Asked Questions” (“FAQs”).
51. The FAQs did not guarantee that BlackBerry had positions available for employees who wanted to stay with BlackBerry instead of accepting employment with Ford, nor did they suggest that employees who had already accepted employment with Ford could return to BlackBerry:

Q. If I don’t receive a job offer, or decline a job offer, is my employment with BlackBerry terminated?

A. No. If you don’t receive, or if you decline an offer from Ford, your employment will continue with BlackBerry. It will continue in the same position as before and we will consider you for comparable roles on another team at BlackBerry if your position subsequently becomes redundant.

Q. Are comparable roles available?

A. We have already placed several employees in comparable roles (in the same job position) who have chosen to remain at BlackBerry. We will work with you to find a suitable and comparable role if you choose to stay and continue your employment at BlackBerry. In the event we cannot find a comparable role on another team and determine that we must subsequently terminate your employment, you would then be eligible for separation pay per the terms of your employment agreement.

52. In the FAQs, BlackBerry also stated that it no longer required employees to provide a letter of resignation, although it would nonetheless treat all acceptances of Ford employment as resignations from BlackBerry:

Q. If I accept a job offer from Ford, am I required to submit a letter of resignation?

A. We have requested a letter to confirm your acceptance of Ford's job offer and thus resignation from BlackBerry, to complete your file. If you choose not to submit a letter, we will nonetheless recognize your acceptance of employment by Ford and accept it as a resignation from BlackBerry.

53. On or about February 25, 2017, Vogel sent a separate email to Parker. He indicated that if Parker wished to remain with BlackBerry, there were positions available, and HR would work with him to find suitable work. Vogel did not provide any information about what specific positions might be available to Parker or any other terms of employment.

Parker and the other Plaintiffs' Damages

Damages for Wrongful Dismissal

54. BlackBerry's actions, taken as a whole, amount to a wrongful termination of the Plaintiffs' employment, entitling them to their statutory, common law and/or contractual entitlements on termination.

55. When BlackBerry arranged for Ford to provide the Plaintiffs with offers of employment, its actions, taken as a whole, amounted to a clear intention to terminate them.

Specifically:

- a. BlackBerry had a long history of layoffs, and made uncertain statements about whether the Plaintiffs would have positions with BlackBerry if they refused employment with Ford. This created an environment whereby the Plaintiffs did not know if they would have a position with BlackBerry if they refused employment with Ford;
- b. In or around the Fall of 2016, Chen announced that BlackBerry would be reducing its staff and moving its services to business partners, which the Plaintiffs understood to mean they would no longer have positions with BlackBerry;
- c. BlackBerry actively negotiated with Ford to have Ford take on the Plaintiffs because BlackBerry did not have positions for them;
- d. BlackBerry actively worked to facilitate the transfer of the Plaintiffs to Ford, and shared the Plaintiffs' personal and HR information, without asking for their permission;
- e. BlackBerry set a clear and unequivocal date of termination. Specifically, BlackBerry negotiated with Ford for the Plaintiffs' employment with BlackBerry to terminate on March 1, 2017, when the Plaintiffs would start with Ford;
- f. BlackBerry failed to provide any clear indication as to whether employees who refused employment from Ford would continue to hold positions with BlackBerry. Instead, it vaguely responded that there may be positions, but encouraged the Plaintiffs to accept employment with Ford;

- g. When Racz announced that Ford would be providing the entire Silver Team with offers of employment, he described it as “excellent news”, implying that had Ford not provided these offers, the Plaintiffs would have been laid off;
- h. Only after the Plaintiffs accepted employment with Ford, BlackBerry notified the Plaintiffs that they were required to resign their employment with BlackBerry, that BlackBerry would not pay them any statutory or contractual entitlements, and that their service with BlackBerry would not transfer to Ford;
- i. BlackBerry told the Plaintiffs that they were required to sign documents confirming “post-employment” obligations;
- j. While some employees did sign the resignation letters that they were given, they did not do so voluntarily;
- k. BlackBerry and Ford have both confirmed that the Transaction is not a Sale of Business and Ford will not honour the Plaintiffs’ years of service; and
- l. Only after Parker started this action, BlackBerry reached out to him and other Plaintiffs with a suggestion that there might be opportunities with BlackBerry. These statements did not confirm that the Plaintiffs’ employment would continue because they were made after BlackBerry had already terminated the Silver Team Employees’ employment and were self-serving statements made in the face of litigation.

56. Parker and some of the other Plaintiffs have clauses in their employment contracts setting out a formula to determine their entitlements on termination (“Contractual Entitlements”). These Plaintiffs are entitled to these Contractual Entitlements as damages flowing from their wrongful termination.

57. Other Plaintiffs are entitled to common law reasonable notice periods. These Plaintiffs are entitled to damages determined at common law for their wrongful termination.
58. Further and in the alternative, all Plaintiffs are entitled to their minimum statutory entitlements on termination, including but not limited to termination, severance and vacation pay, in accordance with Ontario's Employment Standards Act, 2000, SO 2000, c 41 ("ESA") and other provincial and territorial employment standards legislation ("Statutory Entitlements"). All the Plaintiffs are entitled to these Statutory Entitlements as damages flowing from their wrongful termination.
59. The Plaintiffs have no duty to mitigate their Contractual Entitlements and/or Statutory Entitlements on termination.

Bad Faith Damages

60. BlackBerry owed the Plaintiffs a duty of good faith and fair dealing in the manner of their dismissal. The duty of good faith is characterized by candour, reasonableness, honesty and forthrightness. The parties reasonably expected that BlackBerry would act in good faith and not mislead the Plaintiffs in the manner of dismissal.
61. BlackBerry refused and/or failed to act in good faith in the manner of the Plaintiffs' dismissal and instead acted in bad faith by being untruthful, misleading and unduly insensitive.
62. The Plaintiffs state that BlackBerry's actions as set out above constitute a breach of its obligation of good faith and fair dealing in the manner of their dismissal. Specifically, BlackBerry:
- a. Structured the Transaction to circumvent paying the Plaintiffs' Statutory Entitlements;

- b. Was intentionally vague, misleading and incomplete in its communications with the Plaintiffs prior to their accepting employment with Ford;
- c. Shared the Plaintiffs' personal and other HR information with Ford without obtaining their consent;
- d. Only after the Plaintiffs accepted employment with Ford did BlackBerry inform these employees that the Transaction was not a sale of business and that it would not pay out their entitlements on termination; and
- e. Is refusing to pay the Plaintiffs' Statutory Entitlements on termination.

Punitive Damages

63. BlackBerry's conduct was malicious, oppressive, heavy-handed, and extreme in nature.

This conduct is deserving of full condemnation and punishment. Specifically,

BlackBerry:

- a. Structured the Transaction to circumvent paying the Plaintiffs' Statutory Entitlements;
- b. Was intentionally vague, misleading and incomplete in its communications with the Plaintiffs prior to their accepting employment with Ford;
- c. Shared the Plaintiffs' personal and other HR information with Ford without obtaining their consent;
- d. Only after the Plaintiffs accepted employment with Ford did BlackBerry inform these employees that the Transaction was not a sale of business and that it would not pay out their entitlements on termination; and
- e. Is refusing to pay the Plaintiffs' Statutory Entitlements on termination.

64. BlackBerry committed independent actionable wrongs entitling the Plaintiffs to an award of punitive damages. Specifically, BlackBerry failed to pay out Statutory Entitlements on termination, it breached its duty of good faith and fair dealing, and it breached the Plaintiffs' privacy rights by sharing their HR information with Ford.

BLACKBERRY LIMITED

PROCEEDING UNDER THE CLASS PROCEEDINGS ACT, 1992

STATEMENT OF DEFENCE

1. The defendant (“BlackBerry”) admits the allegations contained in paragraphs 2, 3, 8 (with the qualification that BlackBerry announced that it planned to do so), 30 and 46 of the amended statement of claim.
2. BlackBerry has no knowledge or incomplete knowledge in respect of the allegations contained in paragraph 43 of the amended statement of claim.
3. BlackBerry denies the allegations contained in the remaining paragraphs of the amended statement of claim.

Overview

4. Contrary to the allegations in the amended statement of claim, the class members – former BlackBerry employees – were not wrongfully dismissed by BlackBerry.
5. While they were still employed by BlackBerry, these employees each received an offer of alternate, full-time employment from the Ford Motor Company of Canada (“Ford”). It was Ford’s decision to offer them employment in connection with its development of ‘connected car’ and autonomous vehicle technology. It was each employee's choice whether to accept their offer or not. They could have chosen to decline it and remain a BlackBerry employee, with all of their existing employment rights vis-à-vis BlackBerry preserved (including the right to receive termination pay in the event BlackBerry subsequently terminated their employment at any point). A number of employees did in fact decline Ford's offer and remained BlackBerry employees. Each of the class members, however, chose to accept their Ford offer and leave BlackBerry's employ, most of them submitting express notices confirming their resignations. The employees then started working at Ford, earning higher compensation than at BlackBerry. BlackBerry did not terminate, let alone wrongfully terminate, their employment and no further compensation is owed to them by BlackBerry.

The Parties

6. BlackBerry is a Canadian company headquartered in Waterloo, Ontario, and is a leader in providing secure software and services for enterprise and government customers.

7. The representative plaintiff, Mr. Parker, is a former employee of BlackBerry who accepted an offer of full time employment from Ford, and left BlackBerry's employ to work at Ford. The other class members are also former BlackBerry employees who left its employ after accepting offers of employment from Ford.

BlackBerry's Mobility Solutions Business Unit and Project Silver

8. Mobility Solutions is BlackBerry's business unit relating to the development and licensing of BlackBerry's software for mobile devices. In recent years, it has shifted away from the design and development of hardware (i.e. smartphones and tablets), and in the fall of 2016 BlackBerry announced that it planned to end all internal hardware development. Its Mobility Solutions business unit, however, has continued to focus on software, including software development, and licensing.

9. In the fall of 2016, BlackBerry entered into contractual arrangements with Ford in which BlackBerry agreed – through its Mobility Solutions business unit – to provide engineering services to Ford in respect of software systems and technologies for use in Ford cars. This engineering services project, known internally as "Project Silver", related to software for use in ‘connected vehicles’ and the development of a fully autonomous vehicle – a new and emerging area of technology in which Ford has been investing significantly.

10. Besides securing engineering services from BlackBerry in respect of this new technology, Ford was also seeking to in-source various services upon the conclusion of Project Silver. Under the parties’ contractual arrangements, BlackBerry agreed to permit Ford to make offers of employment to BlackBerry employees working on Project Silver, and to facilitate this, if Ford chose in its sole discretion to do so.

11. There were many BlackBerry employees working on Project Silver during the period late 2016 until the end of February 2017. It is not uncommon for employees to work on a number of different projects or team assignments during their employment at BlackBerry, and within Mobility Solutions – Project Silver was one such project. Prior to Project Silver, Mr. Parker himself had previously moved between teams within Mobility Solutions.

12. The employees working on Project Silver had varying job functions, roles and seniority. The majority of the class members worked in software-related roles (job functions that would be a continuing focus of Mobility Solutions and BlackBerry going forward), while a small minority had worked in hardware-related roles (the area of the business from which Mobility Solutions was shifting away). Most of the employees that worked on hardware design and development were in the United States, and are not class members.

The Ford Employment Offer Process and Communications with Employees

13. The process leading up to Ford making offers of employment to the class members, and their consideration of those offers, is outlined below. While Mr. Parker highlights in his amended statement of claim a small number of communications or meetings during the process that involved most of the class members, the process through which employees received and considered their employment offers from Ford was largely an individual one involving individual communications. Employees had individual discussions with BlackBerry human resource representatives and/or their BlackBerry manager in respect of their own and differing employment situations and options, prior to deciding whether to accept their Ford offers. They also had discussions with Ford representatives about their offers and the opportunity at Ford. These discussions were in the context of, and for purposes of, the employees considering and weighing their options – which considerations and weighing differed markedly among employees – and deciding whether to accept their Ford job offer.

Communications with employees prior to receiving their offers from Ford

14. At a “town hall” meeting with Mobility Solutions employees in early December 2016, the chief operating officer of BlackBerry described the ongoing shift in focus of Mobility Solutions toward software development and licensing, including the Project Silver engineering services for Ford. The following day, representatives of Ford and BlackBerry jointly held another meeting for Project Silver employees, at which Ford announced that it intended to make offers of employment to various employees in January 2017.

15. In the weeks following these meetings, many employees followed up individually with BlackBerry human resources representatives as well as their managers to discuss the Ford opportunity and their employment situation. Some employees specifically sought to clarify that the Ford opportunity would be an offer of employment they could decline if they chose to (i.e. that it was not a mandatory transfer, as Mr. Parker alleges in his amended statement of claim). In response BlackBerry confirmed that, if employees received an offer from Ford, it would be their choice whether to accept it or not. If they chose to decline it, they would remain BlackBerry employees and BlackBerry would take steps to place them on another project or team after the conclusion of Project Silver (with their employment rights against BlackBerry preserved in this scenario).

16. BlackBerry expressly denies the characterizations in paragraphs 18-22 of the amended statement of claim of the individual discussions Mr. Parker had with BlackBerry representatives in this period. While BlackBerry’s chief operating officer informed Mr. Parker that not all activities in Mobility Solutions would continue in the future after the shift to software licensing was completed, he specifically confirmed for Mr. Parker that if he received an offer from Ford and chose to decline it, he would remain a BlackBerry employee and BlackBerry would endeavour to match his skillset with the ongoing activities in the software licensing team going forward.

17. Contrary to the characterizations in paragraphs 23-26 of the amended statement of claim, on January 6, 2017, BlackBerry’s chief executive officer sent an email to all Mobility Solutions employees, a group which included many employees who were not working on Project Silver (and/or were working in the United States) and who are not class members. In that email he broadly discussed the shift in focus within Mobility Solutions. He referred to the opportunities for employees at Ford (and also at a different company to which hardware development was being outsourced) as an “an alternative employment option”. He further stated that for those employees who do not receive an offer from Ford (or from the other company), or who chose to decline an offer, BlackBerry “will evaluate internal opportunities to redeploy you within BlackBerry as much as possible.” The email encouraged employees to speak with their manager or human resources representative if they had questions.

The employment offers from Ford

18. In January 2017, representatives from Ford were on-site at BlackBerry’s offices to present individual offers of employment to most, though not all, of the Project Silver employees included in the class.

19. Ford decided in its sole discretion to which Project Silver employees it would offer employment and what the terms of those offers were. Ford presented its offers at individual meetings with employees. Each employee who received an offer discussed their offer and their employment opportunity with Ford.

20. No BlackBerry representative attended these meetings between employees and Ford. BlackBerry was not privy to the terms of Ford’s offers or to the discussions between Ford and the employees.

21. BlackBerry understands Ford gave each employee at least a week to decide whether to accept their offer.

Communications with employees while they were considering their offers

22. During the time while employees were considering their offers, BlackBerry human resources representatives and employees’ managers met and spoke extensively with employees individually, to answer questions from them and to discuss their employment situation and options. These discussions differed among employees, as each employee was focused on his/her own employment situation, the terms of the offer each had received from Ford, and the factors he/she was taking into account in considering Ford's offer.

23. In many cases employees' reactions to Ford's offers were very positive, including because it was an opportunity to work on new cutting edge technology at a strong company, and because employees indicated that Ford was offering signing bonuses and increased compensation compared to the compensation BlackBerry was paying. Mr. Parker has now confirmed that Ford offered him a salary that was higher than his BlackBerry salary and also a $33,000 signing bonus.

24. During these discussions, BlackBerry reiterated that it was the employee's choice whether to accept Ford's offer. If they chose to decline it they would remain a BlackBerry employee, and BlackBerry would take steps in an effort to place them in a comparable role on another team or project after the completion of Project Silver. There were many roles on other projects and teams to be filled going forward. If employees asked human resources representatives about specific roles or projects that would be available for them after the conclusion of Project Silver (which could not be definitely determined at that point), they were encouraged to speak individually with the appropriate managers, and many employees did so.

25. Some employees specifically asked what would occur in the event they chose to decline Ford's offer and subsequently could not be placed on another project to team in a comparable role after the conclusion of Project Silver. They were told that BlackBerry would do everything possible to find a comparable role for them at that time (as there was no intention to terminate them), but if that ultimately turned out not to be possible, then their employment might need to be terminated. If that occurred they would receive the termination pay to which they were entitled in that scenario. All of their existing employment rights vis-à-vis BlackBerry would be preserved if they chose to turn down their Ford offer and remain at BlackBerry. In the technology industry, including at BlackBerry, some uncertainty as to future prospects and job security is an ongoing reality for employees.

26. Many employees did not ask about their options for remaining at BlackBerry, or what might occur in the future if they declined their Ford offer, as they were excited about the employment opportunity at Ford and happy with the terms of their Ford offer. Upon receiving their Ford offer many employees quickly decided that they wanted to accept it, rather than stay at BlackBerry.

27. Contrary to the allegations in the amended statement of claim (including at paragraphs 32 and 47), the employees each understood from the various communications and individual discussions that took place with BlackBerry representatives that:

- (i) their Ford offer was an offer of new employment at Ford, not a mandatory transfer of employment;
- (ii) it was the employee's choice whether to accept the Ford offer and leave BlackBerry's employ or not; and
- (iii) if they chose to decline the offer, they would remain a BlackBerry employee (with all of their existing employment rights) and BlackBerry would take steps to place them in a comparable role on another project or team at the conclusion of Project Silver.

The Acceptance of Offers by Employees and Subsequent Resignation Letters

28. The employees who each decided to accept their employment offer from Ford are the class members. They communicated their acceptances to Ford. Their reasons for accepting their offer differed from employee to employee, including based on their own view of the attractiveness of the Ford opportunity and offer, and their own weighing of their options and other individual considerations. They each found the opportunity at Ford and the terms of their Ford offer sufficiently attractive to accept it.

29. At the end of January 2017 – in respect of those employees who had received an offer earlier that month – Ford informed BlackBerry of the list of employees that had chosen to accept their Ford job offer.

30. After receiving that notification from Ford, BlackBerry human resources personnel sent an email in early February 2017 to those employees it understood had accepted Ford's offer, asking for written confirmation from the employees that they had decided to resign from BlackBerry's employ in order to work at Ford, and to confirm the date they would be leaving BlackBerry. Prior to receiving this email, employees were aware that if they decided to leave

BlackBerry's employ, it would mean they were resigning from BlackBerry. Some employees had specifically clarified and confirmed this point before they accepted their offers from Ford.

31. Although Mr. Parker himself did not do so, the majority of employees who accepted Ford's job offer subsequently submitted a resignation notice or letter to BlackBerry, expressly confirming that they were resigning from BlackBerry's employ effective February 28, 2017.

32. Various other employees did not submit an express resignation letter or notice, and were simply silent in response to the request referred to at paragraph 30 above.

33. A relatively small number of other employees – including Mr. Parker – did not provide express resignation letters or notices, but instead engaged in individual communications with BlackBerry representatives in which they raised concerns. BlackBerry responded to those employees individually.

34. After Mr. Parker had accepted his offer of employment from Ford, but while he was still employed by BlackBerry, he raised an issue with his BlackBerry human resources representative regarding wrongful termination. The human resources representative indicated to him that he had not been, and was not being, terminated by BlackBerry. Further communications then ensued between Mr. Parker and BlackBerry. BlackBerry specifically indicated that it had available roles at the same level matching Mr. Parker's skillset, and that human resources would work with him to find a suitable role if he preferred to stay at BlackBerry. In response, Mr. Parker did not in fact indicate that he wanted to remain a BlackBerry employee.

35. Mr. Parker and the other class members all left BlackBerry's employ on February 28, 2017 and started working at Ford the next day under the terms of the agreements they had entered into with Ford. They did so after BlackBerry had indicated it understood they were resigning and accepted their resignations.

Different Process and Timing for Various Class Members

36. Some class member employees followed a somewhat different process or timing than above in respect of obtaining and accepting an employment offer from Ford.

37. Certain employees took proactive steps to pursue obtaining an offer from Ford (the full particulars of which are known to the employees, not BlackBerry). Some class members were either not working on Project Silver in January 2017 or did not receive offers initially from Ford.

38. Certain class members only started to work for BlackBerry at the end of January or in early February 2017. Some were only added to Project Silver in February 2017. These employees received employment offers from Ford in February 2017, after most or all of the alleged communications from BlackBerry on which Mr. Parker relies in his amended statement of claim had already taken place.

39. Certain class members were on maternity leave for all or part of the period between December 2016 and February 2017, resulting in them receiving information in a different manner, including not attending the town hall meetings or being part of other alleged communications on which Mr. Parker relies.

40. Like the other class members, these employees all left BlackBerry on February 28, 2017, after BlackBerry confirmed that it understood they were resigning and accepted their resignations.

The Employees Who Declined Ford's Offer Remained Employed by BlackBerry

41. A number of BlackBerry employees working on Project Silver – who went through the same Ford job offer process and were subject to the same BlackBerry communications and other conduct and circumstances Mr. Parker alleges amounted to a wrongful termination – in fact decided to decline their Ford job offers and they remained BlackBerry employees. There was no cessation or termination of their employment.

42. In particular, there were seven such employees who received offers from Ford in January 2017. They were in the same position and went through the same process as Mr. Parker and other class members, and were subject to the same factual circumstances alleged in the amended statement claim, but they made a different decision in respect of their offers than other employees. In light of the various communications from BlackBerry (including the communications to which Mr. Parker refers), they each understood they could choose to remain at BlackBerry – i.e. they were not being terminated – and they in fact did so.

- 10 -

43. At the conclusion of Project Silver these employees were each placed on another project or team, in comparable roles, and they subsequently continued their employment.

There Was No Wrongful Dismissal by BlackBerry

44. Contrary to the allegations in paragraphs 54-55 of the amended statement of claim, BlackBerry did not wrongfully terminate Mr. Parker's or other class members' employment. BlackBerry did not intend to, nor did it at law, terminate the employment of these employees. Rather, the employees individually decided to accept Ford's employment offer and leave BlackBerry's employ, and thus resign from BlackBerry.

45. As stated, the employees each made their own decision to accept Ford's offer based on their own circumstances and considerations. They did so voluntarily and with the intention of leaving BlackBerry's employ in order to work at Ford. Accordingly, it was the employees that decided to end their employment at BlackBerry.

46. The majority of the employees expressly confirmed their intention to resign by submitting resignation notices or letters to BlackBerry. In any event, all of the class members had made the decision to accept Ford's offer and leave BlackBerry.

47. BlackBerry expressly denies Mr. Parker's allegations that his own decision to accept his Ford offer was not voluntary, or that other class members did not make a voluntary decision. In fact, during the course of the certification proceedings, a number of employees expressly confirmed in testimony that they voluntarily chose to resign and understood they were not being terminated by BlackBerry.

48. Prior to them leaving its employ, BlackBerry expressly notified each of the class members that it acknowledged and accepted their resignations.

49. The employees carried out their resignations by leaving BlackBerry's employ on February 28, 2017 and commencing employment at Ford on March 1, 2017.

50. Therefore, given that the employees made the decision to resign from their BlackBerry employment to work at Ford, and BlackBerry accepted their resignation, there was no wrongful dismissal of them. At no time did BlackBerry intend to terminate their employment, let alone notify them that they were being terminated. In fact, BlackBerry confirmed the opposite. Permitting Ford to make offers of employment (and facilitating that process) cannot at law amount to a termination by BlackBerry, as Mr. Parker seems to allege.

51. Also, two of the Project Silver employees who received and accepted employment offers from Ford brought applications to the Ministry of Labour making allegations and claims like those of Mr. Parker in the amended statement of claim. The Ministry considered their circumstances, including the communications they had with BlackBerry about their employment situation and options. The Ministry concluded that both of these employees knew they had the choice to stay at BlackBerry, and in accepting their Ford job offer they were resigning. There was no termination or wrongful termination by BlackBerry at law, and their applications were dismissed.

No Entitlement to Damages

52. Since BlackBerry did not wrongfully terminate the employment of Mr. Parker or other class members, they are not entitled to damages in the form of statutory, contractual or common law notice, severance pay, or any other amounts.

53. In the alternative, the damages claimed are excessive and to the extent any employees would have been entitled to reasonable notice at common law, those employees mitigated any such alleged damages by virtue of working at Ford during the notice period earning compensation at a level at least as high as (if not higher than) the compensation they would have earned at BlackBerry during the notice period. In respect of other employees, any damages entitlement (which is expressly denied) would be limited to the minimum statutory amounts or contractual amounts, as applicable.

54. There is no tenable basis for Mr. Parker's claims for bad faith or punitive damages. BlackBerry acted in good faith throughout, and there was no independent actionable wrong or conduct to justify any punitive damages award. Rather, BlackBerry's conduct and the arrangements with Ford resulted in class members being given an alternative employment opportunity and offer at Ford, while preserving all of the employees existing employment rights vis-à-vis BlackBerry if they chose to decline Ford's offer.

- 12 -

55. In other words, the employees' terms of employment with BlackBerry were not altered and the employees' existing rights were not compromised by virtue of Ford making an offer. If the offer Ford offer was attractive, employees were free to accept it. If not, they were free to decline it, and if they did so they would be in exactly the same employment situation at BlackBerry as before they received the offer, with all of their existing contractual and common law employment rights preserved. This would include the right to receive notice and/or severance in the event BlackBerry subsequently decided at any point to terminate their employment. Contrary to the allegations in the amended statement of claim, there was nothing high-handed, oppressive or malicious about this.

56. For all of the reasons above, BlackBerry asks that this action be dismissed with costs.

SUPERIOR COURT OF JUSTICE

HEARD: April 29, 30 and May 1, 2019

Proceeding Under the Class Proceedings Act, 1992

CHARBONNEAU, J.

[2] The theory of the plaintiff is that BlackBerry needed to lay off a significant number of employees and wanted to avoid paying them their statutory, contractual and common law entitlements on termination.

[3] BlackBerry had been moving away from production of smart phones and was concentrating on production of software material. Ford was one of BlackBerry's clients. Ford was moving strongly into the domain of artificial intelligence and, in particular autonomous mobile systems, and was in need of qualified employees. BlackBerry had put together a team of engineers known as the "Silver Team". In the Fall of 2016, BlackBerry transferred nearly all its employees, which now form the proposed class (the "Class Employees"), to the Silver Team. The Silver Team would now work exclusively on engineering services for Ford in the aforementioned areas. The proposed class is defined as follows:

"All persons in Canada who were employees and/or defendant contractors BlackBerry Limited ("BlackBerry"), who worked for BlackBerry in Canada and who were offered and accepted employment with the Ford Motor Company of Canada ("Ford") between January 1, 2017 and April 30, 2017, while excluding BlackBerry employees who filed a complaint pursuant to section 96 of the Employment Standards Act, 2000 seeking termination pay and/or severance pay and did not withdraw that complaint within two weeks".

[4] BlackBerry and Ford entered into a written agreement whereby Ford would make offers of employment to the class employees. This was communicated to the class employees at two Town Hall meetings held on December 8 and 9, 2016. Subsequently, Ford made the offers. The class members were told by BlackBerry that if they refused Ford's offer, BlackBerry would make serious efforts to redeploy them in other tasks at BlackBerry but there was no guarantee that they would be employed. Ford told the class employees that if they accepted Ford's offer they would not be entitled to retain their seniority, or any benefits and entitlements that they had acquired during their years of service with BlackBerry.

[5] Nine employees, (the "managers") were hired by Ford in December 2016. They were immediately tasked to successfully bring about the transfer of the class members from BlackBerry to Ford. The proposed class members comprised all the BlackBerry employees who accepted an offer of employment from Ford after January 1, 2017.

The position of the parties

The plaintiff's position

The common issue

[6] The main common issue put forward by the plaintiff is: “Does BlackBerry’s conduct amount to a termination of the class Employees’ employment?” The other proposed common issues deal with calculation and quantum of damages should the trial judge find there was termination. There are three groups of employees for the calculation of damages namely those with a contractual formula to calculate entitlements, those entitled to statutory notice and severance and those who may be entitled to common laws damages. At a minimum each member would be entitled to Employment Standard Act benefits.

[7] The plaintiff submits that the court will only need to look at the scheme put in place by BlackBerry to find whether or not there was a termination by BlackBerry. No individual assessment will be required only the actions of BlackBerry towards the class members between mid-2016 until they each received their respective offers from Ford.

[8] The plaintiff further submits that if BlackBerry terminated the class members’ employment then BlackBerry had to pay severance in one of the three ways mentioned above and the resolution of the common issue will significantly advance the litigation and would be a success for all on that issue. Moreover it will advance the three goals of the CPA namely access to justice, judicial economy and behavior modification.

The defendant’s position

[9] The defendant makes several submissions in an attempt to convince the Court that the proposed common issues relating to the damages issues do not meet common issues requirement on the basis that there would be a requirement for an individual assessment for each employee. However, class proceedings with remaining individual damages issues are often certified. Moreover, the determination for damages for each of the three types of severance entitlement will be a relatively easy task. The proposed common issues are common to one or other severance group and in some cases common to all three. Their resolution will advance significantly the litigation. Even if some individual finding might be required they do not overwhelm the common aspect of each and every issue.

[10] The defendant also submits that the class definition does not meet class proceedings standard. I disagree. All class members are easily identifiable and success of the common issue relative to termination will be success for all of these individuals. The class definition is not too narrow because it excludes the nine managers in view of their particular position. Similarly the excluded employees who sought relief under the ESA are excluded for good juristic reason.

[11] The defendant's main objection to certification is that the threshold common issue cannot be decided as a common issue.

[12] The defendant submits that once the Ford's offer was in each individual's hands, he or she had an option to either resign from BlackBerry or accept the offer. The defendant points to evidence from employees who chose to stay with BlackBerry and evidence from employees who chose to accept Ford's offer and say they were very happy with Ford's offer and knew they had to resign. Different individuals had different reasons to choose to accept the offer and resign or stay with BlackBerry according to the defendant. Different individuals took different steps to find out the best information available in order to make their own decision.

[13] In support of its position the defendant has filed affidavits of individuals who have accepted Ford's offer or who have remained with BlackBerry for their own individual reasons. Therefore in each case, the defendant submits, the trial judge will have to decide whether there was resignation or termination for that particular employee. There is therefore no communality between the members of the class and the proposed threshold common issue.

Analysis

[14] As I have already indicated, I reject the defendant's objection to certification based on an improper class definition or the individual aspects of the damages issues.

[15] The defendant is right that if a distinct determination for each individual employee must be made on the threshold issue the action cannot be certified. However, the defendant's characterization of the proposed threshold issue has necessarily being one of termination versus resignation disregards the theory of the plaintiff's action. The plaintiff's theory is that BlackBerry devised an elaborate scheme to terminate the class employees without having to pay them their severance entitlements. There is some basis in fact supporting this theory. There is evidence which supports the existence of the following facts:

1. The need of BlackBerry to reduce its work force.
2. The need of Ford for specialized employees in the area of AI and autonomous mobility and Ford's willingness to take on more employees in that field.
3. The fact that BlackBerry set up a special team to handle Ford's needs which team was then offered a job by Ford.
4. The elaborate written agreement between Ford and BlackBerry showing extensive planning and coordination.
5. The elaborate control of the message to the affected group of individuals.
6. The clear benefit to BlackBerry of proceeding in this fashion.
7. The fact BlackBerry divulged the details of each employees' human resources' file to Ford without the employees' knowledge.

[16] Although difficult to prove, the theory of the plaintiff is not without merit. It cannot be said that the plaintiff will definitely lose this action on the basis of wrongful dismissal if the trial judge finds BlackBerry deliberately carried out a scheme allowing it to terminate the employees without having to pay them severance.

[17] It must be remembered that the merits of the action are not an issue as long as there is a viable cause of action. The fact that the plaintiff may have difficulty finding success at trial is not an issue. The threshold liability issue is clearly one that should be determined in a common trial.

[18] An action in Superior Court of Justice is definitely the preferred procedure to decide this wrongful dismissal claim both on the issue of liability and damages. In fact, I cannot think of any other forum which could properly handle all the facets of the issues of this action.

[19] I am satisfied that Mr. Parker is an appropriate representative plaintiff. The litigation plan will have to be better particularized but that will be done during case conferences to follow certification as is often the case.

[20] For all of these reasons, I find that the plaintiff has satisfied the five criteria of s.5 of the Class Proceedings Act.

[21] Order accordingly.

[22] Counsel for the plaintiff may deliver brief written submissions on costs, within 20 days.

Defendants may provide a brief response within 15 days thereafter.

ENDORSEMENT ON COSTS

[1] I now have had the opportunity of reviewing all the written submissions of counsel on the issue of costs.

[2] I agree with defence counsel that there is no facts which would justify awarding substantial indemnity costs.

[3] I fix a reasonable rate for partial indemnity at 66% of actual rate which I am of the view is the typical rate applicable in class action proceedings.

[4] I disagree with counsel that cost of the refusal motion should await the final determination of the action. That was certainly not my intention. I regret not being sufficiently clear. I am of the view that the refusal motion was inextricably linked to the certification motion and that they can be claimed at this time.

[5] Although it is true that the plaintiff amended the class definition on a number of occasions this is not an extraordinary occurrence in class action proceedings. The change was necessary to bring forward the motion in answer to the preliminary objections of the defendant. There is nothing unreasonable in the way the plaintiff proceeded. The defendant is not entitled to an award of costs thrown away nor should the plaintiff be penalized by a reduction of costs for these necessary steps.

[6] Although I do not find that the amount of hours to be necessarily excessive, I am of the view that the number of individuals working on the file to be overkill.

[7] The matter was certainly very important for the plaintiff and the class members. The number of hours spent was certainly substantially increased by the fact that the defendant objected to all section 5 factors except the existence of a cause of action.

[8] The cost outlines of both parties certainly provides a very good picture of what are reasonable costs and what the defendant could reasonably anticipate having to pay if unsuccessful. The defendants contemplated their partial indemnity fees to be $165,000.00 excluding the costs involving the refusal motion and the submissions on costs. The amount of $227,000.00 including the recusal motion and costs submissions is certainly comparable.

[9] For all of these reasons I fix the costs of the certification motion (including the recusal motion) payable by the defendant to the plaintiff at $220,000.00 all inclusive and payable within thirty (30) days.

ORDER

WHEREAS the Court certified this action as a class action pursuant to section 5 of the Class Proceedings Act by the Order of the Justice Charbonneau, dated May 27, 2019;

WHEREAS the Parties sought clarifying direction from the Court by way of a case conference on May 22, 2020 regarding the list of certified common issues in this proceeding;

WHEREAS the Court provided clarification as to the list of certified common issues in this proceeding as follows:

1. THIS COURT ORDERS THAT the common issues for this class proceeding are:
 - 1) Does BlackBerry's conduct amount to a termination of the Class Employees' employment?
 - 2) If Blackberry's conduct amounts to a termination of employment, what is the date of termination for the purposes of calculating notice requirements?
 - 3) Are the employees entitled to general and/or punitive damages for BlackBerry's conduct?
 - 4) If the employees are entitled to punitive damages, what is the appropriate quantum of punitive damages?

AFFIDAVIT OF DOCUMENTS OF THE DEFENDANT, BLACKBERRY LIMITED

I, Lindsay Skyers, of the City of Kitchener, in the Province of Ontario, MAKE OATH
AND SAY:

1. I am Business Affairs Manager, Litigation at BlackBerry Limited (“BlackBerry”), the defendant, which is a corporation.
2. I have overseen the conduct of a diligent search of the corporation’s records and made appropriate enquiries of others to inform myself in order to make this affidavit. This affidavit discloses, to the full extent of my knowledge, information and belief, all documents relevant to any matter in issue in this action that are or have been in the possession, control or power of BlackBerry.
3. I have listed in Schedule “A” those documents that are in the possession, control or power of the corporation and that it does not object to producing for inspection. The descriptions of the documents listed in Schedule “A” have been generated electronically from metadata.

4. I have listed in Schedule “B” those documents that are or were in the possession, control or power of the corporation and that it objects to producing because it claims they are privileged, and I have stated in Schedule “B” the grounds for each such claim.

5. I have listed in Schedule “C” those documents that were formerly in the possession, control or power of the corporation but are no longer in its possession, control or power, and I have stated in Schedule “C” when and how it lost possession or control of or power over them and their present location.

6. The corporation has never had in its possession, control or power any document relevant to any matter in issue in this action other than those listed in Schedules “A”, “B” and “C”.

SWORN BEFORE ME remotely by Lindsay Skyers at the City of Kitchener, in the Province of Ontario, by video conference to the City of Toronto, in the Province of Ontario, on April 6, 2021 in accordance with O. Reg. 431/20, Administering Oath or Declaration Remotely.

LAWYER'S CERTIFICATE

I CERTIFY that I have explained to the deponent,

- (a) the necessity of making full disclosure of all documents relevant to any matter in issue in the action;
- (b) what kinds of documents are likely to be relevant to the allegations made in the Pleadings; and
- (c) if the action is brought under the simplified procedure, the necessity of providing the list required under rule 76.03.

ORDER

THIS MOTION is made by the parties jointly and on consent, for an order approving the confidentiality protocol agreed upon by the parties.

ON READING the joint letter on behalf of the parties dated April 20, 2021, submitting the confidentiality protocol agreed to by the parties, and on being informed of the parties' consent,

1. THIS COURT ORDERS that the confidentiality protocol attached as Schedule

Michel Z Charbonneau
(Signature of Judge)

Honourable Justice Charbonneau

Schedule “A”

CONFIDENTIALITY PROTOCOL

1. Each party will produce to the other side documents that it considers confidential with the words “Confidential Information” stamped on the face of the document (or collection of documents):
 - (a) As an example, because BlackBerry must produce all the class members’ employment contracts and certain other employment documents containing various information about the employee, the parties agree that such documents should be treated as being “Confidential Information”.
2. If only a portion of a document is considered “Confidential Information”, that portion may be produced with the relevant confidential portion highlighted
 - (a) Certain documents, such as resignation letters, contain irrelevant personal information, such as personal addresses, telephone numbers, email addresses, etc. BlackBerry will produce these documents with redactions implemented. BlackBerry will also produce a duplicate version of these documents, will equivalent document numbering, and without redactions, so that redactions may be checked if needed.
3. The parties will treat all documents stamped “Confidential Information” as confidential, subject to each party’s ability to argue that a document, or portion thereof, marked as “Confidential Information” is not and should not be treated as confidential. If the parties are not able to consensually resolve any such disagreement, the issue will be brought before the Court in the same manner as set out under item 6 below. The parties undertake that Confidential Information of the other party will not be disclosed to anyone other than (i) counsel, (ii) an instructing client, or (iii) anyone else who is required to see it in order to give evidence in response to it. In connection with disclosing Confidential Information to anyone in categories (ii) and (iii) counsel will obtain an express undertaking from that person to not disclose the Confidential Information to anyone else and to not use it for any purpose other than providing instructions or giving evidence in this proceeding. At the certification stage, the plaintiff indicated that the four plaintiff’s affiants were their instructing client group, and that remains the case.
4. After documentary production, either party may designate additional Confidential Information in the documentary productions. If this occurs, the party designating additional Confidential Information shall do so by written notice.
5. The parties agree that if one of the parties proposes to place Confidential Information in the public record in any manner (including in a motion record or at a hearing) it shall first give notice to the other party and confer in good faith with that party to determine whether the information that is asserted to be Confidential Information can be redacted in the version of the document that is to be publicly filed, or how to otherwise ensure that confidentiality is protected.

6. If no agreement on redaction for the public record, or on other appropriate confidentiality protections, can be reached, then:
 - (a) The party who seeks to rely on the document may file a redacted version of that document in the public record that redacts the information that the party who made the designation asserts is Confidential Information; and
 - (b) The parties will seek a case conference to address the issue, and if need be a motion can be brought to determine the confidentiality issue.
7. For clarity, any sections of affidavits or transcripts referring to Confidential Information shall also be treated as Confidential Information. This is again subject to each party's ability to argue the deemed confidential nature of the documents as per paragraph 3 above.
8. Each party will bear the cost of implementing its own proposed redactions.
9. At the conclusion of the case, copies of documents containing Confidential Information shall be destroyed or returned by the party who has received them.

ORDER

WHEREAS the Plaintiff brought a motion to conduct a second discovery examination, the Defendant brought a motion to conduct discovery examinations of various class members, and both parties brought discovery refusals motions;

AND WHEREAS the Plaintiff and the Defendant have resolved the motions on various agreed upon terms, and have requested that the terms be incorporated into a consent order;

ON BEING INFORMED of the consent of the parties,

1. THIS COURT ORDERS that the terms attached as Schedule 1 be confirmed as disposing of the parties' respective motions for further discovery examinations and motions on discovery refusals.

(Signature of judge, officer or registrar)

Schedule 1

David Parker v. Blackberry Limited, Court File No. 17-71659

Terms of Resolution of Discovery Motions (June 2023)

The parties have agreed to resolve the Plaintiff's motion for a second discovery examination and the Defendant's motion to examine for discovery various class members on the following terms:

1. BlackBerry will produce Ralph Pini as BlackBerry's discovery representative (pursuant to rule 31.03(2)(b)) for up to 1 day of examination by Zoom on the topic of the context, negotiation, structure and execution of the Ford-BlackBerry Agreement. For clarity, the Plaintiff is entitled to ask such questions as are relevant related to the Ford-BlackBerry Personnel, Premises and Asset Agreement (document 6735) and the other related agreements including for example, documents 6885, 6886, 6887, 6882, 6883, 6884. This examination will not cover topics that were covered and answered during the main discovery of BlackBerry that has already taken place. The portion of the resulting transcript that refers to the terms of the Ford-BlackBerry agreements will be treated as confidential, and the parties will further confer and address appropriate steps to maintain confidentiality.
2. The Plaintiff will also be permitted to ask up to 20 further written discovery questions of BlackBerry's chief executive officer, John Chen, subject to BlackBerry's right to refuse any questions based on its rights pursuant to the Rules of Civil Procedure. If there are any such refusals the parties cannot resolve, these can be addressed by the Court by way of a further motion attendance. These questions will not be the same as questions that can be asked at the examination of Mr. Pini above (i.e. they will not cover the same ground as the examination above) nor will they be questions that were already asked on the main examination of BlackBerry that has already taken place (the examination of Ms. Graham in May 2022), unless either Mr. Pini or Ms. Graham were or are unable to answer the question asked or did not have knowledge of the issue. To be clear, this restriction in no way restricts the Plaintiff from asking any questions about documents that Mr. Chen either sent or received, or his own role in the negotiation, structure or execution of the Ford-BlackBerry Agreement.
3. BlackBerry will be permitted to conduct discovery examinations by Zoom, up to 75 minutes each, of the following class members: (i) Graham Eaves; (ii) Monica Soliguin; (iii) Iain Bantilan; (iv) Oscar Viana; and (v) Alan Geue. While the Plaintiff is permitting these examinations, it does not agree that any of the content of these examinations is either relevant or admissible as part of a common issues trial and is permitting the examination on a without prejudice basis to that position. And it is understood BlackBerry maintains its position that these examinations are relevant and admissible. The Parties agree that any issues related to the admissibility and relevance of these examinations will be determined by the Trial Judge.

4. BlackBerry will agree to answer the written cross-examination questions on the Affidavit of Shoshana Israel, sworn April 12, 2023, at least two weeks before it examines any additional class member. The written cross-examination questions are attached hereto as Appendix A.
5. Without prejudice to its position on relevance, BlackBerry will agree to answer question 3 in the Plaintiff's Refusal Motion Chart, in respect of Ms. Soliguin, and produce the maternity/parental leave policy that Ms. Soliguin would have been subject to at the time she received her Ford offer at least two weeks prior to its examination of Ms. Soliguin. Mr. Parker has retained the right to ask follow-up questions regarding this policy, subject to BlackBerry's ability to object as per usual.
6. Without prejudice to its position on relevance, BlackBerry will also agree to answer questions 4 and 11 (but only with respect to Mr. Chen and Mr. Pini's calendars, and specifically BlackBerry will produce any calendar entries in Mssrs. Pini's and Chen's calendars showing calls or meetings with Ford during the negotiation of the Ford-BlackBerry Agreement) in the Plaintiff's Refusal Motion Chart at least two weeks prior to the examination of Mr. Pini.
7. All examinations will occur by August 31, 2023.

The parties have agreed to resolve their respective discovery refusals motions on the following terms.

In respect of the Plaintiff's motion: in addition to the refusals referred to above that the Defendant has agreed to answer, and without prejudice to its position as to the relevance, the Defendant will answer the following questions in the Plaintiff's Refusal Motion Chart (as the question is framed in the chart or with the modifications noted below):

1. Question 1.
2. In respect of Question 2 – BlackBerry will provide additional information as to the organizational structure of the Mobility Solutions business unit as of March 2017 (information as to how the business unit was structured, including what the various divisions or employee groups were within the business unit, and the number of positions and, to the extent it can reasonably be determined, the number of vacant positions).
3. In respect of Question 5 – Besides the HR weekly reports that have already been produced in response to other questions (relating to the class members), BlackBerry will confirm that there are no other such relevant reports that were sent to Ms. White-Ivy or Mr. Chen.

4. In respect of Question 6 – BlackBerry will advise of the reasons why Mr. Racz was put in the position of lead of Project Silver, and will make reasonable enquiries to produce any communications about him being put in that position.
5. In respect of Question 9 – BlackBerry will make reasonable enquiries and advise if it received a copy of Ford's Agreement with the government(s) entered into on March 31, 2017, and will advise if Ford's proposed agreement with the government(s) was discussed with BlackBerry during the negotiations of the Ford-BlackBerry Agreement (and if so, BlackBerry will provide a summary of such discussion, and any non-privileged documents/e-mails touching on such discussion (redacted as need be for relevance in respect of other topics), including an unredacted copy of the Agreement if BlackBerry has one, subject to the parties addressing confidentiality issues in respect of any such production of the Agreement).
6. In respect of Question 11 – In respect of the calendar of Ms. White-Ivy: BlackBerry will produce any calendar entries that indicate they relate to Project Silver, to the discussions with Ford or to the class members' job offer process, and any calendar entries that reflect any calls or meetings she had with Ford. BlackBerry will confirm that it does not currently have access to the calendar of Dr. Chennakeshu for the time period in question - and if it does have access, it will produce any entries showing calls or meetings with Ford during the negotiation of the —Ford-BlackBerry Agreement.
7. In respect of Question 12 – BlackBerry is not providing a further answer to this question (beyond the answer already provided in response to the motion on this question), but this is without prejudice to plaintiff's counsel being able to ask written question(s) of Mr. Chen regarding his January 6, 2017 email that was sent to the Mobility Solutions employees (as per the terms of the resolution of the additional examinations motion further above);
8. In respect of Question 13 – This will be answered, but subject to privilege (privileged communications will not be produced).
9. Question 15.
10. In respect of Question 16 – This question will be answered, but subject to privilege (and BlackBerry will advise if the concern that is referred to in the question was based on legal advice).

Any documents that BlackBerry does not produce for reasons of privilege, in respect of the above questions, will be included in its Schedule B if not already included.

The remaining questions in the Plaintiff's Refusal Motion Chart are abandoned.

In respect of the Defendant's motion: without prejudice to his position on relevance, the Plaintiff will answer the following questions from the Defendant's Refusal Motion Chart (as the question is framed in the chart or with the modifications noted below):

1. In respect of Questions 1 and 3 – To confirm that Mr. Parker has no evidence about what discussions happened between BlackBerry and Ford regarding what compensation terms Ford should offer (besides what is in the emails in the productions and besides what Mr. Parker has already provided during his examination). If he has any such evidence, to advise.
2. In respect of Question 4 – Mr. Parker will answer the following question: Is it Mr. Parker's position that if a BlackBerry employee asked question 8 found on this December 16, 2016 FAQ (BlackBerry Production BB-00001176), he expected BlackBerry HR to answer in accordance with the FAQ?
3. In respect of Question 5 – In respect of BlackBerry Production BB-00001185, and any other versions of same: To the extent Mr. Parker is going to be relying in any way on this document as part of his case going forward, and at trial, to identify or indicate with particularity in what way he is relying on it and what information in it he is relying on. And to confirm that Mr. Parker does not know what is meant by "Extinction Event" in this document (or if he does know, to advise).
4. In respect of Question 7 – Mr. Parker will advise if he is currently aware of any instances of BlackBerry sharing medical, disability or disciplinary history information with Ford in respect of any employees (other than any examples he has already mentioned in his initial answer), and if Mr. Parker subsequently becomes aware of any other instances he will advise of those instances and indicate what documents he is relying on in respect of them at least 2 months before trial.

The remaining questions in the Defendant's Refusal Motion Chart are abandoned.

Appendix A: Questions on Written Cross-Examination

1. Has any BlackBerry representative had any discussion or written communication with Graham Eaves, Monica Soliguin, Iain (Artemius) Bantilan, Oscar Viana, Alan Geue, and/or Danny Yang regarding issues relevant to this litigation since the Notice of Action was filed on February 15, 2017?
 - a. If so, produce any non-privileged written communications or documents to the extent they have not yet been produced and provide a written summary of any verbal discussions. In the event BlackBerry asserts privilege over any such relevant communications, these privileged documents will be listed in a Schedule B, pursuant to the Rules of Civil Procedure.
2. To confirm whether BlackBerry has produced all relevant, non-privileged documents in BlackBerry's possession relating to Graham Eaves, Monica Soliguin, Iain (Artemius) Bantilan, Oscar Viana, Alan Geue, and/or Danny Yang.
 - a. If BlackBerry has relevant, non privileged documents in BlackBerry's possession relating to the above-noted class members that have not yet been produced, to produce those documents. Any privileged documents will be listed in a Schedule B, pursuant to the Rules of Civil Procedure.

Proceeding under the Class Proceedings Act, 1992, S.O. 1992, c. 6 as amended

RE: David Parker, Plaintiff

AND:

Blackberry Limited, Defendant

BEFORE: C. MacLeod RSJ

COUNSEL: Janice Payne, Andrew Montague-Reinholdt, Karine Dion & Rhian Foley,
for the Plaintiff

Arlen Sternberg, Colette Koopman & Ryan Lax for the Defendant

HEARD: May 1, 2024

NOTE

There is a Confidentiality and Sealing Order in place in this action and certain portions of the motion took place in camera. This Decision may not be published without agreement of the parties or further order of the Court.

DECISION AND REASONS

[1] This was a Discovery Motion scheduled before me and argued on May 1, 2024. It takes place in the context of this certified class proceeding. The Motion deals with issues that have arisen between the parties during the discoveries leading up to the common issues trial.

[2] The background to the litigation is an agreement between Blackberry Limited and Ford Motor Company to support the development of software and architecture for autonomous vehicles. Ford wished to bring engineering expertise in house and as part of the agreement between Blackberry and Ford, Ford was permitted to make employment offers to employees of Blackberry who were working on this project.

[3] The agreement was structured so that Ford was not acquiring Blackberry's business and employees accepting offers at Ford had to resign from Blackberry. The Plaintiff contends that Blackberry orchestrated this arrangement to deprive the employees of statutory severance to which they would have been entitled had Blackberry terminated their employment. In effect, the Plaintiff wishes the Court to decide that the employees were constructively dismissed and are entitled to damages.

[4] In the Certification Order made on June 1, 2020 the following are the issues to be tried at the common issues trial.

1. THIS COURT ORDERS THAT the common issues for this class proceeding are:

- 1) Does BlackBerry's conduct amount to a termination of the Class Employees' employment?
- 2) If BlackBerry's conduct amounts to a termination of employment, what is the date of termination for the purposes of calculating notice requirements?
- 3) Are the employees entitled to general and/or punitive damages for BlackBerry's conduct?
- 4) If the employees are entitled to punitive damages, what is the appropriate quantum of punitive damages?

[5] Pursuant to Rule 31.06, a person examined for discovery shall answer, to the best of his or her knowledge, "any proper question relevant to any matter in issue in the action" or any matter made discoverable by the Rules. Since the enactment of Rule 29.2 in 2008, discovery rights have been explicitly limited by considerations of proportionality, the existence of a discovery plan, the time limit set out in Rule 31.05.1 and any agreement or court order.

[6] In a class action, as in all actions, the scope of relevance is determined in the first instance by the pleadings, but it must also be measured against the certification order. In some cases, the certification order significantly narrows the issues to be tried.¹ As can be seen by the Order recited above, however, in this instance both liability and damages form part of the common issues trial.

[7] The central question is whether the employees were terminated. If they were terminated, it is apparent they would be entitled to statutory severance as part of any damages calculation. But the Plaintiffs also seek punitive damages based on the allegation that this was an orchestrated scheme to avoid paying those statutory entitlements. As such, the knowledge and intention of the officials at BlackBerry are relevant. It is notable, however, that no allegation of wrongdoing is made against Ford and Ford is not a party to the Action or the Motion.

[8] It is the contention of the Plaintiff is that the affected employees were moved by BlackBerry into "Project Silver" working on the Ford contract. They were not given a choice about this work assignment and were not told that Ford would be making employment offers. The Plaintiff then alleges that BlackBerry encouraged employees to accept the Ford offer while also indicating a vague possibility but no guarantee of continued employment with BlackBerry if they turned down that offer. Assuming the Plaintiff can successfully persuade the Court that on these facts the employees were effectively dismissed, the claim for punitive damages depends on showing that BlackBerry knowingly engaged in a scheme to illegally evade the requirements of the ESA.

The Refusals

[9] By agreement between the parties set out in a Consent Order, BlackBerry agreed to produce two individuals for discovery and also to respond to written questions. The questions which are the subject of this Motion and which have not been resolved were set out in an updated discovery chart.

[10] The questions in dispute relate primarily to the discussions and negotiations between Blackberry & Ford in the five months leading up to October 24, 2016, when the Ford-BlackBerry Agreement was finalized. In their factums, Blackberry agreed to answer Questions 9, 16 & 19.² The Plaintiff moved only on Refusals 1, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 12, 13, 17, 18, and 20.

[13] The Defendant argues that the further requests for background documents, notes and negotiations for agreements that are not related to the transfer of employees are not relevant to the core issues in dispute and are overly broad and disproportionate. They also object that these refusals largely relate to an earlier round of discoveries and that these refusals were not contested at that time. I agree with both of these submissions. The requests for further production of attachments and documents in Questions 3-8 are overly broad, overly intrusive, disproportionate, and late in the process.

[14] These questions need not be answered although that does not relieve Blackberry from the obligation to produce any notes or records they uncover that are relevant even if they are not in the PPA Agreement files. Blackberry is prepared to conduct a further search for any additional notes, records or correspondence relating to the PPA Agreement and will be directed to do so.

[16] Questions 17 & 18 relate to Blackberry sharing personal information of employees with Ford in order for Ford to determine to whom it would make employment offers. Although the final version of a spreadsheet has been produced, the Plaintiff is also looking for preliminary versions or drafts that were exchanged, when that information was provided and the extend to which identifying personal information was contained in the preliminary documents. These questions are relevant and are to be answered.

[17] Questions 1 raises a different kind of problem. The issue relates to certain documents produced pursuant to undertakings. These documents are “HRBP weekly reports” containing information about the Ford Blackberry arrangements, questions from employees and how Blackberry responded or proposed to respond. It is not disputed that this information is relevant. The problem is the heavily redacted nature of the documents that have been produced. The Plaintiff wishes unredacted copies of these documents.

[18] There is no general right to redact portions of otherwise relevant documents. The Courts have permitted partial redactions of documents when the redacted portions are severable, privileged or irrelevant highly sensitive information. In every case, the onus is on the party seeking the redaction to justify it.³ The evidence on this Motion is insufficient to demonstrate any basis for the redactions other than the bald assertion that what was redacted is irrelevant. Ordinarily that would end the matter and the Court would order production.

[19] In this case there was both a Discovery Plan and a Consent Production Order. The Discovery Plan contained the following:

Redactions

Each party may redact portions of relevant Documents to the extent that such portions contain information that is subject to privilege or is irrelevant, however, the grounds for each redaction must be identified. The parties agree that, if either party disagrees with the appropriateness of any redaction(s) made to a Document, the redaction(s) may be reviewed by way of motion to the Court.

[20] The consent was to produce HRPB weekly reports “to the extent they spoke to issues relevant to this litigation”. Of course, the latter is problematic if the parties disagree on the scope of relevance. It is also problematic if the redactions make the documents unreadable and there is no process to verify or challenge the appropriateness of the redactions.

[21] The parties have already agreed on confidentiality measures. I am confident that they can also agree on a procedure to verify that the redactions are appropriate and do not conceal information that is potentially relevant. If they cannot do so, and the matter must be resolved by court inspection of the unredacted documents, I will refer the question to an Associate Judge.

[22] Question 20 is relevant and is to be answered. The question arises because Blackberry contends that it had no knowledge of the precise nature of the Ford offers to the employees and no involvement in drafting those offers. There is evidence from one of the class members that a Blackberry manager not only had a copy of his employment offer from Ford but also edited the offer in Word format to make the offer more acceptable to the employee. If that is correct, it may be evidence that Blackberry managers played an active role in crafting the ultimate form of the Ford offers. The question required Mr. Pini to make inquiries to confirm whether or not Blackberry managers had access to the offers as suggested by Mr. Eaves. This question is to be answered.

³ See McGee v. London Life Insurance Co., 2010 ONSC 1408 @ paras. 8 - 21

Summary

[23] In conclusion, the Defendant is to answer Questions 12 -13, 17, 18 & 20 are to be answered. Questions 3 – 8 need not be answered. With regard to the redacted documents, counsel are to devise a procedure to satisfy the Plaintiff that the redactions are compliant with the production obligations, Consent Order and Discovery Plan. If they cannot agree, a motion may be brought to an Associate Judge to inspect the unredacted documents and rule on the matter.

Costs

[24] Success on the Motion was divided. There will be no order as to costs unless either counsel advises me by June 28th, 2024 that costs submissions are necessary.

RETAINER AGREEMENT

I HEREBY RETAIN and instruct Nelligan O'Brien Payne to advise me and to act on my behalf with respect to the possible termination of my employment from Blackberry/Research in Motion ("the Employer") and to commence legal action in the Superior Court of Justice, by way of Class Proceeding, against the Employer.

I ACKNOWLEDGE that Nelligan O'Brien Payne's fees will be calculated based on a base fee determined by reference to the time spent on this matter on my behalf, plus a multiplier, as determined and approved by the Superior Court of Justice. I understand, when determining a reasonable multiplier the Superior Court of Justice by way of past practice has considered such things as risk, complexity of the issues, the results obtained, urgency and other factors used in setting a reasonable fee. You have agreed to make your time records available to me for my review at any mutually convenient time if I have any question or concern about them. Disbursements will include such items as transcripts, court fees, actual travel costs, computerized legal research, word processing, facsimile charges and fees for counsel, agents and experts, photocopy charges and delivery charges.

I AGREE to provide a non-refundable, cash deposit of $500.00 immediately upon signing this Retainer Agreement. Legal fees and disbursements over and above any recovery of costs from the Employer will be shared pro rata by the class members based on the recovery of each. My deposit will be applied towards my share of the fees.

I UNDERSTAND that legal fees, including disbursements, beyond the initial cash retainer, shall only be payable in the event of recovery by way of the Class Proceeding. For the purposes of this agreement recovery is defined as the receipt of monies or benefits in any manner whatsoever including, but not limited to, settlement or Court Order, as a result of efforts made on my behalf by Nelligan O'Brien Payne. I understand recovery is limited to any monies or benefits received in excess of any written offer of settlement made by the Employer at the time of execution of this agreement.

I UNDERSTAND that the current hourly rate for Janice Payne is $600.00/hour, for Andrew Reinholdt is $235.00/hour, and for Karine Dion is $250.00/hour.

I AUTHORIZE you to use other lawyers, clerks and students as you deem appropriate at the established rates by your firm for their services. Rates may be varied annually, without notice. You will advise me of such hourly rates at my request.

I AUTHORIZE AND DIRECT you to receive any funds to which I may become entitled in connection with this matter and deposit them in your trust account. I authorize you to apply such funds to any of your outstanding unpaid accounts to me for fees and disbursements.

I MAY TERMINATE this retainer at any time and you may withdraw your services in appropriate circumstances upon notice to me, subject to any required court approval.

I HEREBY AGREE to share equally in the payment of any award of costs made against

DISTRIBUTION PROTOCOL

1. The Settlement Funds will be distributed to eligible Class Members taking into account their years of service with BlackBerry as of February 28th, 2017.
2. Eligible Class Members must meet the following criteria:
 - a. All persons in Canada who were employees and/or dependent contractors of BlackBerry Limited (“BlackBerry”), who worked for BlackBerry in Canada, and who were offered and accepted employment with the Ford Motor Company of Canada (“Ford”) between January 1, 2017 and April 30, 2017, while excluding BlackBerry employees who filed a complaint pursuant to section 96 of the Employment Standards Act, 2000 seeking termination pay and/or severance pay and did not withdraw that complaint within two weeks;
 - b. Who did not opt out of the Class Action; and
 - c. Who completed at least three months of service with BlackBerry.
3. The distribution of settlement funds is explained in Exhibit A below. Settlement funds will be paid in two installments.
4. Following the Court’s approval of the Settlement, Class Counsel will notify eligible Class Members of the approval of the Settlement by providing notice in accordance with the Court approved Notice Plan. Eligible Class Members must then complete a Claim Administration Form by December 31st, 2025 to confirm their length of service with BlackBerry and their contact details.
5. After December 31st, 2025, Class Counsel will commence the distribution of the First Installment payments by sending a cheque to each eligible Class Member, who completed a Claim Administration Form, representing their portion of the Settlement Funds.
6. Class Counsel will deliver a report to the Court by January 30th, 2026 confirming the following:
 - a. The number of Class Members who completed a Claim Administration Form and received the First Installment payment; and
 - b. The total amount distributed to Class Members.
7. Within 30 days of receiving the Claim Administration Forms from all Class Members, but no later than March 2nd, 2026 (or on such other date that the Court orders), Class Counsel shall send the Second Installment to Class Members via cheque.
8. Within 60 days following the final distribution of the Settlement Funds in accordance with the Distribution Protocol, Class Counsel will deliver a report to the Court confirming the following:
 - a. The number of Class Members who received funds from the Settlement Funds; and
 - b. The total amount distributed to Class Members.

Exhibit A: Settlement Fund Distribution

Under the proposed settlement, BlackBerry will pay CDN $4 million (the “Gross Settlement Funds”). The Gross Settlement Funds, plus any interest, and less court-approved legal fees, disbursements, honoraria for the four instructing Class Members, administration expenses, and applicable taxes, are available for compensation to eligible Class Members (“Net Settlement Funds”).

An honorarium is a sum of money payable to the four instructing Class Members to recognize the contributions they have made to advance this Class Action. Class Counsel will ask the Court to approve the following amounts as honoraria for the four instructing Class Members: $25,000.00 for the Representative Plaintiff and $15,000.00 for each of the three other instructing Class Members, totaling $70,000.00.

After the proposed allocation to legal fees ($1.9 million in legal fees, disbursements, and administrative costs for distributing the settlement funds) and the allocation to the honoraria ($70,000.00), there will be $2,030,000.00 to distribute to Class Members as Settlement Funds. The $2,030,000.00 will be paid taking into account Class Members’ years of service with BlackBerry as of February 28th, 2017, allocated as follows:

- 1) Class Members with less than 3 months’ service will not receive any settlement funds
- 2) The remaining Class Members will be divided into two tiers:
 - a. Tier 1: Class Members with less than 5 years’ service
 - b. Tier 2: Class Members with 5 or more years’ service
- 3) The Payment will be made in two installments. The first installment will be paid as follows:
 - a. Tier 1: $400 per complete or partial year of service; and
 - b. Tier 2: $800 per complete or partial year of service

Through litigation, BlackBerry provided the Plaintiffs with the start date for all Class Members. Class Counsel will send all Class Members a document to complete as part of the Claim Administration Form to confirm the accuracy of their recorded start date. Class Counsel will create a process for Class Members to dispute their years of service in the event the information is incorrect.

Class Counsel will give Class Members until December 31st, 2025 to make claims. In the event they do not make a claim, their settlement entitlement will be added to the Holdback (see below) amount to be split amongst the Class Members that do make a claim.

- 4) The balance of the Settlement Funds following the first installment payments will be referred to as a “Holdback”. Class Counsel has created the Holdback to ensure that, in the event Class Members successfully dispute their start date, there are sufficient settlement funds remaining to pay any additional amounts owed.

Moreover, the total settlement amount may increase because Class Counsel will hold the settlement funds in an interest-bearing account until the funds can be distributed, and as such, the Holdback allows that amount to be evenly distributed to Class Members. Class Counsel estimates that the Holdback should be approximately $172,248.77 plus interest. Once the first installments are paid to all eligible Class Members who have completed the Claim Administration Form, but no later than March 2nd, 2026, the entire Holdback will be distributed as a second installment to eligible Class Members who have completed a Claim Administration Form as follows:

- a. The Holdback shall be paid on a prorated basis to all Class Members in the same proportion as the first installment
 - b. The Holdback for each Class Member shall be calculated as follows:
 - i. The Holdback amount will be divided by half the cumulative sum of the total years of service of all Tier 1 Class Members and the full cumulative sum of all Tier 2 Class Members (hereinafter referred to as the “Holdback Multiplier”)
 - ii. Each Class Member shall receive:
 1. Tier 1: the Holdback Multiplier times half of their years of service (including partial years of service)
 2. Tier 2: the Holdback Multiplier times their years of service (including partial years of service)
- 5) The following example illustrates the proposed distribution. Specifically, we have created eight hypothetical Class Members for the purposes of showing the calculation. For this hypothetical example, we are treating these eight Class Members as the entire Class:

Class Member	Years of service	Tier	First Installment
A	2.5	Tier 1	$1,000.00
B	1	Tier 1	$400.00
C	8.6	Tier 2	$6,880.00
D	12.5	Tier 2	$10,000.00
E	3.3	Tier 1	$1,320.00
F	4.2	Tier 1	$1,680.00
G	6.6	Tier 2	$5,280.00
H	13.1	Tier 2	$10,480.00

The Second Installment will vary if any Class Members dispute their years of service, and as such, will need to be calculated after the First Installment. For purposes of this hypothetical example only (and notwithstanding the fact that we expect the Holdback amount to be approximately $170,000.00), we will fix the Holdback at $10,000.00.

To calculate the Holdback Multiplier, we will apply the following formula:

- HM = Holdback Multiplier
- HB = Holdback
- T1 = total cumulative years of service of Tier 1 Class Members
- T2 = total cumulative years of service of Tier 2 Class Members

$$HM = \frac{HB}{[(0.5) \times T1] + T2}$$

Each Class Member will then receive the Holdback Multiplier times their total complete and partial years of service.

Based on the above information:

- HB = $10,000
- T1 = 11
- T2 = 40.8

Given this, the Holdback Multiplier would be:

$$HM = \frac{$10,000}{[(0.5) \times 11] + 40.8}$$

$$HM = $215.98$$

The formulas for calculating each Class Member's Second Installment are as follows:

Tier 1 Class Members:

$$\text{Second Installment} = HM \times \frac{\text{Years of Service}}{2}$$

Tier 2 Class Members:

$$\text{Second Installment} = HM \times \text{Years of Service}$$

From here, each Tier 1 and 2 Class Member will receive the following Second Installment amounts in Figure 2:

Class Member	Years of service	Second Installment
A	2.5	$269.98
B	1	$107.99
C	8.6	$1,857.43
D	12.5	$2,699.75

E	3.3	$356.37
F	4.2	$453.56
G	6.6	$1,425.47
H	13.1	$2,829.34

BEFORE: C. MacLeod RSJ

COUNSEL: Janice Payne, Andrew Montague-Reinholdt, Karine Dion & Rhian Foley,
for the Plaintiff

Arlen Sternberg, Colette Koopman & Ryan Lax for the Defendant

HEARD: April 11, 2025 – in writing, on consent

CLASS PROCEEDING ORDER AND DIRECTIONS

[1] Class counsel and the Class Plaintiff have reached a settlement with the Defendant and wish to schedule a motion for approval of the settlement and of the fees and expenses of class counsel.

[2] On consent of all parties, the Plaintiff also seeks approval of the forms of notice and objection to be provided to the class members in advance of the hearing. I have reviewed the proposed forms and notice protocol which appear to me to be satisfactory.

[3] The court therefore orders and directs as follows:

- a. The date for the approval motion is fixed for July 30, 2025 but if that date does not work for counsel, an alternative date may be fixed by my office upon request.
- b. On consent, the proposed forms and content of the notice of hearing documents submitted to the court by letter dated March 14, 2025 are hereby approved.
- c. This order is effective without further formality and is a case management order pursuant to the Rules and the Act.

Notice Plan

The notice program seeks to notify all Class Members. The Class Members are a group of 285 individuals, whose names are known to Class Counsel. Class Counsel has contact information (phone number, email address, and/or address) for all but one Class Member. Of the 284 Class Members for whom Class Counsel has contact information, Class Counsel has the address of approximately 282 Class Members and the email address of approximately 235 Class Members.¹

FORM OF NOTICES

The Notice of Hearing for Settlement Approval and Class Counsel Fee Approval (“Notice of Hearing”) and the Notice of Settlement Approval and Class Counsel Fee Approval Order (“Notice of Approval”) shall be issued in the format of a Short Form Notice and a Long Form Notice. The form and content of all Notices shall be agreed upon by the Parties

DISSEMINATION OF NOTICES

The Notice of Hearing and Notice of Approval shall be disseminated as follows:

- a. The Short Form and Long Form Notice of Hearing will be sent via email and mail by Class Counsel to all Class Members for whom the appropriate contact information has been provided;
- b. The Short Form and Long Form Notice of Approval will be sent via email and mail by Class Counsel to all 281 Class Members who are eligible to receive settlement funds² and for whom the appropriate contact information has been provided;
- c. The Short Form and Long Form Notice of Hearing and Notice of Approval will be posted by Class Counsel on their website;
- d. The Short Form Notice of Hearing and Notice of Approval will be posted by Class Counsel on their social media (Facebook, LinkedIn, Bluesky, and Instagram); and
- e. Class Counsel will issue a press release regarding the settlement.

The Notices will be delivered by Class Counsel at Class Counsel’s expense.

² Only Class Members with at least three months of service with BlackBerry are eligible to receive settlement funds.

NOTICE OF HEARING
For Settlement Approval and Class Counsel Fee Approval in BlackBerry Class Action

Parker v BlackBerry Limited*, Court File No. 17-71659

This is a formal Notice, approved by the Ontario Superior Court of Justice

TO: All persons in Canada who were employees and/or dependent contractors of BlackBerry Limited (“BlackBerry”), who worked for BlackBerry in Canada, and who were offered and accepted employment with the Ford Motor Company of Canada (“Ford”) between January 1, 2017 and April 30, 2017, while excluding BlackBerry employees who filed a complaint pursuant to section 96 of the Employment Standards Act, 2000 seeking termination pay and/or severance pay and did not withdraw that complaint within two weeks (the “Class Members”).

A SETTLEMENT HAS BEEN REACHED IN THIS CASE, SUBJECT TO COURT APPROVAL

PLEASE READ THIS NOTICE CAREFULLY as it provides important information about the proposed settlement, distribution of settlement funds, and Class Members’ rights in respect of the settlement and proposed distribution

WHAT SETTLEMENT HAS BEEN REACHED?

The Representative Plaintiff and BlackBerry have reached a proposed settlement for a total, all-inclusive payment of CDN $4 million (including in respect of legal costs, interest, and administration expenses) (the “Gross Settlement Funds”). The Gross Settlement Funds, plus any interest, and less court-approved legal fees, disbursements, honoraria for the four instructing Class Members, administration expenses, and any applicable taxes, are available for compensation to eligible Class Members (“Net Settlement Funds”). The amount paid to Class Members will be in respect of general damages, meaning that it is non-taxable.

BlackBerry expressly denies any wrongdoing or liability. The proposed settlement will resolve the litigation entirely.

The settlement and Class Counsel’s fees are subject to the Court’s approval. The Court will hold a hearing to decide whether to approve the settlement and whether to approve Class Counsel’s fees on July 30th, 2025 at 10:00 a.m. (“Settlement Approval and Class Counsel Fee Approval Hearing”). Class Members and members of the public may, but are not required to, attend the Settlement Approval and Class Counsel Fee Approval Hearing. Class Members are entitled to object to the settlement.

WHO QUALIFIES FOR COMPENSATION?

WHAT HAPPENS TO THE SETTLEMENT MONEY?

The Plaintiff will seek approval from the Court for a method of distributing the settlement funds.

After the proposed allocation to legal fees ($1.9 million in legal fees, disbursements, and administrative costs for distributing the settlement funds) and the allocation to the honoraria ($25,000.00 for the Representative Plaintiff and $15,000.00 for each of the three other instructing Class Members, totaling $70,000.00), there will be $2,030,000.00 to distribute to Class Members as Settlement Funds. The $2,030,000.00 will be paid taking into account Class Members' years of service with BlackBerry as of February 28, 2017, allocated as follows:

- 1) Class Members with less than 3 months' service will not receive any settlement funds
- 2) The remaining Class Members will be divided into two tiers:
 - a. Tier 1: Class Members with less than 5 years' service
 - b. Tier 2: Class Members with 5 or more years' service
- 3) The Payment will be made in two installments. The first installment will be paid as follows:
 - a. Tier 1: $400 per complete or partial year of service
 - b. Tier 2: $800 per complete or partial year of service
- 4) The balance of the Settlement Funds following the first installment payments will be referred to as a "Holdback". Class Counsel estimates that the Holdback should be approximately $172,248.77 plus interest. Once the first installments are paid to all eligible Class Members who have completed the Claim Administration Form, but not later than March 2, 2026, the entire Holdback will be distributed as a second installment to eligible Class Members who have completed a Claim Administration Form as follows:
 - a. The Holdback shall be paid on a prorated basis to all Class Members in the same proportion as the first installment
 - b. The Holdback for each Class Member shall be calculated as follows:
 - i. The Holdback amount will be divided by half the cumulative sum of the total years of service of all Tier 1 Class Members and the full cumulative sum of all Tier 2 Class Members (hereinafter referred to as the "Holdback Multiplier")
 - ii. Each Class Member shall receive:
 1. Tier 1: the Holdback Multiplier times half of their years of service (including partial years of service)
 2. Tier 2: the Holdback Multiplier times their years of service (including partial years of service)

WHAT ARE CLASS MEMBERS' RIGHTS AND OPTIONS?

Do nothing If the Court approves the Settlement Agreement, Class Counsel will contact you (if you are an eligible Class Member) via email and/or mail to advise you of the approval. At that point, you will need to fill out a Claim Administration Form by December 31, 2025, to ensure that Class Counsel has your correct length of service with BlackBerry and contact details so that you can receive compensation from the settlement.

Class Counsel will also post information on their website advising Class Members of the approval of the settlement and providing a link for Class Members to complete the Claim Administration Form. You should periodically check Class Counsel's website to stay current on the Class Action.

Object Class Members have the right to object to the proposed settlement. If you want to object to the proposed settlement, you must send your written submissions (setting out your objection) to Class Counsel by June 30th, 2025. You can access the Objection Form at <https://nelliganlaw.ca/wp-content/uploads/2025/04/Objection-Form.pdf>

The submissions must include:

- Your name, address, and telephone number;
- A summary of the reasons you oppose the proposed settlement; and
- Whether you plan to attend the Settlement Approval and Class Counsel Fee Approval Hearing.

If you object to the settlement, you are asking the Court to not approve it. If the Court does not approve the settlement, there will be no settlement proceeds at this time, and there may never be money to distribute to Class Members in the future.

If the Court does not approve the settlement, then the Class Action will continue.

Submissions will be shared with the Court and BlackBerry.

NOTICE OF HEARING
For Settlement Approval and Class Counsel Fee Approval in BlackBerry Class Action

Parker v BlackBerry Limited*, Court File No. 17-71659

This is a formal Notice, approved by the Ontario Superior Court of Justice

TO: All persons in Canada who were employees and/or dependent contractors of BlackBerry Limited (“BlackBerry”), who worked for BlackBerry in Canada, and who were offered and accepted employment with the Ford Motor Company of Canada (“Ford”) between January 1, 2017 and April 30, 2017, while excluding BlackBerry employees who filed a complaint pursuant to section 96 of the Employment Standards Act, 2000 seeking termination pay and/or severance pay and did not withdraw that complaint within two weeks (the “Class Members”).

A SETTLEMENT HAS BEEN REACHED IN THIS CASE, SUBJECT TO COURT APPROVAL

PLEASE READ THIS NOTICE CAREFULLY as it provides important information about the proposed settlement, distribution of settlement funds, and Class Members’ rights in respect of the settlement and proposed distribution

You are receiving this Notice because you are a Class Member in a Class Action against BlackBerry.

WHAT IS THIS CLASS ACTION ABOUT?

This Class Action is known as Parker v BlackBerry Limited, Court File No. 17-71659. The person who sued, David Parker, is the Representative Plaintiff. Mr. Parker sued BlackBerry Limited (“BlackBerry”) (the Defendant) on behalf of the Class Members, who were offered and accepted employment with Ford. The Class Members are represented by Nelligan Law (“Class Counsel”).

This Class Action alleges that, in arranging to transfer the Class Members’ employment to Ford in 2017, BlackBerry failed to provide them with certain entitlements and breached its duty of good faith. BlackBerry expressly denies the allegations and claims and has maintained its position throughout.

This Class Action was certified by the Ontario Superior Court of Justice on May 27, 2019.

For more information about this Class Action, please visit: <https://nelliganlaw.ca/class-actions/blackberry/>.

WHAT SETTLEMENT HAS BEEN REACHED?

The Representative Plaintiff and BlackBerry (the “Parties”) have reached a proposed settlement for a total, all-inclusive payment of CDN $4 million (including in respect of legal costs, interest, and administration expenses) (“Settlement Agreement”). The amount paid to Class Members will be in respect of general damages, meaning that it is non-taxable. Class Counsel fees and certain expenses associated with the Class Action will be deducted from the total settlement amount prior to the payment to Class Members.

BlackBerry expressly denies any wrongdoing or liability. The proposed settlement will resolve the litigation entirely.

Class Counsel and the Representative Plaintiff recommend the settlement because it provides Class Members with reasonable compensation and avoids the risks of proceeding to trial which will cause further delays, costs, unknown results, and potential appeals.

The settlement and Class Counsel’s fees are subject to the Court’s approval. The Court will hold a hearing to decide whether to approve the settlement and whether to approve Class Counsel’s fees on July 30th, 2025 at 10:00 a.m. (“Settlement Approval and Class Counsel Fee Approval Hearing”). Class Members and members of the public may, but are not required to, attend the Settlement Approval and Class Counsel Fee Approval Hearing. Class Members are entitled to object to the settlement.

If the settlement is not approved, the Representative Plaintiff will need to prove his claims and the claims of the other Class Members against BlackBerry at trial. There is no guarantee that the Representative Plaintiff would win any money for the Class Members at trial.

WHO QUALIFIES FOR COMPENSATION?

Class Members who did not opt out of the Class Action, and who completed at least three months of service with BlackBerry, qualify for compensation.

The Class Member definition is: All persons in Canada who were employees and/or dependent contractors of BlackBerry Limited (“BlackBerry”), who worked for BlackBerry in Canada, and who were offered and accepted employment with the Ford Motor Company of Canada (“Ford”) between January 1, 2017 and April 30, 2017, while excluding BlackBerry employees who filed a complaint pursuant to section 96 of the Employment Standards Act, 2000 seeking termination pay and/or severance pay and did not withdraw that complaint within two weeks.

WHAT HAPPENS TO THE SETTLEMENT MONEY?

The Plaintiff will seek approval from the Court for a method of distributing the settlement funds.

Under the proposed settlement, BlackBerry will pay a total of CDN $4 million (including in respect of legal costs, interest, and administration expenses) (the “Gross Settlement Funds”). The Gross Settlement Funds, plus any interest, and less court-approved legal fees, disbursements, honoraria for the four instructing Class Members, administration expenses, and applicable taxes, are available for compensation to eligible Class Members (“Net Settlement Funds”).

An honorarium is a sum of money payable to the four instructing Class Members to recognize the contributions they have made to advance this Class Action. Class Counsel will ask the Court to approve the following amounts as honoraria for the four instructing Class Members: $25,000.00 for the Representative Plaintiff and $15,000.00 for each of the three other instructing Class Members, totaling $70,000.00.

After the proposed allocation to legal fees ($1.9 million in legal fees, disbursements, and administrative costs for distributing the settlement funds) and the allocation to the honoraria ($70,000.00), there will be $2,030,000.00 to distribute to Class Members as Settlement Funds. The $2,030,000.00 will be paid taking into account Class Members' years of service with BlackBerry as of February 28, 2017, allocated as follows:

- 1) Class Members with less than 3 months' service will not receive any settlement funds
- 2) The remaining Class Members will be divided into two tiers:
 - a. Tier 1: Class Members with less than 5 years' service
 - b. Tier 2: Class Members with 5 or more years' service
- 3) The Payment will be made in two installments. The first installment will be paid as follows:
 - a. Tier 1: $400 per complete or partial year of service
 - b. Tier 2: $800 per complete or partial year of service

Through litigation, BlackBerry provided the Plaintiffs with the start date for all Class Members. Class Counsel will send all Class Members a document to complete as part of the Claim Administration Form to confirm the accuracy of their recorded start date. Class Counsel will create a process for Class Members to dispute their years of service in the event the information is incorrect.

Class Counsel will give Class Members until December 31st, 2025 to make claims. In the event they do not make a claim, their settlement entitlement will be added to the Holdback (see below) amount to be split amongst the Class Members that do make a claim.

- 4) The balance of the Settlement Funds following the first installment payments will be referred to as a "Holdback". Class Counsel has created the Holdback to ensure that, in the event Class Members successfully dispute their start date, there are sufficient settlement funds remaining to pay any additional amounts owed.

Moreover, the total settlement amount may increase because Class Counsel will hold the settlement funds in an interest-bearing account until the funds can be distributed, and as such, the Holdback allows that amount to be evenly distributed to Class Members. Class Counsel estimates that the holdback should be approximately $172,248.77 plus interest. Once the first installments are paid to all eligible Class Members who have completed the Claim Administration Form, but not later than March 2, 2026, the entire Holdback will be distributed as a second installment to eligible Class Members who have completed a Claim Administration Form as follows:

- a. The Holdback shall be paid on a prorated basis to all Class Members in the same proportion as the first installment
 - b. The Holdback for each Class Member shall be calculated as follows:
 - i. The Holdback amount will be divided by half the cumulative sum of the total years of service of all Tier 1 Class Members and the full cumulative sum of all Tier 2 Class Members (hereinafter referred to as the “Holdback Multiplier”)
 - ii. Each Class Member shall receive:
 1. Tier 1: the Holdback Multiplier times half of their years of service (including partial years of service)
 2. Tier 2: the Holdback Multiplier times their years of service (including partial years of service)
- 5) The following example illustrates the proposed distribution. Specifically, we have created eight hypothetical Class Members for the purposes of showing the calculation. For this hypothetical example, we are treating these eight Class Members as the entire Class:

Class Member	Years of service	Tier	First Installment
A	2.5	Tier 1	$1,000.00
B	1	Tier 1	$400.00
C	8.6	Tier 2	$6,880.00
D	12.5	Tier 2	$10,000.00
E	3.3	Tier 1	$1,320.00
F	4.2	Tier 1	$1,680.00
G	6.6	Tier 2	$5,280.00
H	13.1	Tier 2	$10,480.00

The Second Installment will vary if any Class Members dispute their years of service, and as such, will need to be calculated after the First Installment. For purposes of this hypothetical example only (and notwithstanding the fact that we expect the Holdback amount to be approximately $170,000), we will fix the Holdback at $10,000.00.

To calculate the Holdback Multiplier, we will apply the following formula:

- HM = Holdback Multiplier
- HB = Holdback
- T1 = total cumulative years of service of Tier 1 Class Members
- T2 = total cumulative years of service of Tier 2 Class Members

$$HM = \frac{HB}{[(0.5) \times T1] + T2}$$

Each Class Member will then receive the Holdback Multiplier times their total complete and partial years of service.

Based on the above information:

- HB = $10,000
- T1 = 11
- T2 = 40.8

Given this, the Holdback Multiplier would be:

$$HM = \frac{$10,000}{[(0.5) \times 11] + 40.8}$$

$$HM = $215.98$$

The formulas for calculating each Class Member's Second Installment is as follows:

Tier 1 Class Members:

$$\text{Second Installment} = HM \times \frac{\text{Years of Service}}{2}$$

Tier 2 Class Members:

$$\text{Second Installment} = HM \times \text{Years of Service}$$

From here, each Tier 1 and 2 Class Member will receive the following Second Installment amounts in Figure 2:

Class Member	Years of service	Second Installment
A	2.5	$269.98
B	1	$107.99
C	8.6	$1,857.43
D	12.5	$2,699.75
E	3.3	$356.37
F	4.2	$453.56
G	6.6	$1,425.47

WHO ARE THE LAWYERS (CLASS COUNSEL) AND HOW MUCH ARE THEY GETTING PAID?

The Class Members are represented by Nelligan O'Brien Payne LLP ("Nelligan Law").

Nelligan Law can be reached at blackberryclassaction@nelliganlaw.ca.

Class Members do not personally pay Class Counsel. Class Counsel will ask the Court to approve legal fees and expenses of $1.9 million to compensate Class Counsel for the work they have done and the expenses they have incurred in advancing this Class Action since it began in February 2017.

The $1.9 million will include payment of legal fees, disbursements, costs associated with distributing the Net Settlement Funds, and taxes.

The $1.9 million payment will be paid out of the $4 million Gross Settlement Funds. Class Counsel are only paid if there is a successful settlement or positive judgement following a trial/appeal.

The Court's approval of the Settlement Agreement is not contingent on the Court's approval of Class Counsel's fees or the honoraria to the four instructing Class Members.

WHAT ARE CLASS MEMBERS' RIGHTS AND OPTIONS?

Do nothing If the Court approves the Settlement Agreement, Class Counsel will contact you (if you are an eligible Class Member) via email and/or mail to advise you of the approval. At that point, you will need to fill out a Claim Administration Form by December 31, 2025, to ensure that Class Counsel has your correct length of service with BlackBerry and contact details so that you can receive compensation from the settlement.

Class Counsel will also post information on their website advising Class Members of the approval of the settlement and providing a link for Class Members to complete the Claim Administration Form. You should periodically check Class Counsel's website to stay current on the Class Action.

Object Class Members have the right to object to the proposed settlement. If you want to object to the proposed settlement, you must send your written submissions (setting out your objection) to Class Counsel by June 30th, 2025. You can access the Objection Form at <https://nelliganlaw.ca/wp-content/uploads/2025/04/Objection-Form.pdf>

The submissions must include:

- Your name, address, and telephone number;
- A summary of the reasons you oppose the proposed settlement; and
- Whether you plan to attend the Settlement Approval and Class Counsel Fee Approval Hearing.

If you object to the settlement, you are asking the Court to not approve it. If the Court does not approve the settlement, there will be no settlement proceeds at this time, and there may never be money to distribute to Class Members in the future.

If the Court does not approve the settlement, then the Class Action will continue.

Submissions will be shared with the Court and BlackBerry.

REASONS FOR DECISION

Employment Standards Act, 2000

Claim Number: 70187615-0

Business Name: BLACKBERRY LIMITED

Claimant Name: STEPHEN D'SOUZA

Date Claim Filed: April 21, 2017

Standard(s) At Issue:

1. Vacation Pay/Vacation Time
2. Termination Pay
3. Severance Pay
4. Other

Evidence, Decision and Reason(s) With Respect to Each Standard at Issue:

Legal Entity: Blackberry Limited

Claimant's Position:

Stephen D'Souza filed a claim with the Ministry of Labour alleging contraventions of the Employment Standards Act, 2000 (Act). He states he was employed by BlackBerry on June 16, 2008 and earned an annual salary of $135,600.00 at the time his employment ended. He states that his was terminated by BlackBerry on February 28, 2017 and is claiming termination and severance pay, benefits, and vacation pay.

Employer's Position:

Arlen Sternberg, employers' legal counsel responded on behalf of the employer and takes the position that Mr. D'Souza was not entitled to termination or severance pay as he was not terminated by BlackBerry. He chose to accept alternative full-time employment at another company and thus resigned from BlackBerry. In support of their position he submitted a copy of Mr. D'Souza's job offer letter, employment contract, payroll records, correspondence between the employees and their client, and his ROE.

Decision:

Ms. Colleen Hoey, Mr. D'Souza's lawyer and authorized representative states that on November 23, 2016 he was transitioned along with other members of his team to work on a project with Ford. On December 8, 2016, Ralph Pini, then General Manager of the Mobility Solutions Business Unit verbally told employees at a town hall meeting that the Engineering Services Project with Ford would end in February 2017 and that employees would get offers to join Ford after that date. Ford also held a town hall meeting on December 9, 2016 at several BlackBerry sites where Ford gave employees presentations related to working at Ford. On January 6, 2017, BlackBerry CEO John Chen sent out a memo which states that the Mobility Solutions Business Unit required headcount reductions and that they had negotiated agreements with Ford and TCL for alternative employment for most of the impacted team. She states that Mr. D'Souza was part of that team. She states that in mid-January 2017 BlackBerry coordinated meetings with its employees to receive in-person offers of employment from Ford HR representative. Mr. D'Souza received an offer from Ford on January 18, 2017 and was verbally advised that he and his team would be working on the same project that he had been working on with BlackBerry (Project Silver) but that effective March 1, 2017 his employer would be Ford. She said no alternate job was offered to Mr. D'Souza with BlackBerry so he accepted Ford's offer on January 27, 2017. BlackBerry later asked him to resign to which he refused.

The employer argued that it was made very clear to the employees who worked on the project at Ford, that they have the choice to accept Ford's offer or remain with BlackBerry. The employer states that the January 6, 2017 email from Mr. Chen; the second last part of that email indicates that if an employee received an offer, the employee could decline it and steps would be taken in an effort to redeploy them within BlackBerry. It also encourages employees to speak to their own manager and their human resources rep if they wanted additional information or had any questions. He said that employees who followed up and asked what would occur if they declined Ford's offer was informed they would remain a BlackBerry employee and would be placed on another project in a comparable role going forward.

I reviewed the January 6, 2017 email sent by Mr. Chen and I will concur that it supports the employer's argument. Below is a quote from that email: "For those in-scope employees who are not extended employment offers or decline a role at Ford or TCL, your manager and HRBS will evaluate internal opportunities to redeploy you within BlackBerry as much as possible. For additional Information and if you have further questions, please contact your manager and /or HRBP".

Mr. D'Souza indicated in his written submission that he was "verbally advised that he and his team would be working on the same project that he had been working on with BlackBerry, (Project "Silver)) but that effective March 1, 2017 his employer would be Ford". I asked who advised him that effective March 1, 2017 his employer would be Ford and his response was he cannot recall exactly who indicated this to him.

Mr. D'Souza submitted an email that was sent to the Silver Team on January 16, 2017 by Zoltan Racz and in that email they were told that they can raise any confidential matter with him. Another email, submitted by Mr. D'Souza was sent on January 27, 2017 by Mr. Racz. That email also indicates that employees have the option to not accept the offer.

I reviewed the Ford's offer and the deadline to accept that offer was January 27, 2017. Mr. D'Souza accepted this offer on the date of the deadline, which was after he received the January 6th, 16th, and 27th emails.

I also interviewed 3 individuals; 2 who accepted the Ford offer and currently employed with Ford, and 1 who declines the offer and remains employed with BlackBerry. None of these employees felt pressured by BlackBerry to accept Ford's offer and was aware they had the option to decline the offer. The individual who declines, he was assigned another position with BlackBerry and currently employed with them.

Based on the evidence provided by Mr. D'Souza and BlackBerry in this case; I have determine that Mr. D'Souza was aware that he had the choice to decline Ford's offer and remain employed with BlackBerry. I understated it was not clear as to which position he would be assigned but BlackBerry would be obligated to assign him to a comparable position or provide him with written notice of termination if they indented on terminating his employment. However; Mr. D'Souza did not give BlackBerry these options. He opted to accept Fords' offer and did not continue his employment with BlackBerry. I have determined he was not terminated by BlackBerry and BlackBerry is not obligated to pay him termination or severance pay.

I also looked at his concerns for RRSP match by the employer, benefits, incentive pay, and vacation pay. The employer has provided evidence in form of wage statements that showed he was paid vacation pay in the amount of $4694.40 on March 10, 2017, employer matched RRSP in the amount of $1043.08 on April 7, 2017 (this amount corresponds with amounts previously paid), and VIP pay in the amount of $3051.00 on May 5, 2017. He was not entitled to any further benefits after February 28, 2017 and he was no longer employed with BlackBerry.

Action(s) Taken by Officer:

No order issued against this employer as no violations were found. As such, I have closed the file on this matter.

REASONS FOR DECISION

Employment Standards Act, 2000

Claim Number: 70188822-0

Business Name: BLACKBERRY LIMITED

Claimant Name: CRISTIAN LAMBIRI

Date Claim Filed: May 23, 2017

Standard(s) At Issue:

1. Termination Pay
2. Severance Pay
3. Other

Evidence, Decision and Reason(s) With Respect to Each Standard at Issue:

Claimant's Position:

Cristian Lambiri filed a claim with the Ministry of Labour alleging a contravention of the Employment Standards Act, 2000 (Act). He states he was employed by Blackberry on July 13, 2010 and earned an annual salary of $173,000.00 when his employment ended on February 28, 2017. He said at the beginning of October 2016 he was assigned as one of the Ford project leads and it was made clear to him and other Ford/BlackBerry leaders that no work on the Ford project will be performed by BlackBerry Business Unit pass February 28, 2017. He said all his prior assignments were transferred to TCL in China and internal managers. These internal managers he said were told that they will be part of BlackBerry past February 28, 2017. He states that at the beginning of December 2016 he received a meeting invite from Rebecca Graham (Blackberry HR director), slated for December 8, 2016 and entitled "Cristian & Ford Meeting". He said he attended the meeting and neither Ms. Graham nor any other Blackberry employees were present. Instead two senior management from Ford personnel were present. During that meeting he was presented with an offer of employment with Ford Motor company of Canada, Limited (Ford). He said that same day other Ford project leaders received employment offer from Ford but not the other BlackBerry personnel. He said he immediately notified his direct manager that he did not desire to consider the offer. He said he also notified Ms. Jessup via email of the offer and that he did not accept it. He said he received no further communication from HR regarding this matter but on December 12, 2016 he was asked by Ralph Pini to a conversation to discuss the Ford offer. He said initially he refused but was asked by his line Manager Zoltan Racz to call Mr. Pini, which he did on December 13, 2016 and told him he was surprised to see an offer as he was led to believe that the Ford project personnel would be transferred to Ford via a regular divestiture. He said Mr. Pini did not comment on this statement but asked him if there was anything in Ford's offer that made him refuse it. He said he told him he did not give it any consideration as he was not interested in ceasing his employment with Blackberry. He said he was advised to give the Ford offer a chance and again he pointed out he was not interested in leaving Blackberry and had no interest in considering Ford's offer. Mr. Pini then told him to contact Chris House which he did and tried very hard to convince him that he was not interested in Ford's offer but he did not offer him to stay with BlackBerry nor received any further communication from BlackBerry on this matter. As a result, he had no choice but to accept Fords' offer which he did on December 15, 2016.

On February 2, 2017 BlackBerry asked him to resign on account of him accepting Ford's offer and he refused. He is claiming termination and severance pay. In support of his position, Mr. Lambiri has submitted a copy of the job offer, emails exchange to blackberry regarding his refusal to accept the offer,

Employer's Position:

Arlen Sternberg, employers' legal counsel responded on behalf of the employer and takes the position that Mr. Lambiri is not entitled to termination or severance pay as he was not terminated by BlackBerry. He chose to accept alternative full-time employment at another company and thus resigned from BlackBerry. He argued that Mr. Pini suggested Mr. Lambiri consider the Ford's offer but also indicated that if you chose to decline he would remain a BlackBerry employee and BlackBerry would work with him to assess other projects or teams on which he could be placed going forward. He said Mr. Pini also suggested he speak with Chris House about potential roles/projects going forward which he did and was told by Mr. House that he was still working on the scope of his team and that new information regarding the scope of the projects was continuing to be provided to him daily. The employer further states that if Mr. Lambiri chose to decline the offer they would further discuss the available roles on the projects on Mr. House's team. He said Mr. Lambiri received a second offer from Ford and after receiving that second offer he accepted it on December 15, 2016. He said at no point was he told you would be terminated.

In support of their position he submitted a copy of Mr. Lambiri's job offer letter, employment contract, payroll records, correspondence between employees and BlackBerry, telephone log for December 9 – 14, 2016, email exchange between Mr. Pini, Mr. Lambiri and Mr. House, and his ROE and payroll records

Decision:

BlackBerry scheduled a meeting with Mr. Lambiri and Ford on December 8, 2016 and Ford offered Mr. Lambiri employment to which he did not accept and notified both Ford and BlackBerry of his decision. He was then asked to a meeting with Mr. Pini to discuss Ford's offer. Mr. Lambiri argues that during that meeting with Mr. Pini and subsequently Mr. House; he was not assured he would remain employed with BlackBerry if he did not accept Ford's offer. The employer states that it was made very clear to all employees through a Q&A sent on February 23, 2017 an email sent to them on June 6, 2017 to all employees. These however was sent after Mr. Lambiri had accepted the Ford's offer and that offer was only in effect until December 16, 2016. I spoke to other leaders who accepted the offer to see if they had the same circumstances but they accepted the offer soon after they received it. I contacted Mr. Stenberg as February 23rd and June 6th email would not apply in Mr. Lambiri's case. He stated that there were email exchange between Mr. Pini and Mr. Lambiri and they spoke on December 12th where he was told if he did not accept the offer he will remain a BlackBerry Employee. Mr. Lambiri states this conversation took place on December 13th and not December 12th. The employer provided a copy of the December 13th email which read:

"Hi Chris, I had a discussion last night with Christian Lambiri and he has been struggling with the decision to either move to Ford and accept their offer or remain with BlackBerry. I sensed that he is leaning to remain with BlackBerry and really likes the direction we are pushing to move Mobility Solutions towards a licensing business. I told him that if he does not accept the offer from Ford that he will remain an employee of BlackBerry. I suggested to him to give this process a chance, i.e speak with you about roles within the Software license team and also speak with Ford about the offer, etc. At the end we will support his decision. Expect a call from him or just reach out. Let me know after you speak with him."

Mr. Stenberg later provided a copy of Mr. Pini's phone log for the period of December 9 – 14, 2016 as evidence that the conversation took place on December 12th and not on December 13th.

Based on the evidence provided by both parties in this case; I have determined that is likely that Mr. Lambiri was aware that he had the choice to decline Ford's offer and remain employed by BlackBerry. I interviewed other employees who were affected and who had declined Ford's offer and they remain employed by BlackBerry. The email from Mr. Pini to Mr. House also confirms the likelihood that Mr. Lambiri was aware he would be redeployed. Based on the balance of probability, I have determined Mr. Lambiri was not terminated by BlackBerry and BlackBerry is not obligated to pay him termination or severance pay.

I also requested information from the employer with regards to RRSP payment (employer match) and vacation pay as it appeared this was not paid but the employer has provided sufficient evidence to prove otherwise and Mr. Lambiri also confirmed that payments were received. No further action will be taken on this matter.

Action(s) Taken by Officer:

No order issued against this employer as no violations were found. As such, I have closed the file on this matter.
